Art II Makes Cards To Sell For Christmas

In order to purchase linoleum block materials the Art II Class is making Christmas cards to sell. During the P. T. A. open house on Tuesday, November 18, students from the art class were in the art room demonstrating the method used in making the cards. Orders for the Christmas cards were being taken at this time. If the profit is big enough the class will buy stenciling brushes and other art supplies. Some of the cards are pasted on the bulletin board in the art room. If any students are interested in the cards, they should contact Mr. Ray Glenn. C. W.

FARMINGTON TEAM TO HOST DEBATORS FROM FOUR SCHOOLS

The largest debate club in Farmington High's history will have its first Inter-Lakes League debate December 8, 1962.

Five schools will participate in this first meeting and will debate the question, "Resolved: The Atlantic Pact Nations should form a Federal Union". Farmington will be fighting for its fourth League Championship in four years.

The Debate Club would like to present demonstration debates for various town organizations. If a group is interested in this type of program they may contact the debate coach, Mr. Lloyd Smith, at Farmington High. L. A. D.

New Attendance Gains Shown At Camera Club

The Farmington High Camera Club, with meetings every second and fourth Thursday of the month, has thus far learned the mechanics and parts of the camera. Last week the group learned the developing process for film.

President Dave Mitchell stated that the turnout for this year's club is very good with between fifteen and twenty people attending the meetings. Mitchell also said that there is an open invitation to all students of Farmington High who are interested in camera work. The meetings are in Mr. Joseph Manzi's science room at 7:30 p.m.

Plans for the near future are to learn how to make Christmas cards out of pictures. Later plans call for study of home movies, color film and "better pictures". J. Shultz

The decorations consisted of Greek lettering on the walls to represent different sororities and fraternities. Crepe paper streamers and paper pennants represented different colleges decorated the walls.

The entertainment consisted of four girls demonstrating dance steps: the Tango, the Jitterbug and the Charleston. The girls were M. L. Whitehead, S. Hicks, C. Carlson and M. Hedgecough. Fudge, hot dogs, potato chips, candy and soft drinks were served in the cafeteria. The dance was held from 8:30 until 11:30 p.m. L. E. G.

USEFUL FUEL
The most generally useful coal is bituminous because some of it is the only source of metallurgical coke, it is good for steam boilers, and it is a preferred coal for conversion into liquid fuel.

ROBERT T. EDGAR TO PRESENT SHOW, "OUT OF THIS WORLD"

Farmington High will be guests of Robert T. Edgar aboard the space ship "Orion" at an assembly December 1.

The students will experience startling scenes of other worlds in full color. Girls' Bowling, 4:00 — 6:00 p.m., C. W. Bowling Alley.

Captain Edgar will demonstrate effects of zero gravity conditions using a designed apparatus.

The audience will experience the landing of the space ship in a crater on the moon and the fight for life on the moon. J. Seitz

HOMEMAKING III EDITS, PUBLISHES "KEEN TEEN QUOTES"

"Keen Teen Quotes", a booklet about teenagers, was published by the Homemaking III class. The staff members for the booklet are: editor, M. McCachen; assistant editor, C. Wheeler; art editor, P. Brown; assignment editor, P. Meyers; typists, J. Smith, J. Smith, C. Wallace, C. Ainsworth and M. Bates.

The booklet contains articles written by the students and also articles taken from various papers and magazines. There are quizzes, poems, and tips for both boys and girls in the booklet. If anyone is interested in securing a copy of the booklet, see Miss Ruth Kerchner, the Home-making teacher. C. W.

F. H. A. Invites Guests To Installation Tea

The Future Homemakers of America, a newly organized club at Farmington High, held a formal installation of officers, followed by a tea, on Monday, November 24, after school.

The officers who took part in the installation ceremony were: C. Wheeler, president; P. Meyers, vice-president; C. Hanson, secretary; J. Smith, treasurer; J. Moss, parliamentarian; and C. Long, historian.

The members of the F. H. A. had previously divided into small committees to take care of the details for the meeting. The committees were: cookies, P. Brown; punch, M. Wegener and J. Crosssett; decorating, M. Lowe, L. Rackov, B. Graham, M. Godwin; and clean-up, B. Johnston and K. Killgren.

All the members were allowed to invite one guest to the meeting. After the installation ceremony and the business meeting, punch and cookies were served to the guests and members. C. W.

Clark Williams Returns To Play At Annual J-Hop

The orchestra committee for the Junior class selected Clark Williams' orchestra for the annual J-Hop. The band has played at the Masonic Temple for the last three years and is expected to return this year. Grove Point High has voted Williams' Orchestra "tops" and wants them to return for their annual J-Hop. There will also be a vocal act at the J-Hop. She is Ruth Crawford. Miss Crawford won the beauty contest in Philadelphia, and has appeared with numerous U. S. O. shows.

Miss Crawford also does the singing commercial for the Lincoln — Mercury, on radio and television.

Williams played at Farmington's J-Hop in '47. L. E. G.

Juniors Plan To Donate Plays To School Library

The Junior class at the last advisory meeting, voted to purchase plays.

An advertisement from the Denison Company and the Northwestern Press offered the plays, one copy each, for six dollars. The Juniors voted to buy the plays with money from the class treasury. They plan on giving the plays to the Farmington High library after the play reading committee has selected this year's Junior play. P. S. K.

Senior Class Votes To Retain Blue Gowns

The Senior class voted to wear the traditional blue caps and gowns for all commencement exercises. The decision was made at a class meeting Thursday, November 12.

Mr. George Wing, a representative from Weyling Brothers, spoke to the assembled group. After seeing both a white gown and a blue gown modeled by senior girls and hearing the advantages and disadvantages of both from Mr. Wing, the graduating class chose the usual blue gowns by a 76 to 19 vote.

Individual measurements for the caps and gowns will be taken at a later date. D. A. G.

OOPS, WE'RE SORRY!

In last week's issue The Enterprise was guilty of making an error.

It appeared in the review of the Senior play. The line about Ed Strye should have read: "Ed's camera was a farce to Life Magazine."

TALENT SHOW TO BE PRESENTED BY STUDENT COUNCIL

The annual Talent Show presented by the Student Council will be held December 6 at 8:00 p.m. in the Farmington auditorium.

The talent committee, members of the Student Council, will select the persons who will compete in the talent show. Any person in grades seven through twelve is eligible to try out. The winners of the local show go to the Inter-Lakes Talent Show which will be held early in 1963.

No schedule has been set, as yet, for the tryouts. The committees are: tickets, D. Nichols, R. Petermark and R. Clark; refreshments, D. Tyler, C. Aho and A. Hamlin; and talent committee: C. Chapp, A. Hamlin, J. Turner, L. Ayres, C. Aho and D. Tyler. Interested persons should see one of the members of this committee. M. E. W.
