

MERCY STUDENTS WILL PRESENT CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Mercy College Players and Singers and the Modern Dance Group will present the annual Christmas Chorus, a program combined music, dance and dramatic interpretation, in McAuley Auditorium on Sunday, December 14, at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Claire Irwin of the Speech Department arranged the program.

William Koepfer will direct the Singers in selected Christmas songs and musical interludes for the verse radio script "A Child Is Born" by Benet.

A freshman verse choir, directed by Mrs. Irwin, will interpret six Christmas poems written by Slater Mary Edwidge, R. S. M. Dean of the college.

Mary Schaefer, 26560 Drake Road, Farmington, will do a solo reading with the choir.

Miss Elizabeth Boyne will direct the modern dance group in two numbers: "I'll Wash My Face in a Golden Vase" and "Bring the Torch". Sharon Sullivan will interpret "The Littlest Angel", read by Bettylin Saeger.

A nativity tableau climaxing the program will be followed by the college lounge to parents and friends of the students after the performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon Bush and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Bush's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hibbler of Imlay City.

WEST FARMINGTON

The West Farmington Farm Bureau will have a Christmas Party for its members on December 16 at the home of Frazier Wadsworth and each person is supposed to bring a white elephant gift. Women should bring a gift for a woman, and men bring them for men.

The regular discussion meeting will be held the same evening before the party.

The Farm Bureau Women's Committee of Oakland County held its annual Christmas party and exchange of gifts this week at the home of Mrs. W. M. Jones at 2225 Haledale Road. The group wrapped Christmas gifts which will be presented to patients at the Sister Kenny Bldg. Center in Pontiac during a party given by the Bureau on December 18.

The meeting of the Associate County Women of the World will be in Toronto next year. At present a plan is in progress to make it possible for Michigan representatives to attend. Chartered service is being arranged and those interested in going should inform their chairman early next month.

There is a Junior Farm Bureau being organized for persons between the ages of 16 and 26. The chairman is Wayne Orr.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heikler and family attended a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Banfield at Wilcox in honor of Edward Young's birthday. Herman Grimmer is home and up around the house.

Mrs. Fred Lee and Mrs. William Knapp attended a baby shower at the Good Cheer Classroom of the United Lake Baptist Church Saturday evening in honor of Vershore Roettger, with Allen Sparks and Freda Parker as hostesses.

Mrs. John Palacky is very sick at Mount Carmel Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Graham Geiger called on Mr. and Mrs. Starr Graham Friday evening.

Dickie Cairns played a selection on his accordion at the Walled Lake Baptist Church recently.

CUB CAPERS

Christmas is coming fast and the Cub Scouts of Pack 45 are working busily on many projects.

The Cub Scouts of Pack 45 are painting and decorating cigar boxes which they will fill with small gifts for the patients at Maybury Sanatorium. The Den Mothers will visit the Sanatorium at Niles on Saturday, December 13, to get a first-hand idea of what would be most acceptable and welcome as gifts.

Besides the above, the Cubs are selling Christmas candy as a fundraising project. A prize will go to the boy selling the most. It is very good candy, so if you haven't done so, why not order some from your Scout in your neighborhood?

Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Nathan of Dens 14 and 15 have merged their 'Cubs' activities and are making Christmas posters and gifts for members of the Cub Scouts' immediate families.

Mrs. Allen has an especially clever idea for making a Santa Claus sleigh that could be used in various ways. Watch for the Dens 14 and 15 display at the Pack meeting.

Which brings us to the Pack meeting Thursday, December 18, at Ten Mile School. This will be more in the nature of a party than a meeting, with an ornament he has made for the tree, and his gift for the shut-ins.

The Cubs will receive their awards, and after the carol singing will have refreshments of cookies and ice cream.

Wouldn't your Den like to have that attendance award? Plan to come and help win it!

Cranbrook Group Will Play Santa

More than 60 crippled children from Oakland County will be entertained by members of the Student Church Cabinet of Kingswood School Cranbrook and Cranbrook School at an annual Christmas party on Saturday, December 13.

Gathering in the Kingswood auditorium, the children will see a show by the Birmingham Puppeteers and skits from Kingswood's Autumn Festival. A student Santa Claus from Cranbrook School will distribute Christmas candy which is being collected by the Oakland County Nursing Association and purchased with funds raised by the Church Cabinet from the student bodies of the two schools.

The ten year old Kingswood-Cranbrook Student Cabinet, made up of 12 elected representatives from the two schools, functions in all areas of student life: sponsoring projects such as field trips and a proposed Settlement House volunteer service; conducting student religious services; organizing conferences; and planning a budget for donations to public service organizations on local, national and world levels.

All cabinet members sponsoring the party include: Harry Lomason, Detroit, chairman; Marilyn Schirmer, Saginaw, vice-chairman; Robin Borard, City Point, Flint, secretary; Bob Newey and Janie Wallace, Birmingham; Gay Wright, Detroit; George Bihler, Franklin; Happy Doll, Mt. Clemens; Howard Nash, Rochester; Grant Griswold, Midland; and Douglas Richmond, Dayton, Ohio. Representing Santa Claus this year is Ned Bearden, Cranbrook, now in senior year at Detroit School.

Left-over turkey needs only a touch of ingenuity to become tasty and appetizing. Michigan State College home economists suggest using turkey slices in the oven and covering with a highly seasoned tomato sauce, a barbecue sauce or a sweet-sour sauce.

Nitrogen fertilizer supplies should hit 2,185,000 tons by 1955.

Sincerely Yours:

Dear Sir:

The news and editorial concerning the erection of a new Township Hall have been read with interest.

While the writer agrees that PLANNING for the future development of the township is necessary, and commends those taking an active part in such progress, it seems that the immediate proposal of a new Hall is considerably premature.

The residents of the township are already stumbling under an exceedingly heavy tax load and to add to it unnecessarily at this time would not be wise.

The need for a new hall is necessary, but I do not feel its immediate construction is. What specifically are the reasons for it being considered necessary at this time?

The present hall is located almost in the center of the township, convenient from all sections: it is as large if not larger than any new building which might be erected, and it is available for rental at a small fee and can be readily obtained if those wishing to use it give reasonable advance notice.

These are some of the reasons which are interesting to hear some of the pros.

Your suggestion of a committee to study such problems is timely, but a fair and unbiased recommendation could be obtained only where a representative from each community within the township was invited to take an active part in any proposal.

Why not drop the proposal of a new hall until such a committee is formed and operating?

Sincerely,

Grace Deal

Dear Editor:

A very novel way of heralding in the Christmas season took place at the Middlebelt Ten Mile School last Saturday, December 6, when a senior from Farmington High School walked down the hall dressed as Christmas Carol.

By accord, playing "Here Comes Santa Claus", followed by the Jovial Gentleman himself, marching into the auditorium, where the children sang carols along with them.

Then Santa Claus listened while the children told him their wishes as to what they would like him to bring them Christmas night.

He listened for three hours without a break and most of the time he was accompanied by the young lady playing the accordion. He listened to more than a half dozen wishes to remain anonymous, but perhaps we will meet him again, at the Lions Club Children's Party.

Here is one organization which is doing a lot of good in our community. Please give them a hand, open your hearts and your pocketbooks and help a wonderful team. You know, a man never stands so straight as when he stoops to help a child.

MSC Receives Ford Fund Grant For TV Equipment

Michigan State College has been given $100,000 by the Ford Fund for Adult Education for further development of the college's television program, according to M. S. President John A. Hannah.

The grant came a short time after the Federal Communications Commission authorized Michigan State to construct a TV antenna and install a transmitter to operate on ultra-high frequency, channel 60.

Dr. Armand L. Hunter, director of MSC television development, said that the money would be used to purchase a transmitter which is expected to be obtained in six months. He pointed out that the grant contract provides that the money be used only for the purchase and installation of TV equipment.

The college's TV station is expected to be in full operation by the fall of 1953, if the necessary equipment is available for purchase. A 1,000-foot tower will be constructed in nearby Okemos to carry the college programs over a radius of from 34 to 65 miles.

The transmitter and tower are the only major items of equipment needed to put the TV station on the air. Hunter said, since the college has been operating its own campus-wide television network for two years.

The $100,000 grant was made through Robert Blakely, director of the central regional office of the Ford for Adult Education in Chicago.

Dr. Hunter said the grant "is gratifying recognition of the tremendous educational role television will play in the years ahead, particularly with respect to adult education."

Michigan State views this grant as both an endorsement and an investment in... plans to utilize television to the fullest extent in extending college educational services to the people of the state. It is one of the soundest investments which could be made for the public good."
