

Catholic Church Society
Plans Supper Dance Soon

It has been announced that Our Lady of Sorrows Altar Society will sponsor a supper dance on Friday, November 14, beginning at 9:00 p.m.

The dance will be held at the Western Golf and Country Club near Beech Road and Five Mile. Proceeds will be used toward the building fund.

Mrs. Edward Dawson, chairman of the affair, announces that refreshments will be served at midnight during the informal affair.

Clarenceville Schools
To Hold Open House

Three Clarenceville schools, Central, Edgewood and the high school, will be open to parents on Tuesday, November 11, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The annual occasion will enable parents to see the classrooms, examples of students' work and a chance to talk with the teachers. School officials hope that the experience will give parents a more clear idea of what makes up the day of the student.

BOND SCHOOL P.T.A.
COMPLETES PLANS FOR DANCE, MEETING

Monday, November 17, at 8:00 p.m. in the Bond School is the time and place of the next Bond P. T. A. meeting. Fathers in the Bond area — please take special notice of this date. The meeting is especially presented for fathers and will be especially attractive to them. Mr. A. G. Leonard will speak on the subject "Where Your School Money Goes", followed by a question discussion period.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting by the fifth grade mothers of the morning session.

The Bond School P. T. A. will present the Harvest Hoe-Down in the Farmington High School gym on Saturday, November 22, from 8:00 to 12:00 p.m. Music will be furnished by French's Band with Jack Whitehead as caller. Refreshments will be served.

Americans are eating an egg a day, with an extra egg each eighth day.

Bride Of Lee Lathrup

NANCY KATHRYN HARFF

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Harff of Sunux venue in Detroit announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Kathryn, to Mr. Lee Earl Lathrup, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lathrup of Farmington. The bride-elect attended Michigan State College. Her fiancé was graduated from Michigan State College where he was affiliated with Delta Tau Delta fraternity. A spring ceremony is planned.

Chi Omega Alumnae
To Meet November 14

The North Suburban alumnae of Chi Omega will meet for a 12:30 luncheon on Friday, November 14, at the home of Mrs. Kenneth R. Herman, 26652 Captains Lane, Franklin, Michigan. Dr. Katherine Chamberlain will speak on "Education for Peace in the Atomic Age".

The chairman for the day will be Mrs. William Royer of Birmingham assisted by Mrs. Neal Waldrop and Mrs. Walter O. Koch of Royal Oak.

Mrs. Royer and Mrs. Koch will take reservations.

Methodist Church Youth
Enjoy Masquerade Party

Hallowe'en at the Wallace G. Williams residence at 26935 Halsted Road took the form of a party which was attended by some 35 youths, all members of the St. James Methodist Church of Detroit.

Site of the party was an old chicken house that had been converted into a garage. The group brought its own music and all took part in carefully planned games during the course of the evening.

Many parents of the youths, 18 years and under, were at least partly responsible for planning the masquerade.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Wolfe of Shadydale Avenue have received a letter from their daughter, Mrs. Don Brock in San Antonio, Texas, stating that she has successfully passed an audition test for a part in a play, "Our Town" sponsored by the Little Theatre group of San Antonio.

D. OF I. INSTALLS
OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR

The installation of officers of the Daughters of Isabella Circle 617 was held at the Farmington Town Hall on Thursday, October 30. Past Regent Marie Cronin officiated at the installation of the following officers: Regent, Lauretta Ozark; Vice-Regent, Mary Tamer; Past Regent, Stella Strze; Recording Secretary, Irene Zimnie; Financial Secretary, Marie Donovan; Treasurer, Ann Cornell.

Retiring Regent Stella Strze was presented with a piece of luggage by the members of the circle. Marshalls were Catherine Dickerson and Agnes Faulkner.

Decorations Chairman Pearl Marks did a creditable job and through the courtesy of the West Point Greenhouses, a floral centerpiece of chrysanthemums in rich fall colors gave a color to the meeting.

Visiting Regents included Mrs. Helen Kellerman of Our Lady of the Rosary Circle; Mrs. Jean Gaeke, Mystical Rose Circle; Mrs. Anita Kelly, Queen of Peace Circle, and Mrs. Margaret Krammer, Joan of Arc Circle.

Regent-elect Mrs. Dorothy Wagner of Our Lady of the Rosary Circle and Past Regents Mrs. Marie Roberts, Our Lady of the Rosary Circle; Mrs. Joan Kane of Joan of Arc Circle and Mrs. Laura Fuchs of the Madonna Circle were also present.

Canadian Bird Sanctuary

Several members of the Farmington Eight Mile Extension Group recently made a trip to Canada and visited the Jack Minor Bird Sanctuary at Kingsville.

The group proceeded through the tunnel to Belle River. After their visit to the sanctuary, they returned via the Ambassador Bridge.

Those who made the trip were Mrs. R. Brent, Mrs. J. Clifford, Mrs. F. Larremore, Mrs. D. Russell, Mrs. William Brock, Mrs. S. C. Palmer, Mrs. E. Marks, Mrs. P. M. Dickinson, Mrs. William Thornton, Mrs. C. Mortimer and Mrs. Frank Platz, all of Farmington.

"NOTABLE NEIGHBOR"

Mrs. William Knowlton, 38855 Grand River, was chosen "Notable Neighbor" on the ladies' day television program last Monday, November 3. She received a certificate for a corsage, which was really appreciated.

Three Parties Fete
Mrs. Willie Joyce

Three different groups are helping Mrs. Willie Belle Joyce of 29220 Dresden to celebrate her eighty-second birthday this week.

Mrs. Joyce was furnished with a surprise luncheon on Friday, October 31, and on Sunday fourteen friends visited at her home and supplied gifts and cards for the occasion. For her part, Mrs. Joyce kept her friends in a lively mood by her recitations of comic poems, an art which, she admits, is delightful.

The third party will be given on November 7 by the Birthday Club of Detroit and surrounding area.

MRS. AULT ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Audin Ault entertained the Mary Martha Circle of the Clarenceville Methodist Church at her home on Brentwood Avenue last Tuesday evening. Twelve ladies were present. Pumpkin pie and coffee were a pleasing climax to the evening's pleasure.
