Republicans have gone on record as favoring a new prison to relieve overcrowding at Jackson, but they make no reference to size, cost or financing. Austin C. McCormick, nationally known prison authority who studied the Jackson riots, reported that overcrowding was the largest single cause of the riot, and if it were remedied, more riots can be expected.

People in Michigan would be saved about $505,000,000, or more than half a billion dollars in 1954 if present efforts to reduce the federal budget by $10 billion are successful. These estimates are figured according to population; this state has 5.05% of the people by an equal proportion.

Tourists will spend about $500 million in Michigan this year, said C. G. Wells, secretary manager of West Michigan Tourist and Resort Association. Insufficient facilities to handle peak summer loads are expected to cause vacation attempts to interest manufacturers in a plan to spread vacations over a 12-month period. In this way, fishermen could take time off during winter.

Memories went back to army days for thousands of Michigan men last week with the announcement that Fort Custer, induction center and training station, would be closed June 1. Deactivation of the army post is part of a military economy move which includes six other camps and will save the government $2 million the first year, $40 million each succeeding year.

Nearly 1,200 civilian employees will be released and the camp will be staffed by a stand-by group which can reactivate it within 60 days. Fort Custer will be used each summer for two months for training purposes.

An offer of a new "final resting" place for the body of Michigan's first governor is being considered in Detroit. It came from the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau to provide a solution to a problem facing Detroit officials. They are trying to create more usable space in the congested area of State and Griswold where a tiny park marking the grave exists. Stevens T. Mason, Michigan's governor who held office when he was only 32, had the vision that made the U. P. part of the state, said the letter. The Upper Peninsula Bureau stated that it would be honored to give a resting place in "God's Country" where Governor Mason's body would not be disturbed.

Wayne Erickson Joins Tau Beta Pi At MSC

Wayne D. Erickson, 23669 Lilac Street, has been initiated into the Michigan Alpha Chapter of Tau Beta Pi, national engineering honorary fraternity at Michigan State College.

Tau Beta Pi has 92 chapters throughout major colleges and universities of the United States and has initiated over 75,000 students. The Michigan State chapter was the second to be established in the country and the first in the State of Michigan.

To be eligible for Tau Beta Pi, students must be in the top one-fifth of the senior engineering class or in the top one-eighth of the junior class. In addition to scholarship, the honorary requires that members have such qualities as high personality, character, integrity, and participate in extracurricular activities.

Sincerely Yours:

Dear Sir: After reading your editorial in regard to the matter of zoning, and analyzing the attitude of The Farmington Enterprise, this community is fortunate in having a newspaper that supports the interests of the people rather than letting politicians make decisions for them.

The zoning ordinance was passed by the people and it provided that change that the people might want to make should be done by amendment. I like the wording in your editorial: "Once a sound amendment has been proposed it should be allowed to follow the channels prescribed by law. This is the only way the Zoning Board and the Township Board can determine the feelings of the people."

I am sure that it is the desire of your subscribers and readers, as well as all the people of Farmington Township to handle their affairs in just that way. In an issue as important as zoning, the people should have an opportunity to speak and give them the chance and they will.

It is very important in any project that affects the people at large that the local newspaper should inform and guide the people so that the officials elected by them will know the people's will.

Yours truly,

Louis Fink

To the Editor: Yes, indeed, I have enjoyed the home community newspaper, but there is now scarcely a name or a family which I know. Fifty years ago I knew everyone not only that, but what they had been doing, and when they went visiting. I am glad so many new families like Farmington for their homes. What would we do without them? They are making a fine city filled with good new homes, helping to "run it", building up business, new societies and all their energetic friends. Hope more come, and all take The Enterprise.

Most sincerely,
Bertha Steele

Farmington Student Earns All-A's At U-M

All A records have been achieved by 135 University of Michigan students during the fall semester. Luella G. Partee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Partee of 32418 Northwestern Highway, is the only student from the Farmington area to be included on the list. Miss Partee is a Junior in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts.

A breakdown of the total shows that 10 of the 15 U-M schools and colleges were represented. Of these the College of Literature, Science and the Arts had 84; the College of Engineering, 20; the School of Music, 7; Medical School, 6; School of Public Health, 5; College of Architecture and Design, 4; School of Education, 4; School of Business Administration, 3; School of Natural Resources, 1; and College of Pharmacy, 1.

As Judges for
Oakland County

Oakland County lawyers, the men who know the candidates best, overwhelmingly chose the three incumbents in a secret ballot as PREFERRED for reelection to the Circuit Court for Oakland County. These lawyers, working every day in the local courts, have proved once again by their choice that "There is No Substitute for Experience."

The lawyers of Oakland County are proud of the record of the Oakland County Circuit Court under the present Judges as disclosed by the report of the Judicial Council of Michigan, a statistical survey of the Michigan Judicial System. The survey discloses that our Judges spend more time on the Bench than other Judges, dispose of more cases, and that the period from the time the case is started until disposed of is remarkably short compared with other Counties.

SUPPOSE IT IS TRUE AFTER ALL?

Two friends were discussing the question of punishment for sin in a future life. They settled to their own satisfaction that there was none. They decided that hell was a myth. They agreed that God, being a God of love, could not consign His creatures to everlasting punishment. Then a Christian who had been listening silently to the discussion said:

"Suppose it is true, after all?"
The words seemed to fall on the ears of the two with crushing force. The power of God seemed behind them, as it ever is behind the truth. God had spoken.

Suppose it is true after all that hell must punish sin? How would you fare before the Judge?

Suppose it is true after all that hell is a reality, and that "it is appointed unto man once to die, but after this the judgment?" What list at the end of the path you are now treading?

Suppose it is true after all that the Lord Jesus is the only Saviour? What if you neglect Him? "How shall we escape if we neglect to great salvation?"

God hates your sin, but He loves you. He loves you so much that He sent from heaven His only Son, Jesus Christ, to die under God's wrath against your sin. As the Bible says it, "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." Our sins were laid on Him.

Tell God you want to be included among those for whom Christ suffered; that you do accept Him as your Saviour—the One who suffered in your place. Jesus said, "Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out. There is no problem in your life too great for Him to solve if you will let Him. 'Come unto me,' He said, 'and I will give you rest.'"
