It's Our Opinion

Farmington's Vote . . .

In the Tuesday General Election becomes even more significant in view of the closeness of the Governor's contest. A total vote of 6,247 was recorded in the city and township which is only slightly less than the plurality given Governor Williams.

It is graphic proof of the statement so often made during the recent campaign . . . "Your Vote is Important!" The official canvass may change this margin somewhat, but it doesn't change the fact that your vote can mean the difference between victory or defeat. If there is any lesson to be learned from the past election, this is it! Here is real proof that your vote does count, and don't let anyone tell you otherwise.

The citizens of the Farmington community have written a new record into the books, of which we can all be justly proud. It is a record of responsibility, of strength and of true Americanism. The voter has done his job . . . he has spoken and now he is entitled to a brief rest. But as we review the picture, let's remember that records are made only to be broken . . . let's remember that our democracy must be forever strengthened if it is to survive in this challenging world.

We have reached a new milestone but we can not rest for long on our past accomplishments, not if progress is to be made. We must continue to listen, to be alert and to be interested. This goes for local government as well as State and National.

The job of being a real American is never done!

Will You Help . . .

the boys and girls of your community and at the same time help yourself? This may seem like a rather silly question . . . but is it?

The Farmington community will open its fourth annual United Fund and Community Chest drive this Friday, November 14 with a quota of $8,663. Of this total the largest amount goes to agencies which are working with our boys and girls. Yet in each of the past campaigns Farmington has failed to meet its quota. Thus our boys and girls, as well as their mothers and fathers, have been denied some of the advantages they might have had.

In spite of increased costs and the addition of several new services, this year's campaign quota is only $163 more than last year. Not only will the boys and girls benefit through the Farmington and Clarenceville Recreation Commission and the Boy and Girl Scouts, but the parents will have the advantage of a visiting nurse's service and a local emergency fund. In addition are the United Fund agencies upon which so many less fortunate depend.

Every effort will be made to reach the quota by the end of November. Hundreds of volunteer workers are giving their time and energy that Farmington may have the advantages it deserves. This is a community effort and it must have community support if it is to succeed.

Will you help the boys and girls of your community? Will you help make Farmington a better place in which to live? You can, by giving generously to the Farmington United Fund and Community Chest. You will, won't you?

Russia Is Allergic . . .

to being picketed, apparently. At least she has broken out in a rash over the blockade of Korean waters by United States naval ships.

The blockade, according to Russian law books, is legally wrong, but waging a war via the puppet strings method is apparently all right. You must follow the law book according to Russia . . . their book, of course.

It would be interesting to see what the law book has to say about the Soviet stall at the peace talks . . . the "block everything" tactics at the United Nations sessions . . . and the world-wide hate campaign against all freedom-loving peoples. It is all mighty legal — you can be sure of that — with Joe Stalin as the author!

Services For Driver-Training Available To Schools, Civic Groups

The Michigan Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee and the Detroit Auto Dealers Association are spearheading the Man-to-Man and Dad-to-Daughter agreements which are being used throughout the entire nation to bring home to the young "teen-age" drivers and their parents the full responsibility they assume in operating the family car.

The Highway Safety luncheon last week at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel, co-sponsored by the Detroit Auto Dealers Association and the Michigan Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee, certificate awards were presented to 51 Detroit automobile dealers for their valuable contributions in loaning automobiles to the Driver Education and Training program during the past five years.

This driver training program was originated in Detroit by the Detroit School System and the Detroit Auto Dealers Association in 1947, and they have continued their efforts in full cooperation with the Michigan Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee, through which they have extended their efforts to include the entire state.

The Michigan Inter-Industry Highway Safety Foundation, which is affiliated with the Safety Committee, is the first organization of its type in the United States, and is also the first to employ a full-time executive secretary who travels throughout the state.

The chief concern of the committee has been to assist high schools in establishing and conducting Driver Education and Training courses as part of the regular curriculum. "Man and the Motor Car" is the committee text book for classroom work in the high school training program. It is published by the association of Casualty and Surety Companies which has taken on its imprimatur as published off the new Michigan edition and placed in its stead the name of the Michigan Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee. This book is supplied by the association of Cas-

ONE thing about Michigan elections, with these hip-and-tuck gubernatorial races that hold the final decision way past the normal vote-counting period, folks in this state can get full conversational mileage out of election news. While other states relax and recuperate, Michigan is still waiting to find out who's going to sit in the governor's chair.

The power of the press, so long sneered at by political opponents, demonstrated itself in an almost-overlooked facet of the election: The responding support of Amendment No. 1, the anti-narcotics measure.

With very little campaigning or advertising and a bare minimum of radio mentions the amendment was brought to the public's attention almost entirely through newspaper stories. That the public read — and remembered — is evidenced in the vote.

MICHIGAN FARM earnings will net about the same in '53 as they have the last two years. So says the Michigan State College department of agricultural economics. Farm prices will be slightly higher; so will agricultural production; so will farm expenses.

On the other hand, the United States Department of Agriculture says: Farm output will be the same as '52; Prices will be slightly down; Net farm income will be down 5% this year.

The Washington prediction was made before the election. So maybe it ought to be taken with a political grain of salt.

LOOK FOR proposed legislation to make Michigan election officials (a) have adequate voting supplies for all possible voters and (b) report results as soon as possible after polls close. There are laws now . . . but no penalties!

MICHIGAN dairymen are keeping a wary eye on the northward spread of "frozen deserts". Already doing land-cess business in Texas, Oklahoma, Illinois and Missouri, where it may legally be sold, the new product is made of vegetable oil substitutes for expensive butterfat and tastes much like ice cream.

AMERICAN COLLEGES and universities — and Michigan's too, naturally, are expecting that their enrollment will more than double between now and 1965. Birth rates are declining. Michigan college heads got a head start by conferring with both gubernatorial candidates long before election.

LAKE MICHIGAN dropped 7.5 inches in October, says the U. S. Engineering Department. It was only the second time in the past 13 months that the lake has gone down but it's still two inches higher than a year ago. August was the worst month for high water and autumn winds can wreak a lot of damage to shore properties.

Life is getting easier all the time for the lazy man. Now he no longer need go through the laborious process of turning, (Continued on Page Three)

Looking Back Through The Enterprise Files

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS Ago (November 10, 1927)
Catholic Church
Work has been completed on the temporary building for the new Catholic Church of Our Lady of Sorrows at Shilohwood and Power in Farmington, and the first services will be held next Sunday morning. Masses will be held at 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. under the direction of Rev. O'Mahoney, pastor of the new church.

In an effort to bring to an early realization plans for a new athletic field near the city water works property, north of Farmington School, Superintendent of Schools Archie Leonard appeared Monday night before the City Commission. Superintendent Leonard asked the Commission to take action toward leasing the property owned by the city between the school building and Shilohwood Street to the school district for 99 years in order that an athletic field and grand stands might be built.

First White Barber
Tuesday was an anniversary for M. B. Pierce of Farmington, for 49 years ago November 8, Mr. Pierce opened a barber shop in the room over the present E. C. Grace store on Grand River at Division Street. Mr. Pierce's rent for his shop was $1.00 per week.

TEN YEARS Ago (November 12, 1942)
Farm Night
C. H. Reynolds, vice-president of the Sheffield Corporation of Dayton, Ohio, who makes his home at Milford, Michigan, was guest of George Newlin at the Kiwanis meeting on Wednesday evening. He spoke on precision tools, and also on the obligation of rural people and people from small towns toward the new residents moving in from cities. Many things often overlooked were brought out in Mr. Reynolds' talk.

W. C. T. U. Convention
The eleventh annual convention of the 17th District Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the Town Hall in Farmington on Friday, November 13, with business meeting and election of officers in the forenoon. This session will open at 10:00 and luncheon for the local Union and guests will be served at 12:30 noon.

O. E. S. Elections
The annual meeting of the Farmington Chapter No. 239, Order of the Eastern Star, was held in the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Elaine Westfall; Worthy Patron, Charles N. Diamond; Associate Matron, Mrs. Evelyn Hinbren; Associate Patron, Herbert A. Bondy; Secretary, Mrs. Ada Bond.

FIVE YEARS Ago (November 13, 1947)
Rural Electrification
A total of 168 farms in Farmington Township are now being served with electrical power, officials of the Detroit Edison Company announced this week. Practically all of the Farmington Township area has rural electrification available. Work is continuing to bring electric power to more farms in the township. The great majority now have the benefits of electricity aid in their farm work.

Widow Grand River
Preliminary arrangements are being made for the possible widening of Grand River Avenue west of the City of Farmington. The Detroit Edison Company has contacted property owners along the highway and secured right-of-way to move the utility poles two hundred feet back from the roadway.

Falcons Beat Trojans
Farmington's Falcon eleven kept up its winning pace Friday afternoon by trouncing Clarenceville 26 to 6 in the annual inter-area classic. The game, played on the Farmington gridiron, was marked with plenty of color, both hands and a large delegation of spectators.

Senior Play
"Don't you think love is sacred?" is the query of Willie Baxter as portrayed by Lee Lathrup in Booth Parkington's "Seventeen", the play chosen by the senior class of 1948 of Farmington High School. Other principals include Virginia Harrington, Phyllis Bunge, Ernest Tyler and Peggy Labadie.
