Meanwhile Moore's Westland Bowl team posted a 3235 on games of 1120, 1011, and 1104.

Proving that there's nothing in a name, Joe Low was high in the Oak Park Senior House League when he led the parade with a 660 series. Others in double century figures were Jerry Weiner† 647, Phil Goldsmith 624, Bob Foster 622, Larry Giegerman 612, Ron Tuktakak 614, Murray Sterne 610 and John Bienkowski 600.

It took a 715 series to top the scoring in the Westland Bowl Classic and Jim Wrublewski produced it on games of 265, 235 and 215.

At that, he gained only a 10

ear had already pitched a no-hitter against Servite and a two-hitter against Riverside and had to have visions of a no-hitter against Bedford.

Dobrick had the gem going until the top of the seventh.

John Schmeling spoiled his no-hitter with a clean single to right center but that was all for St. Mary as Dobrick finished with a one-hitter, walking two and striking out three.
