PLAN TO START VOICE RECORDING PROJECT FRIDAY

Voice recordings of the families of Farmington area servicemen will be made this week and under the auspices of the Groves-Walker Post American Legion Auxiliary. Any person who has a son or daughter in military service is invited to participate in the program. Tape recordings are made in Farmington and then broadcast over various radio stations to service personnel both in the states and overseas. The program, which is being sponsored nationally by the American Legion Auxiliary, is known as "Homestead, U. S."

Residents are asked to contact Joseph DeVriendt at Farmington 0035 for time and place of appointment.

NEW HIGHWAY MAPS AVAILABLE AT ENTERPRISE

Come and get 'em... they're free!
Copies of the new 1953 official State Highway maps are now available at the office of the Farmington Enterprise. The map, prepared by the State Highway Department, carries all the latest information on roads, parks, recreation facilities, airports and historical sites. An added feature of interest this year is a reproduction of the oldest map of Michigan still in existence. The map was printed in 1829, just two years after Michigan became a state. Officials of the Enterprise suggest that residents secure their maps as soon as possible as the supply is limited.

Church Services

cordia Seminary will give the sermon at 8:00 p.m.

The Farmington Trinity Episcopal Church will hold its Good Friday observance in the Universalist Church at 8:00 p.m. This service of Evening Prayer and Litany will feature a sermon by the Rev. James Guinan and a coffee hour in Adams Hall will be held immediately following the service. The Farmington Universalist Church will hold a special service on Maundy Thursday at the church at 8:00 p.m. Dr. Frank Adams will lead the annual communion and service of memory. The candlelight service will be in token of all those held in great memory as having contributed to the life and strength of the world — all based on the traditional institution of the Last Supper. Dr. Adams announces that the service is open to all.

In keeping with the traditional observance of Good Friday, most of the stores and offices in and around the City of Farmington will be closed from 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Friday, April 3. All of the churches in the Farmington area will observe Easter Sunday, April 5, with special services and music devoted to the Easter theme.

City To Discuss

can be sold. However, because of pollution of the Rouge River, the state can force the city to construct the plant regardless of the outcome of the election. Although the city has until July 1, 1954, to complete the plant, they have gone on record to start construction by May 1, 1953, or as soon thereafter as possible. Extension of the sewer and water mains to the new Farmington High School and the Kelly subdivision is to be financed on a revenue bond basis. This does not require a special vote. The Council must, however, approve a revenue bond ordinance to cover the financing of the project. All lines within the subdivision are to be paid for by the subdivider.

Board To Study

Recreation Commission. Mr. L. N. Hayden, Farmington city engineer, appeared before the board to furnish information on the new sewer line to be constructed to the new high school area and to the Kelly subdivision. Following Mr. Hayden's testimony, the board voted to have the school attorney, Archie Leonard, prepare a written opinion on the legality of the school board joining the city in sharing the cost of the sewer system. Upon receipt of Leonard's opinion, the board agreed to contact the City Council and inform that body as to what course of action the school board would take. The board also passed a motion authorizing Superintendent Dunkel to seek bids for home-making and art equipment for the new building in order that the bids could be opened at the regular meeting of the board on April 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heliker and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Heliker.

OPTIMISTS LOOK FORWARD TO 35th ANNUAL MEETING

The 40,000 men known as "Friend of the Boy" are sending 2,500 representatives to Washington, D. C., for the 35th annual convention of Optimist International from June 17 to 20.

J. Warren Day, president of Optimist International, reports that active activity in development of new Optimist Clubs throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico and Cuba, as well as abroad, is up to three boys' clubs in almost the individual clubs. President of the Clarencville Optimist Club is Maxwell Smith.

On the convention agenda is election of officers for the coming year, finale of the Optimist Oratorical contest, theme of which is "Optimism — The Faith That Leads to Achievement, awarding college scholarships to three boys, and a review of boys' work activities.

It is expected this review will show that $1,500,000 was spent on boys' work last year. That Optimists connected half a million boys, and that boys' work properly, including 19 boys' homes, ranches and farms, is valued at $3,500,000. Additional construction of $2,500,000 is planned.

WANNA BUY A DUCK???

That would be somethin' different and we have some fresh frozen-oven-dressed ducks for 68c a lb. Course like everybody else we got a wagon box of hams — all sizes, kinds and shapes. First off there's canned hams that are all cooked. If yuh jest want a little one that yuh can polish off in one meal there's a 2 lb. one for $2.49 each. Next size is a 5 lb. canned picnic ham all boned and skinned for $3.99 each. Fer a regular tenderized smoked ham that will weigh from 14 to 16 lbs. each we'll have to have about 68c a lb. If you have a locker or freezer we'll be glad to wrap watacha don't wanna use right away. Now if you only wanna buy a piece of ham the shank end is 59c a lb. and the butt end is 73c a lb. Seems as tho when yuh cook ham yuh gotta have pineapple too. If yuh want juice yuh can git a 46 oz. can for 35c — or if you fix it up all fancy with pineapple slices yuh can git 3 No. 2 cans of it for $1.00. Are you gonna have hams and yams? Kinda thought maybe you wouldn't wanna mess around peelin' sweet potatoes so we'll give yuh 3 cans of 'em for $1.00. Now don't let all this ham talk mislead you — we'll still have beef and pork and lamb and frozen rabbits and all kinds of fresh dressed chickens. Sounds like a lot of good eatin' — don't it?

New potatoes are on the market now. Down here you can git 6 lbs. of 'em all done up in a reusable plastic bag for 49c. New potatoes call for butter and parsley. We hope to have fresh parsley and we know we'll have Vlasic print butter for 68c a lb. In case yuh want a carrot or three fer relishes and vegetables gitcherself 3 bunches of 'em for 29c. Since yuh got all that pineapple for $1.00 yuh can use some of it fer a salad so you'll need some lettuce. How about gettin' 2 heads fer 35c — and some Salad Bowl salad dressin' fer 45c a quart? In the drinkin' department there's a deal on Salada tea. There's a big package and a little package which gives yuh 64 tea bags fer only 59c. Guess that about takes care of everything fer the big kids — but we do want you to know we have some Rit egg dye left and also some Grade A white eggs fer 69c a dozen. There's still some of them jelly-bird eggs here fer fixin' up a basket. Jest throw our Easter eggs in a paper bag. Don't go to a lot of work — will yuh?

Fenestra
STEEL CASEMENTS
● For the living room, there is the picture window shown, with ventilating steel casement at each side. Here's an unhampered view of a pleasant landscape, architectural beauty, plus plenty of fresh air ventilation.
● For the kitchen, Fenestra windows over the kitchen sink provide extra working light (the slender frames allow larger glass areas). A finger's touch opens the windows to deflect the breezes into the kitchen.
● Fenestra steel casements are just right for the bedroom—swinging leaves reach out to catch the breezes from any of three directions. You can get 100% opening for ventilation—more than twice the ventilating area provided by double hung windows in the same size window opening.
With all their advantages, Fenestra Steel Casements cost less to buy and install. Standardization streamlines production, simplifies installation. See your architect or builder, or phone
