

Job Printing
Always Ready
When Promised
No Disappointments
33333333**

Farmington Enterprise

THE ENTERPRISE
is a clean newspaper and has no room for scandal
33333333**

VOL. XXI NO. 3

FARMINGTON, MICH., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1903

WHOLE NO. 1043

THE LOCAL NEWS

AND OTHER ITEMS

HERE AND THERE

Tony Bolger is ill.
Edgar Kennedy of Redford is in town Monday.

Mrs. Will Danton spent Wednesday in Detroit.

Mrs. Frank Johnston spent Thursday in Detroit.

Marl Murray of Lansing is in town for a few days.

Mrs. J. A. Miller is spending a few days in Birmingham.

J. J. Webster has returned from Cleveland for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Pierce were Northville callers Sunday.

Miss Leahy like made a business trip to Detroit Wednesday.

Earl Darrow is still confined to his bed with typhoid fever.

Fred Fair of Detroit visited Dell and Will McDermott Sunday.

Clair Conroy is visiting his brother, George, in Northville.

Mrs. George Nacker spent last Friday afternoon in Northville.

H. C. Skinner, who is working in Flint, was home over Sunday.

November has started in to emulate October in beautiful weather.

Robert Nealley of Northville visited friends in town Tuesday evening.

The Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. John Thayer Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Newman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kuster.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Danton visited in Wixom from Saturday until Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Woolworth of Pontiac visited the Misses Nelson Wednesday.

Dr. R. E. Bailey and wife of Pontiac visited Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stephens Sunday.

Mrs. Stephen Dribbels of Redford visited Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Philbrick one day last week.

Leopore Graham is suffering from blood poisoning in her foot. Dr. Holcomb is in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dribbels of Detroit visited Mr. and Mrs. John Delling a few days last week.

Mrs. C. Holmes and Mrs. Ed Halstead of Novi spent Wednesday with Mrs. Lucinda Conroy.

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Mealey will be delegates to the Epworth League convention at Mt. Carmel.

Mr. and Mrs. Mort Vorheis of Orchard Lake were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Vorheis Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Way and Mrs. E. C. Grace were entertained by Rev. and Mrs. Collins at Dearborn Wednesday.

Mrs. Mark Ambler and daughter and Mrs. Adair of Ypsilanti have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Lucinda Courcy.

Miss Electa Chilson has received the sad news of the death of her brother-in-law, John Lambert, of Vallejo, California.

Miss Alice Cole entertained twelve young people at her home Wednesday evening. A lunch was served and all had a very enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Rohde of Elm will occupy the house recently vacated by M. Mehrling and family. Mr. Rohde is conductor on the D. U. R.

There will be a grand gold medal contest at Northville in the M. E. church this evening, conducted by Mrs. M. E. Butler. There will be seven contestants.

Mrs. C. W. Chamberlin and daughter, June, spent last Friday in Detroit.

Mrs. June Tremper and daughter, Grace, attended services in the M. E. church Sunday morning.

Miss Blanche Botsford of Detroit was the guest of Miss Edessa Warner the latter part of last week.

Mrs. India Osmus and daughter, Jeannette, have been visiting friends in Detroit for a few days.

M. D. Keena and Miss Harriet Smith of Redford visited Geo. Holcomb and family last Saturday.

Lost: A pack of cards with charms on it, between Farmington and Northville, or on the streets, Friday night. Leave it in this office.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Edwards of this place and Mrs. Maudie Follette of Detroit were entertained Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Philbrick.

Harpers' Weekly of last week contained some excellent pictures of the country around Metz that was swept by the forest fires, also scenes in the burned village of Metz.

The meeting of the Ladies Literary club which was to be held Nov. 11 with Mrs. Frances Smith has been postponed until Nov. 18 on account of the club attending the Federation of Women's clubs, which is to be held at Royal Oak Nov. 11.

The regular meeting of the O. E. S. will be held Nov. 13, at which time they will entertain Mrs. Jane Tremper and daughter, Grace. Miss Tremper will give a talk on her trip to Quebec, and there will be entertainment. Refreshments will be served.

The thirty first annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the first district of Michigan is being held in the M. E. church at Northville yesterday and today. This evening there will be a grand gold medal contest in charge of Mrs. M. E. Butler.

The Halloo on social, which was given at the town hall Friday evening, was a success in every way. There was a good attendance and all had a very enjoyable time. The chairman of the social department wishes to thank all the young people who so kindly assisted her in making it a success.

Prof. J. E. Goodrich attended the state association of teachers at Saginaw last week and reports a delightful time. Six thousand teachers were present and great good was accomplished for the teachers and schools. Miss Whitbeck and Miss Sloan of the Farmington schools were also in attendance.

The election passed off so quietly that you would hardly have known there was anything unusual going on. The vote was not heavy and very little enthusiasm was shown. Not a shout or cheer for victory was heard either Tuesday night or Wednesday. The result was accepted by a great many people as a foregone conclusion.

Editor Seed of the Rochester Clarion was in town Tuesday and caught the editor of the Enterprise doing the work of the "devil" cleaning up the job press and washing rollers. Judging from his portly and prosperous appearance this Seed must be the one we read about in holy writ that fell in good ground. He is making a success of the Clarion.

For The Third Time

Fred M. Warner of Farmington Elected Governor of Michigan for the Third Time.

GOV. FRED M. WARNER.

The elected Governor of a great and populous state like Michigan three times in succession is certainly a remarkable record and one which a man might feel proud to achieve. Fred M. Warner on Tuesday was elected Governor of Michigan for the third time. In this his home town where he is so well and so favorably known the result is received with joy.

Oakland County Goes Republican.

Following is a list of the county Republican candidates elected:
Judge of Probate, Kleber P. Rockwell.
Sheriff, Chauncey Harris.
County Clerk, Geo. A. Brown.
County Treasurer, John Power.
Register of Deeds, Chas. H. Gaspie.
Prosecuting Attorney, F. L. Covert.
Circuit Court Commissioners, C. S. Matthews and E. E. Blakeslee.
Coroners, O. C. Farmer, C. Brace.
Surveyor, F. A. Slater.
Representative First District, David A. Green.
Representative Second District, Geo. Willoughby.
State Senator Twelfth District, Frank T. Newton.
Representative Sixth District, S. W. Smith.

Burr Robison is ill.

John Phelps made a business trip to Detroit Monday.

Mrs. Agnes Buno has resigned her position with Fred L. Cook & Co.

Mrs. Herman Giger is numbered among the sick.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins of Detroit were callers at Mrs. Selby's on Wednesday.

Forest Rohde of Elm will have a public sale Monday, Nov. 16, after which he will take a position as employee of the D. U. R.

A business meeting of the Epworth League was held with Miss Ola Webster Monday evening. Six new members were taken into the League. Misses Emma Gilmeister, Lavilla Adams, Maybelle Bradley, Eva Bradley and Cassie Goodrich and Clyde Johnston.

Mr. Mehrling and family, who moved here from Detroit a few months ago and engaged in the livery business and also kept the bakery, have given up the two business ventures on account of lack of patronage and have moved to Wyandotte. We wish them success in their new location.

The farmers who had apples and potatoes to sell are now on Easy street.

Mrs. Lyman Sprague and daughter, Lettiebell, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Pontiac.

Mrs. C. J. Sprague and Miss Electa Chilson were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry German last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Simpson and daughter, Leone, of North Farmington visited Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Phelps last Saturday.

Miss Edna Clifford and Miss Kathleen Stacer of Detroit were the guests of Miss Ola Webster the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Nettie Cogsdill and daughter, who have been visiting friends at Stevens Corners for the past two weeks, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brown and daughter, Frances, of Ypsilanti are visiting James Conroy and family for an indefinite length of time.

Miss Lillian Phelps gave a Halloween party last Saturday evening to which eighteen young ladies were invited. Games and music were the amusements of the evening. A light lunch was served.

Clyde Johnston spent Monday in Detroit.

Mrs. Frank Steele went to Detroit Wednesday.

E. C. H. Kley of Northville was in town last Saturday.

Mrs. Will Robison spent one day last week in Detroit.

Miss Electa Chilson spent Saturday afternoon in Northville.

Mrs. Anna Sprague visited in Detroit a few days this week.

Mrs. Ora Cranston is visiting relatives in Dearborn and Ypsilanti.

Miss Maude Dickie of Detroit was the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. Strong, Sunday.

Rev. J. E. Mealey gave an interesting sermon Sunday night on "Christian Citizenship."

Mrs. Charles Steele spent last week Thursday in Redford with Mr. and Mrs. LaRue Steele.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Braadt of Detroit were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Hostetter Sunday.

W. S. Sly, prohibition candidate for congress, spoke at the Methodist church last Sunday morning.

Miss Lucile Randall of North Farmington spent the latter part of last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Phelps.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tanner and daughter, Gladys, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Phelps Sunday.

Farmington's deer hunters left yesterday for a season of hunting in Northern Michigan and will be gone until Thanksgiving.

Miss Bertha Ash of Livonia, who had been attending the past three weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Walker Hostetter, has returned home.

Rev. F. A. Armstrong, formerly of Farmington, this state is having a very encouraging pastoral term at Krispien, Mont., and was conference here at the recent session of the Northern Montana conference.

Christi Advocate.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Dr. S. W. district superintendent, will at the Methodist church Sunday morning and will hold the quarterly conference Monday afternoon, Nov. 9. All officers of the church are urged to be present at this important meeting which will be held at the parsonage at 2:30.

Death of Mrs. Cora Heliker.

Mrs. Cora Heliker passed quietly away at about twelve o'clock Tuesday night at her home in East Farmington, after an illness of nearly twenty months with tuberculosis. She is survived by the husband, Charles Heliker, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. VanAlstyne. The funeral will be held from the house at one o'clock this Friday afternoon; Rev. Chas. Collins of Dearborn officiating. Interment will be made in East Farmington cemetery.

Obituary.

Orville Botsford, father of C. W. Botsford and Mrs. Eva Sadler of Detroit, and a brother of Mrs. P. D. Warner, died at his late residence in Detroit Monday. The funeral was held from the M. E. church here Wednesday afternoon and interment was made in Oakwood cemetery.

Orville Botsford was born at Lyons, Wayne county, N. Y., July 20, 1821. In 1836 he moved to Farmington with his father and settled upon a farm north of the village, where he resided for 60 years. He was married to Mary Eddy in 1845 and to them was born one son, Oscar E., now deceased. His wife lived but one year after their marriage. In 1850 he was united in marriage to Sophia E. Gage and to them were born three children, Legrand, now deceased, Charles W. and Eva.

Orville Botsford was a kind and loving husband and father and will be greatly missed in the family circle and by a large circle of friends.

Financial Report for M. E. Church, Sept. Oct.

The Methodist Episcopal church depends for its support upon the free will offerings of its members and friends. The pastor believes in the greatest publicity of all affairs in which the public are concerned and so submits the treasurer's report for that part of September and the month of October that has elapsed since the beginning of his pastorate here.

RECEIPTS
Balance on hand Sep. 13,	$ 8.18
Rec'd from Envelopes,	33.78
From Ladies Aid,	5.00
From loose collection,	12.14
Total,	$64.10

EXPENDITURE:

Pastor,	45.78
Janitor,	6.00
Gasoline,	1.17
Stone sidewalk,	13.40
Total,	$54.35

There is a bill of $9.45 for coal and stovepipe still unpaid.

Election Returns.

The Michigan State Telephone Company, through their local representative, C. M. Doherty, deserves great credit for the manner in which the election returns were handled Tuesday night. It was a great convenience to their patrons and the generous action of the company and the work of Mr. Doherty in furnishing the returns free will be remembered.

Card of Thanks.

We desire through the Enterprise to express our heartfelt thanks to our old friends and neighbors for the kindness shown in the last sad rites in honor of our beloved father, Orville Botsford.

C. W. BOTSFORD AND FAMILY.

Mrs. Ann Kennedy spent Sunday with George Hendryx and family.

Entertainment by Ladies Union.

The Ladies Union are making big preparations for an entertainment, Saturday evening, Nov. 14. The talented elocutionists, Miss Braun and Miss Randall of Detroit have been secured for the evening. They will be assisted by home talent. Look for programs which will be out early next week.