Seniors Set Show Dates For March 24

Last week the Junior class held tryouts for a variety show, which will be held Tuesday evening, March 24. This year the show will be a variety show instead of the usual "Talent Show" which has been presented before.

Auditions were held in Room 106 during noon hours. Class members on the committees were Marilyn Turkin, Cynthia Endley, Joy Garbin, Thomas Maykovich, Patricia Storti, Lawrence Wagner, Richard Wood, and the class sponsors, Miss Norma Cooke, Mrs. Mary Lavers and Mr. Robert Selke. Mr. Arthur Mann was also a member of the committee.

All talent was selected by a point system. There were 20 possible points a person could get. They were judged on personality, originality, talent and appearance. Finalists who were chosen were tap dancers Joy Garbin, Nancy Moore, and a tap trio consisting of Marilyn Turkin, Judy Dowdy and Dixie Baum.

Roger Rapelle, trombone; Meribah Meyer and Patricia Storti, vocal duet; Judy Dowdy and Gene Garbin, jitterbug routine; Allan Young, guitar; Gloria Schumacher, pantomime; Instrumental trio, Jerry LeBlanc, Allan Young and Ellis Grace; Carol Giese, accordion; Lynn Seaton, trumpet; Charles Meyer, vocal; Karen Russell, piano; Jerry LeBlanc, Richard Giedde, James Swarthout, a comedy act; Boy's quartet, Ellis Grace, Arthur Bolitho, Charles Meyer and Glen Kelly.

Patricia Storti, Joy Garbin and Meribah Meyer, song and dance routine. Frank Baker, vocal; Bill Talliver, vocal; Fred Claibough and band; and the Clarenceville Dance Band directed by Mr. Joseph Markell.

"These people will start rehearsing their acts soon. This year's show will be entirely different from any other talent show. The Juniors have not chosen a theme for the show. Tickets will go on sale soon from the members of the Junior class. P. S.

Senior Highlights

This week's senior highlight may be seen in any one of these places. In the hall chatting with her cronies, Mary Davis, Naomi Horton and Lois Wilder; in shorthand class, her favorite subject, bending over a book; at Riverside Arena, enjoying her pastime of roller skating; or working at Jim's Sweet Shop in Redford. I think you have guessed by this time who this person is. She is no other than Marion Monroe, who is endowed with brown eyes and dark brown hair.

Marion's favorite color is light blue and she indulges frequently in her hobby of reading, and since the baseball season will soon be here, she will be enjoying her favorite sport.

Marion's pet peeve is people who think she is mad all the time when she isn't, for you see, she says her greatest achievement is making friends.

Her favorite song is "Why don't you Believe Me?" and like many of us, she thinks Mario Lanza is terrific. When it comes to TV, her favorite show is "I Love Lucy". As for actors and actresses, Alan Ladd and Piper Laurie are the best. When I asked her what her worst habits were, she quickly replied: "Being too sarcastic at times and making people think I'm mad when I'm really not." G. S.

This week's senior highlight is really the mystery man of Clarenceville High School. He was born on June 27, 1935, in Detroit. He is best known as Gerald Frederick Hendrickson (Gerry), because that is his name.

His eyes are blue and his hair is a fair blond. Gerry tips the scales at 164 pounds and reaches up into the air 69 inches.

Gerry is the serious (C) studious (C) type, although he has no favorite teacher or class. His greatest ambition is to merely get out of school. He is undecided on what he will do after he attains his ambition.

Before he came to C.H.S., Gerry went to Kaleva High near Cadillac, Michigan.

His hobby is seeing shows and watching television. Arthur Godfrey's Wednesday night show rates tops in his book for his hobby.

'Our Miss Brooks' Set As Junior Class Play

The Junior Play was selected Tuesday, February 24, third hour, at the Junior Class meeting. The play chosen is "Our Miss Brooks". The royalties on the play are $35, but the Juniors agreed that each person in the class contribute 50 cents to cut the cost to only seven dollars from the treasury for royalties. The play book cost 45 cents. There are 17 characters in the play, giving more people a chance to participate.

Mrs. Mary Lavers is the director of the play, she is also one of the Juniors sponsors. P. B.

Seniors Work To Raise Money For Senior Trip

The senior class meeting Monday, February 23, sixth hour, was opened by Ralph Gault, president.

Mr. Max Miller rebuked the list of senior names for spelling on their diplomas. Mr. Miller stated that the class must know by March 15 where it is going on the senior trip.

The class conducted a scrap drive Tuesday, March 3, at 7:30 p.m. for the purpose of raising extra money.

Meribah Meyer, chairman of the committee for making program for the Holly game last Friday night, gave her report. Her committee sold refreshments that night.

Annie Allan, chairman of the bake sale committee, gave a report on the coming bake sale which will be held on March 11.

The treasurer, Beverly Shaw, reminded the students that they must pay all their back dues and senior dues by March 15. J. G.

V. C. Y. Hears Talk By Africa Missionary

On Tuesday, February 24, the V. C. Y. club met in Room 106 for its weekly meeting.

Mrs. Bailey spoke on African Missions.

Editorial

We suggest a new motto for Clarenceville High School: "Keep our Bulletin Boards and Halls Neat". Why should we take up this new motto? Because we need to give our bulletin boards and halls that "new" look, not the "old" look.

For instance, the senior class is having a dance and all the halls and bulletin boards are full of posters advertising this dance. Now that's fine, but what about a week later? Just as we thought there are old posters still haunting the halls. What does this look like to someone visiting our school? It appears to be that the organizations and clubs around Clarenceville are just careless! When a club prepares for an affair and appoints their committees, it would be a good idea for them to tell their poster committee, not to only put up posters, but to be sure and take down all their posters. By doing this it gives the other organizations space to put up their advertising and also give our bulletin boards that "up to date" look.

Our school tries to keep a clean and neat appearance inside and outside, so why can't our students help keep the halls cleared out of date posters and our bulletin boards interesting and neat?

It doesn't take much work or time because it's just thoughtlessness that causes this situation. We students who are members of these organizations and clubs can take these statements in mind and try to do something about it. For this school represents us and our habits so let's try to convince everyone that it's important to be neat and up to date. M. M.
