F.H.S. STUDENTS
TO VISIT U. OF M.
SATURDAY, MAY 2

Several Farmington students will attend a University Day at the University of Michigan on Saturday, May 2.

The group will arrive in Ann Arbor about 9:00 a.m. and will attend a general assembly in the Rackham Building at 9:30 a.m. Here students will be informed in detail of the day's schedule.

Also at this assembly there will be a brief word of greeting by President Hatcher and music by the Glee Club.

Separate guided tours for men and women to such places as the Michigan Union and Women's League, housing facilities, and the educational buildings will immediately follow the assembly.

Lunch will be served to the visitors for a reasonable fee.

A short continuation of the tours will follow lunch.

The rest of the afternoon will be comparatively free for students to do and see what most interests them.

A "Mixer" will be held at the Union at 3:00 p.m. which will enable the students to meet and get informally. Also at 3:00 p.m. there will be a coffee hour held for the visiting faculty.

The visiting groups will leave Ann Arbor around 4:00 p.m. Miss Jacqueline Buck and Miss Margaret Lingo will drive the Farmington students. D.A.C.

PROJECT WINNERS
OF ANNUAL CONTEST
ANNOUNCED APRIL 15

The annual Spanish project contest winners were announced Wednesday, April 15.

The Spanish I contest winners were Delene Domes and Clara Hanson. Delene won first place with her hand-made doll, "Lady of Spain" and a Spanish scrapbook. Clara was given second prize for her scrapbook, "Mexico, Our Southern Neighbor."

Spanish II contest winners were Alan Williams and Sue Andrews. Al's hand-made model of the Mexican sports car, the Nacional, won him first place. Sue made two scrapbooks of many Latin-American countries for the second prize award.

Many of the projects are now on display in the high school's main hall. C.E.M.

Journalists To Present
"Lost Horizons", "Othello"

The Farmington High Journalism class will present the full length film, "Lost Horizons" in the Farmington High gym tonight, April 30.

The film, "Lost Horizons", stars Ronald Coleman and is based on the novel by John Hilton.

"Othello", the second film, is a short film based on the Shakespearean play.

Both films are highly recommended and the showing will begin at 7:00 o'clock in the high school gym.

Tickets can be bought from all Journalism students or at the door. P.S.K.

Albion College To Hold
Open House For Seniors

The seniors are invited to attend an open-house at Albion College May 2, 1953.

They will tour the campus and be allowed to attend some classes.

The college has planned a whole day of activities so that the seniors will become acquainted with college life. J. S.

Majorettes To Make
New Uniforms For '54

Farmington High's majorettes are working on their new uniforms. The uniforms are being made of blue corduroy.

The majorettes, J. Grinager, C. Morton, P. Bohl and I. Illis, will display them for the first time on Memorial Day. M. R.
