Donald Thomas Serves Aboard Seaplane Tender

The seaplane tender USS Salsbury Sound returned this week from the Far East where she was the floating base for the patrol planes flying reconnaissance missions in the Formosa Straits.

Aboard her is Donald E. Thomas, ship's serviceman seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Thomas, of 28085 Alycekey Road.

During its seven months tour of duty overseas the Salsbury Sound, commanded by Navy Captain Joseph F. Quilter, has been the flagship of Rear Admiral T. B. Williamson, USN, Commander Tank Force 72.

While in the Far East she called at Yokosuka, Japan, and the British Crown Colony of Hong Kong.

From there they went to the Philippine Republic for ship modifications at the Subic Bay Naval Station.

Cpl. Howard Yatzek Now Stationed In Alabama

Cpl. Howard L. Yatzek has been transferred from the 9330th Technical Service Unit at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Alabama, to the enlisted reserve corps.

At Redstone he has worked as a chaplain's assistant and as a military policeman.

While stationed at the famous ordnance center for the rocket and guided missile programs, Cpl. Yatzek has been a leader of the Chapel Boys Club, the Young People's Choir and the Youth Council at the Huntsville Holmes Street Methodist Church.

He has also been the youth counselor for the Post Chapel.

Before coming to Redstone, he received basic training at Ft. Bragg, N. C. He entered the armed forces in March, 1951, and arrived at Redstone Arsenal on September 11 of the same year.

The corporal is married to the former Iola Edmonds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edmonds, St. Francis Street. He is the son of
