

Vocal Concert Pleases Audience Saturday Night

The Farmington High School vocal music department concert held in the auditorium on March 7 was highly commendable, according to reports by those who were members of the audience.

The groups, under the direction of J. W. Henderson, presented a variety of numbers under such classifications as "sacred", "spirituals", "world tunes", and "modern".

Particularly commendable was the solo work done by Ann Reiner with the choir in the presentation of "Wayfaring Stranger".

Everyone welcomed the participation for the first time of the Boys Glee Club and a usual good performance was turned in by the Falcons.

Accompanists for the evening's entertainment were L. Ayres, L. Dowling, S. Bates and N. Fisher.

St. Paul School Group Plans March 24 Meeting

The Parent Teacher Association of the St. Paul Lutheran School, Eight Mile and Middlebelt, will hold its next meeting at the school on March 24 at 8:00 p.m.

Speaker for the evening will be Mr. Paul Luebke, a teacher of Mt. Calvary Lutheran School. Mr. Luebke will lead a discussion on "Mental Hygiene" and will answer questions presented by the audience.

Officers of the P.T.A. urge that all members and parents of children in the school attend the meeting and bring their friends.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Orchard Church Ladies Plan Programs For March

The ladies of the Orchard Methodist Church held their W.S.C.S. meeting Thursday evening in the church.

Mrs. Leroy Lord acted as president due to the absence of both the president and vice-president.

Mrs. Garnet Kegley conducted the devotions for the evening.

There will be a "Dutch Maid" demonstration in the church on Thursday, March 19, at 8:00 p.m. The group has also planned a family night pot luck for March 26 at 6:30 p.m. in the church with a program following.

Refreshments at the meeting last Thursday evening were served by Mrs. Garnet Kegley and Mrs. Marvel Rhoads.

Scout News

Three of Our Lady of Sorrows Brownie Troops held an investiture ceremony on February 25 for 47 girls. It was beautifully carried out with their colors of brown and yellow on the cakes, with yellow clock, flowers and candles.

The leader of Troop 228, Mrs. Boatman, and the leader of Troop 170, Mrs. Bader, and Mrs. Hoffman with her brand new Troop 488, invited several new Troop women to watch as the girls carried out the flag ceremony. Some of the girls received their year pennants.

No one can forget the Girl Scout Birthday, when daughters and mothers are whipping up special costumes and ransacking the houses for international mementos. The big show is March 14. It will be worth the time to see as some leaders have sent to other lands for materials.

Incidentally, Troop 400 committee women have made 28 Swiss costumes for the Birthday Party.

Material was dyed, cut and sewn from authentic Girl Guide gowns. Troop 400 has been roller skating recently and Meddames Fedra, Snyder and Hupert claim nothing more serious than tired muscles.

of Thirteen Mile Road.

Ivan Graham, Harold See and Roland Green took part in the explaining of the church program for the year 1933 at a cooperative dinner held at the Walled Lake Baptist Church Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Clifford Whitworth flew from Los Angeles to be with her mother, Mrs. Ethel Kovacs, who is very ill at her home on Thirteen Mile Road. She also flew to Boston to be at the bedside of her brother, Andrew Kovacs, at the time of his death.

Mrs. W. M. Jones of 6225 Halsted Road was very sick all last week with a bad cold.

Mrs. Edith Sarantos, who has been very sick, is slowly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. William Knapp and family spent Sunday with relatives in Detroit.

Children attending school had a day off Monday when their teachers attended the Teachers' Institute.

Mrs. Irvin Knapp accompanied Mrs. Alfred Busch to a Farm Bureau Women's Committee meeting which was held at Rose Center Town Hall recently. A pot luck luncheon was served at noon by the hostesses.

Mrs. Earl Bado took charge of the meeting in the absence of the regular officers and led a very interesting discussion on legislative topics.

Mrs. Bado's name was submitted for the State vice-chairmanship for the Farm Bureau Women's Committee. The group scheduled its next meeting for the White Lake Church and Mrs. Dewey Snover was named hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heliker and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Banfield.

Evelyn Knapp and Nancy Ann Knapp spent Saturday with Nancy and Patricia Osterling.

Mrs. Richard Heliker spent Tuesday at Filat.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rayola and daughter Ruth of Detroit called on Edith Sarantos Sunday.

Martha and Eisle Benkel called on Mr. and Mrs. William Tamm Saturday.
