Springbrook Scenes

By MRS. HOWARD LEGG

Sickness blighted the homes of a number of our friends this holiday season.

Little five year old Danny Courtney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Courtney who live on Waldoon, was taken to Children's Hospital with a bad case of rheumatic fever. Danny will have to remain there for three weeks and would greatly enjoy cards. The address is: "Children's Hospital, Farmington and St. Antoine, Detroit."

Both young sons of the Millard Taylor family have been under the doctor's care and are taking penicillin shots.

Menas spelled the Christmas fun for Susan and Jimmy Lamb of Long Avenue.

Paul Wesley Merrihew has also been quite ill for several days.

Our own family is no exception and all three of our little ones have terrific coughs.

Looking on the brighter side, there were a number of parties in the neighborhood celebrating the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Janis were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gilmore over Christmas.

Christmas Day the Gilmore welcomed a large number of friends and relatives at open house.

The Charles Taylor home was the scene of a real family gathering when thirty-two of their thirty-five children and grandchildren enjoyed a pot-luck dinner and the opening of the many early wrapped gifts from under the tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whitehouse of California were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whitehouse have been doing a lot of entertaining in behalf of their in-laws who formerly lived here, but now reside in California.

Mrs. Nora Johnson spent Friday visiting her daughter, Mrs. Paul Lucas, near Long Avenue.

Mr. Paul Lucas received quite an honor when he was unanimously re-elected to a post at his work. The vote of confidence was given him because of the splendid job he did for his department that was not in the line of duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mahaney, Carol and Alan, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCafferty and son, Bob, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Legg on Sunday.

This is the fifth straight year the group has met at this time of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson entertained Mrs. Johnson's relatives for a turkey dinner on Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Merrihew were hosts at a Christmas Eve party that was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Legg and family, and Miss Margene Ford and Mrs. Paul Lucas, Jr. A lovely luncheon was served after the exchanging of gifts.

A card was received from Mrs. Mary Lenz for her "Springbrook Friends" wishing them the best for the season and thanking them for their greetings. She stated that we had made her happy but we know that is nothing compared to the way she works every day to make things easier for other folks.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. McCullough of 30710 Fink Road entertained Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Foster of Walled Lake, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Garrett, David of Dearborn, Mrs. Sarah Garrett and Maxine of Commerce and Miss Esther Wager of Ann Arbor at Christmas dinner.
