Madeline M. Knowles

Madeline May Knowles, ten day old baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Knowles of 24719 Middlebelt Road, died Wednesday morning, October 29, at Art Centre Hospital in Detroit.

The baby rested at the Thayer Funeral Home until Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock when grave-digging services took place at Grand Lawn Cemetery, with Dr. Gordon Northrup of the Farmington Baptist Church officiating.

Carrie E. Christlancy

Miss Carrie E. Christlancy of 33909 Oakland Road, Farmington, passed away on Wednesday morning, October 29, following an illness of the past five years.

Carrie Estelle Christlancy was born in Monroe, Michigan, on November 30, 1888, the daughter of Henry C. and Charlotte Brigham Christlancy. Miss Christlancy was a teacher in the Detroit School system for many years, having taught in the Clay, Fairbanks and Palmer Schools. She retired in 1925 and came to Farmington in 1925 to make her home with Miss Ruth Carlisle on Oakland Road.

Miss Christlancy was a member of the Unitarian Church in Detroit and a member of the Detroit Woman's City Club.

Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Carlisle residence with Rev. Carl H. Schultz officiating, and burial took place at Woodlawn Cemetery in Detroit.

Surviving are one brother, Fred A. of Beverly Hills, California, three nieces and two nephews, and her dear friend, Miss Ruth Carlisle.

Arrangements were in charge of the Thayer Funeral Home.

Helen Pauline Watson

Mrs. Helen Pauline Watson died suddenly October 23, 1952, at her home in San Diego, California.

She was born July 23, 1906, in Farmington, the daughter of Mrs. Anna Pauline and the late William Pauline. She was a graduate of Farmington High School Class of 1924. She was united in marriage to Homer C. Watson of Pontiac on July 25, 1934.

She leaves her husband, Homer, her mother Anna Pauline; a sister, Mrs. Oliver East of Hinsdale, Illinois; and a brother, William Pauline, of Farmington. Interment was in La Jolla, California.

Josephine Mary Clements

Mrs. Josephine Mary Clements died November 1, 1952, in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac following an illness of several weeks.

She was born in Liverpool, England, March 1, 1878, the daughter of Louis and Catherine (Thomas) Wilson. She was married to William Henry Clements October 17, 1918, and had resided at 22430 Hawthorne for seventeen years.

Mrs. Clements leaves her husband, William H., and two sisters, living in England.

A Rosary service was recited at the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home at 8:00 o'clock Monday evening and funeral services were from Our Lady of Sorrows Church at 9:00 a.m. Tuesday.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Rita A. Tucker

Mrs. Rita A. Tucker died at her residence, 20497 Deering, November 2, 1952.

She was born September 27, 1883, in Detroit, the daughter of John and Mary (Putnam) Boltho, and was united in marriage to Herbert C. Tucker July 27, 1908, who preceded her in death on June 18, 1941. She has resided in Farmington for thirty-three years.

Mrs. Tucker leaves two daughters, Mrs. Edna Hency and Mrs. Vera Devitt; two sons, Herbert R. and Wilbur J. Tucker, all of Farmington; nine grandchildren; and four great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held from the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home at 2:00 p.m. Thursday with Rev. Elsie Johns of the Clearview Methodist Church officiating.

Interment will be in Grand Lawn Cemetery.

Elizabeth Hall

Mrs. Elizabeth Hall died November 4, 1952, following an illness of several weeks.

She was born August 11, 1880, in LeClaire, Iowa, the daughter of William and Amelia (Maguire) Dodd.

She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Alice Graham of 21525 Roosevelt; with whom she made her home, and Mrs. Nellie Blaisick of LeClaire, Iowa.

Funeral services were held from the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home at 2:00 p.m. Wednesday with Mr. Harry Brundie, First Reader of the Farmington-Britain Science Church officiating.

Interment was in Glen Eden Cemetery.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Fortus of Clairview Drive Sunday night and Monday were her brother and his bride of one day, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Goodall of Grand Rapids.

After the flag was retired the benediction was pronounced by Viola Adams, P.M. Delicious refreshments were served after the ceremony.

West Farmington

By MRS. SARAH KNAPP

Mrs. William Tamm, of 33388 Thirteen Mile Road, entertained about 60 people of the Ladies Guild of the Salem Evangelical church of Farmington and their friends at a regular old-time masquerade Halloween party on Friday night. Complete with ghosts, goblins and dim lights, the affair proved to furnish a good time for all with George Necker doing the calling for square dancing. Guests enjoyed cake, sandwiches and coffee and all profits went to the church.

The West Farmington Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Howard on the regular day, Tuesday, October 28. H. N. McCracken brought a replica of a voting machine to help demonstrate how to vote on a machine. Fraser Hultz, our discussion leader, started the discussion by mentioning the amendments and what they were for. Mrs. Howard served rolls and coffee.

Mrs. Lawrence Giegler of Hartland spent Friday and Saturday with her mother, Mrs. Edith Graham, who is very sick.

Starr Graham was sick Thursday and under a doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Tuma entertained about fifty people at the Tuma's barn on Friday evening. The party especially was designed for the children of the neighborhood and their parents. They all went on a hay ride, gathering treats and having Halloween fun. Later, hot dogs were served.

Mrs. Edith Graham received word that her great grandson, Frank Giegler, is in the contagious ward of the hospital at Ann Arbor with polio.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heliker and family attended a joint birthday dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Banfield. Mr. Banfield's birthday was November 1 and Mrs. Banfield's was October 31. The dinner was held on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Green and family spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. William Knapp.

Roseland Gardens Group To Hold Public Meeting

An open meeting, sponsored by the Roseland Gardens Subdivision, will be held Wednesday evening, November 12, at 8:00 p.m. in the Farmington Town Hall.

E. F. Ballou, former Township dog warden, will speak on "Why the Township has no dog warden."

He stated that he will also answer any questions from residents. The subject of roads will also be discussed as well as other matters of township-wide interest.
