

MOTHER MARY COLUMBINE

REP. MARVIN L. ESCH

DR. C. NELSON GROTE

JOHN CARDINAL DEARDEN

91 At Madonna To Get Degrees

John Cardinal Dearden, Archbishop of Detroit, will preside over graduation ceremonies for 91 seniors at Madonna College Sunday, April 28.

U.S. Rep. Marvin L. Esch (R-Ann Arbor) will be guest speaker and Patrick J. Dugan, Livonia attorney and a member of the college's board of trustees, will serve as master of ceremonies.

A baccalaureate mass at 2 p.m., with the Rev. Samuel D. Jadin as principal celebrant, will precede the 3:30 p.m. graduation ceremonies in the Activities Center.

An honors convocation will be held Saturday, April 28, at 7:30 p.m. with Dr. C. Nelson Grote, president of Schoolcraft College, delivering an address.

A highlight of the graduation ceremony will be the presentation of an honorary degree to Mother Mary Columbine, chairman of the Madonna board of trustees, executive director of St. Mary Hospital and provincial superior of the Felician Sisters of Livonia.

Mother Columbine has been active in hospital administration for the past 15 years. As executive director of St. Mary Hospital, she originated and administered the hospital from its inception to its present status.

Under her leadership, paramedical education programs were established through cooperative efforts between St. Mary Hospital and Madonna College. Schoolcraft College and Livonia Public Schools.

Posthumous degrees will be given to the families of Arielle Bates and Christine Kretschmer. A plaque will be presented designating a memorial gift established by Miss Kretschmer's parents.

Sister M. Lauriana, academic dean, will present the candidates for degrees, and Sister M. Danatha, president, will confer the degrees.

Music will be provided by the Ladywood High School orchestra and the graduation ceremony will conclude with a president's reception in the Student Center.

Patricia L. Flemings will be salutatorian for the honors convocation. The valedictory address will be delivered by Martha R. Hano for the valedictorian, Lorraine N. Kolarczyk, who will be unable to attend.

Nine graduates will be awarded Kappa Gamma Pi memberships and seven will receive recognition in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Kathryn A. Walker, a graduating senior in the newspaper cooperative program at Observer Newspapers Inc., will receive an "Apostle of the Word" award for outstanding achievement in journalism. Five graduates will receive the Lumen Award for outstanding service.

Conferral of academic honors will be made by Sister M. Lauriana and Sister M. Danatha. Graduating nurses caps and pins also will be presented.

The honors program will conclude with the induction of seniors into the Alumni Association by President Camille Czarniecki.

Both main speakers have left their marks in the field of education.

Rep. Esch is a member of the House Committee on Education and Labor and of the special subcommittee on Higher Education, Manpower and Vocational Training and working conditions. He is a former college professor and consultant to labor and management groups.

Dr. Grote is a member of the advisory committee to the University of Michigan Center for Higher Education, an appointment by the Michigan Community College Assn.
