Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Brennan and their son Robert and daughter Linda, youngest daughter of the Edwin Johnsons, and of the young lady's grandfather, M. E. Ault of Mayfield Avenue, was held at the Mayfield home on Clarita Avenue last Sunday afternoon. A large, gayly decorated cake was the center of festivities. A dozen relatives were on hand for the event.

A celebration honoring the fourth birthday of Hannah Elizabeth, youngest daughter of the Edwin Johnsons, and of the young lady's grandfather, M. E. Ault of Mayfield Avenue, was held at the Mayfield home on Clarita Avenue last Sunday afternoon. A large, gayly decorated cake was the center of festivities. A dozen relatives were on hand for the event.

At her home on Mayfield Avenue, Mrs. M. E. Ault entertained her friends and family for a party last Monday. Nine ladies were present and profitably and pleasantly spent the time working on their chosen projects. During a noon-hour recess, the group enjoyed a delicious luncheon.

Katherine Eckmann of Farmington Road has recovered from an attack of tonsillitis.

Jeanie, youngest daughter of the John Allens of Farmington Road, was on the sick list part of this week.

Mrs. E. W. Stange of Mayfield Avenue has again been quite seriously ill, though improved somewhat during the past week end.

Lee Galloway of Garden City was visiting his aunt, Mrs. Christine Rehahn, on Mayfield Avenue last Saturday. Mrs. Galloway has been quite ill.

Mrs. O. R. Ault, assisted by Mrs. V. C. Reddy tendered a birthday luncheon to Mrs. Ira J. Magner at the Ault residence on Shadydale Avenue last Tuesday. Places were laid for twelve. Mrs. Magner's daughters, Mrs. McMillin from Detroit and Mrs. Wesley from Missouri, were present, as well as a number of Mrs. Magner's friends of this immediate neighborhood. Following the appetizing meal, featured by a candle-decorated birthday cake, Mrs. Magner was showered with cards and pretty gifts.

Mrs. Virginia Oman of Brentwood Avenue spent last Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Loren Read at South Lyon. In the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Read escorted Mrs. Oman to her home and visited with Mrs. Read's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault of Brentwood. With the holidays over, the Livonia Civic Chorus has resumed its regular Monday night practice. Men and women who enjoy singing and are willing to accept training should join the chorus.

Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson entertained a dozen of her young women friends and relatives at her home on Clarita Avenue last Tuesday evening. A demonstration of lingerie and costume jewelry was on hand and displayed many interesting articles of merchandise. A lunch, consisting of home-made cream puffs and accompaniments, climaxed a delightful evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ault of Thirteen Mile Road were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Louis Graham of Mayfield Avenue Tuesday.

A. D. Ahler of Detroit was a Monday night guest of his uncle, E. W. Stange and family on Mayfield.

V. C. Reddy of Shadydale Avenue visited Ira Magner in Harper Hospital last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Norman Kauranen of Mayfield Avenue has been convalescing from a spell of illness.

Mrs. William Fisher and Freda Ault were among the visitors in Detroit Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Markham of Wooding Avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Markham of Shadydale Avenue recently attended a family reunion in Pontiac.

Mr. Harold Ford, president of the Livonia Methodist W. S. C. S., and Mrs. Robert Kellogg, a former president, attended a dinner at the Greenfield Methodist Church Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richard and their sons, Bobby and Don, from Detroit, were last Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wagner on Westmore.

Edward Stange, Jr., who for some time has been "laid up" with a foot infection at his home on Mayfield Avenue, is now feeling much better and is getting out and around a little.

Two From Farmington Participate In Inaugural

CPL. WILLIAM BURGE, JR.

Marine Corporal William Burge, Jr., of the Marine Barracks Ceremonial Battalion, Washington, D. C., participated in the inaugural parade for President Eisenhower on January 20.

Burge is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Burge of 25100 Novi Road in Novi.

Another participant from this area was Ruth M. Gazley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin B. Gazley of 31629 Shaw Street in Farmington.

Miss Gazley was selected as a member of the 53 WAVE unit, undergoing basic training at the U. S. Naval Training Center at Bainbridge, Maryland, to pass in review before the president.

The participating WAVES were recommended by their company commanders on the basis of outstanding military bearing, drill efficiency and merit.

Aside from the potential timber values on Michigan's forest lands, the woods and waters form the main drawing card in the annual $500 million tourist and recreation industry.

Airman 3/c LeMieux Back From Philippines

Airman Third Class Raymond H. LeMieux, son of Mrs. Josephine V. LeMieux of 21180 Farmington Road, has returned to the United States for a new assignment following his completion of a tour of duty with the U. S. Air Forces in the Philippines.

Arriving at Travis Air Force Base, California, on January 12 aboard a Military Air Transport Service plane, Airman LeMieux will next assume duties with the 514 Troop Carrier Wing at Mitchell Air Force Base, New York.

During his stay in the Philippines, he served with the 31st Air Rescue Squadron, 2nd Air Rescue Group, on Clark Air Force Base, 60 miles north of Manila. Incidentally, the 2nd ARG is presently one of eleven groups attached to the world-wide Air Rescue Service. Equipped with long range patrol planes, amphibious aircraft, helicopters, and supported by land and para rescue survival teams, the Air Rescue Service gallantly strives to implement its motto — "That Others May Live".

1953 Chevrolet Advance-Design Trucks deliver more value!

4 powerful reasons why you get more of what you want...

more engine power!

108-h.p. Loadmaster engine—standard on 5000 and 6000 Series heavy-duty and forward-control models, optional on 4000 Series heavy-duty trucks.

more staying power!

Heavier, stronger, more durable frames increase rigidity, add to ruggedness and stamina of 1953 Chevrolet trucks.

Chevrolet trucks up to 4000 Series heavy-duty models have big, powerful "Torque-Action" brakes. Series 4000 and above use "Torque-Action" brakes in front, "Twin-Action" in rear.

more economy!

New stamina plus extra gasoline economy in heavy-duty models with Loadmaster engine, reduces hauling costs per ton-mile.

Now—even more for your money with Chevrolet. Chevrolet trucks for 1953 bring you new stamina and new safety with heavier, more rigid construction. Heavy-duty models provide increased horsepower, higher-compression ratio in an advanced Loadmaster engine with power and performance never before available in a Chevrolet truck.

Model for model, feature for feature, these 1953 trucks are the greatest Chevrolet trucks ever built. And with all their solid superiority, they list for less than any other trucks of comparable specifications. Drop in at our showroom and talk over your needs. Let us show you how Chevrolet trucks give you more of what you want—and show you how little you need pay.
