GROUP TO MEET FRIDAY EVENING TO DISCUSS PLAY

A group of the Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women members and friends interested in dramatics met at the George Nahstol home Friday, November 7, to discuss the possibility of producing a local talent play soon after the holidays.

Because of the enthusiasm the idea received, the willingness of the group to do the necessary production jobs and the number interested in acting, plans to produce a three act play were discussed.

Another meeting of the group is scheduled for Friday, November 21, at 8:00 p.m. at the Richards home, 2924 Brookdale, at which time play books will be read.

If there are any persons in the community who are interested in participating in a play production, they are asked to contact Mrs. Harold Whiting, Creative Arts Chairman of A.A.U.W., Farmington 2923-W for further details.

Grace Lutheran Church Plans Special Service

According to a well-established custom, divine services will be held at Grace Lutheran Church, Grand River at Imperial Highway, on Thanksgiving Day, November 27, beginning at 9:00 a.m. Special music will be presented by the senior choir under the direction of Mrs. Erna Halboth.

The Ladies Guild of Grace Church held a business meeting with election of officers last Thursday, November 13. Mrs. Emma Hantz presided over the meeting. Elected as new officers for the coming year were Muriel Barnum, president; Emma Roberts, vice-president; Margaret Seyler, secretary; and Mrs. K. Palmer, treasurer. Refreshments were served following the meeting with Margaret Estes, Sally Conrad and Dorothy Kirsch as hostesses.

Northside News

MRS. LORRAINE FORTUS
Mayfair 6-3030

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Chapp of Greening attended a wedding Saturday of their friend Jean Guiden. After the wedding they attended the reception held at the home of the bride in East Detroit.

Mrs. Gerald Schmidt and children, Jerry, Lee and Linda, of Milford, are spending two weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. Gobel Black of Fourteen Mile Road.

Mrs. Harry Rayner of Middlebelt Road was the hostess at a copper party Sunday afternoon. Ten ladies were present. After the demonstration Mrs. Rayner served refreshments.

Miss Jeanette Covington of Grand Rapids was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chet Rayner of Northwestern Highway Tuesday night and Wednesday.

Mrs. Myrtle Bance of Saginaw spent Sunday visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Jorgensen of Orchard Lake Road.

Mr. Don Jorgensen returned Friday from Fife Lake, Michigan, where he attended the funeral of his cousin, Mr. Rubie Beckwith. Mr. Beckwith formerly lived on Thirteen Mile Road but moved to Fife Lake several years ago.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Bailey of Fourteen Mile Road were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker of Port Stanley, Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Kilmer of London, Canada, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Malden and family of Pontiac.

BENEFIT TEA

The Women's Auxiliary of the Trinity Episcopal Mission will have their first holiday benefit tea on Wednesday, December 3, from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m.

The tea will take place at the Universalist Church in Adams Hall. Further details will be made known in next week's issue of this paper.

WESTERN COAL RESERVES

The combined recoverable coal reserves of Colorado, Utah and Wyoming amount to 265 billion tons, or more than 8 times as much as has been mined in the entire nation since 1800.

Celebrate Golden Anniversray

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Babin, parents of Mrs. Arthur Mann of 29018 W. Eight Mile Road, will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Sunday, November 23. A dinner for the family has been planned and will be held at the Old Fellows Hall, 2011 Inkster Road. Later in the afternoon an open house will be held at the Hall for friends and neighbors beginning at 3:00 and ending at 6:00 p.m.

Older Women's Diets Present Big Problem

The aging woman has a problem when it comes to proper diet. Dr. Wilma Brewer of the Michigan State College foods and nutrition department concludes.

Because the older person exercises less, her need for calories decreases. But her need for vital food elements such as protein, calcium and phosphorus is as great as in younger women.

This means that the diets planned for older people should be high in protective foods. Refined foods which are rich in calories but supply little in the way of protein, calcium, phosphorus, iron and the different vitamins should be gradually omitted from the diet, Dr. Brewer says.

Rich pastries, frosted cakes, sweet rolls—all are examples of foods that provide many calories in relation to the essential nutrients they contain. Since there is a tendency for women to gain weight as they grow older, Dr. Brewer recommends cutting down on the sweets and pastries.

Married

MRS. LOREN CRINION

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Kerwin of 16869 Freeland announce the marriage of their daughter, Jean, to Loren M. Crinion, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crinion of 34021 Edmonton. The marriage took place at 10:00 a.m. in Precious Blood Church on October 15.

Mrs. Jack Sharkey was her sister's matron of honor. She was gowning in a ballerina length dress of emerald green tulle and carried a white orchid surrounded by white roses with ivy and stephanotis on the streamers.

The bride's gown was fashioned of chantilly lace over satin with lace sleeves. The fingertip veil was held by a lace cap and she carried a cascade arrangement of a white orchid surrounded by white roses with ivy and stephanotis on the streamers.

Dick Crinion was his brother's best man. Other ushers were Jim Lee and John Kennedy.

The groom's mother wore charcoal grey with purple accessories and an orchid corsage while the bride's mother wore light blue crepe with navy accessories and her corsage was of cymbidiums.

A breakfast at the Leo Place followed the ceremony and a reception at the American Legion Club was held in the evening.

The bride couple honeymooned in the Smokey Mountains for a week.

ADVISE CARE WHEN BUYING HOLIDAY BIRD

Turkey Time!!!

But before that delectable bird holds forth at the head of the Thanksgiving table you may want to do some thinking about buying him. Dr. Pauline Paul of the foods and nutrition department at Michigan State College recommends investigation into the various ways turkey can be purchased these days.

First of all, Dr. Paul says, suit your turkey purchase to the size of your family. A small family can have a traditional Thanksgiving dinner now without eating turkey for two weeks afterwards, by buying small whole turkey, turkey halves or turkey pieces.

Turkey broilers may be the answer to your problem. They weigh from four to five pounds and are easy to broil and broiled or stuffed and roasted in the usual manner.

Or, look for turkey pieces. A whole broast will serve two to four persons or a thigh and drumsticks will take care of two, Dr. Paul advises. This buying by the piece is also good if the family has a particular preference about light and dark meat. Dr. Paul says that turkey pieces may be fried, broiled, roasted or made into a fricassee. If you roast or broil the pieces brush them with fat occasionally during the cooking to keep the pieces from drying out.

In some markets half turkeys are available. In this case the carcass has been saved in half along the backbone. Stuff the body cavity as you would a whole bird and hold the stuffing with a covering of waxed paper or aluminum foil. Place the half turkey on a rack, stuffing side down, to roast, Dr. Paul recommends.

Make Sure Child's Boots Are Leak-Proof

If your children slosh off to school on rainy fall mornings, you will want to be certain their rubbers and boots are leak-proof, suggests Olivia Meyer, Michigan State College home management specialist.

Miss Meyer suggests several methods for mending rubber. These methods can be used on household supplies such as hot water bottles as well as on galoshes and rubbers.

The cold patch method requires some inner-tube patching material. Turn the article inside out and patch the article on the wrong side. Clean the place with a dry-cleaning fluid, wipe dry and then roughen it with sandpaper. Cut around the spot you are mending. Spread on rubber cement, using two coats on the rubber you are mending, but none on the patch itself. Let each coat of cement dry a few minutes. Then press the patch firmly over the spot. Do not move it once the patch is placed. It might be well to hold it in place with a weight or clamp until the patch is set, Miss Meyer advised.

Hot patches are also good on heat and pressure and are more durable than cold patches. Material for making a hot patch comes in a kit with complete instructions.

Farmington Girl

The annual Girl Scout dinner and election of officers was held at Rotunda Inn with over thirty women attending.

The officers continue another year under the guidance of Mrs. Harry Farmer. The chairman of standing committees were elected by unanimous vote.

Committee chairmen named are as follows: finance, Mrs. Steele Cox, public relations, Mrs. Dawson Hubert; program, Mrs. Ronalds Alms; day camp, Mrs. Vincent Adamski; troop camp, Mrs. Walter Lange; and established camp, Mrs. John Mackay. Members at large are Mrs. George Sherlock and Mrs. Clarence Berini.

Scout News

The nominating committee is composed of Mrs. Fred Harrison, Mrs. Gordon Hervela, Mrs. Nate Mihay, Mrs. Chester Downing and Mrs. Prescott Schlotterbeck.

One fifteen year pin was awarded to Mrs. Baranum, and five year pins to Mrs. Seidel, Mrs. Schlotterbeck, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Sherlock, Mrs. Skellenger and Mrs. Vincent Adamski. Paragonizing and outlying districts should be Girl Scout Calendars should be now. Members of the Senior Troop under the leadership of Mrs. Began will be taking orders at Conroy's Market, Zehnder's and Brown's stores.

Members of Intermediate Troops will take orders from friends and neighbors. The money obtained from the sale of calendars goes to support Camp Nalin, which is for our girls. So please, let's have a Girl Scout Calendar for 1953 in every Farmington home.

Also let us call your attention to our Scout Troop at Children's Convalescent Hospital under the leadership of Mrs. Paul Pare. One of these active little Scouts would be delighted with an order for a calendar.

Farmington Troops wish to take this opportunity to welcome into the Southern Oakland Association our neighbors from Novi. Novi has four troops at present, all working smoothly.

During the past week two Brownie Troops have gotten under way. Mrs. Betty Eirschele is the leader of the group which meets at Salem Church and Mrs. Hal Whiting has a group of 26 Brownies which meet at the Ten Mile School. To these new leaders, their assistants and new Brownies we give our best wishes.

If there are more ladies interested in working with or for girls between the ages of 7 and 15, we want you. Please call our organization chairman, Mrs. George Nahstol, at Farmington 1945-1. She will be glad to hear from you.

All the girls of Troop 171 under the leadership of Mrs. Marsh turned out for an afternoon of roller skating on Saturday. With the exception of bumps and blisters they really enjoyed the day.

Mrs. Baranum of Troop 171 announces that "Parents Night" is set for November 21. Since the girls in the troop have been working on their radio badge a play will be presented entitled "Glowers for His Grave". Mr. and Mrs. Austin Grant have given generously of their time and talent in teaching radio work and in producing the play.

At this time we are welcoming the seventh graders who transferred into the troop. Sandra Hart, Judy Latham, Mary Brammer, Elizabeth Brammer, Pamela Chapman, Sigrid Whitehead, Judy Cook, Mary Durfee, Marcia Otis and Sue Ellen Hymes are the new members.

Obituary

Mrs. Edith L. Graham, 85, of 35320 West Thirteen Mile Road, Farmington, died November 9 in her home following a brief illness.

She was born in Olive, Clinton County, and has been a resident of Farmington since 1871. She was married September 2, 1885, to William Graham, who died in 1928.

Surviving are one son, Starr of Farmington; three daughters, Mrs. Margaret Giegler of Hartland, Mrs. Irvin Knapp of Farmington and Mrs. Charles Heiker of Wallend, Lake; 24 grandchildren and 50 great grandchildren. The funeral was held at the Spencer J. Heeney Funeral Home in Farmington with Wendell A. Malock of Wallend Lake Baptist Church officiating. Burial was in North Farmington Cemetery.

B.P.W. Club Sees Ceramics Made

The regular monthly meeting of the Farmington Business and Professional Women's Club was held Monday evening, November 17, at Huck's Redford Inn. During the business meeting following dinner, the club voted to join the Friends of the Library as a unit. An invitation was received to attend the investiture for Girl Scout Troop 100, sponsored by the club. The ceremony will be held tonight, Thursday, from 7:00 to 9:00 at the Middlebelt School.

Plans are being completed for the membership drive and anyone interested in joining is asked to call Mrs. Hertha Pauline at Farmington 2011-W after 6:00 p.m. or Farmington 0018. Also, information may be obtained from any of the members.

Announcement was made of the Detroit Edison demonstration to be held January 27 at the Town Hall. This will consist of proper lighting displays, methods of using electrical appliances, and tips on cooking with electricity. The show is open to the public and tickets may be obtained from any member of the club.

The meeting concluded with an interesting talk and demonstration of ceramics by Mrs. Jesse Forts. Mrs. Forts made a candle holder designed with holly leaves and berries. She explained each step and then described the firing and glazing of the pieces.

The next meeting will be a dinner meeting on December 15 at 6:45 p.m. at Huck's Redford Inn.

WEDDING BOND

Mrs. W. B. Joyce will leave Friday, November 21, for Jackson, where she will attend the marriage of Miss Helen Kirby to the Reverend P. McMullen of Virginia.

Mrs. Joyce has been a friend of the Kirby family for many years.

Extension Group Pays Visit To TV Program

Eight members of the Farmington Eight Mile Extension Group and two guests, Mrs. J. Ankoski, daughter of Mrs. Plat, and Mrs. Dickinson's daughter, Margaret, visited the Cinderella Week End program on WWJ-TV recently.

The group enjoyed the marked contrast between a live show and watching TV at home.

On Wednesday the group met at the home of Mrs. R. Brent to plan for a Christmas party and to make final plans to purchase a loom.

The Edward Chappagnes on Line entertained several friends Thursday evening in honor of the eight birthday of their daughter, Donna Marie.
