

Sunday Nature Hikes In May

Two "special" guided nature walks Sunday morning will be held at Keweenaw Metropark on May 6 to help frequent people with spring flowers and birds.

Families and individuals may meet the park naturalists at the Nature Center for these guided hikes on Sunday, May 6 or Sunday, May 20 at 7 a.m.

Thomas H. Smith, chief naturalist for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, said these walks are for the general public and hikers should dress according to the weather and wear sturdy shoes that will help keep their feet dry. The walks will last from 1½ to two hours.

Families and individuals may meet the park naturalists at the Nature Center for these guided hikes on Sunday, May 6 or Sunday, May 20 at 7 a.m.

Connie Blivins and Donnie Seward did not participate as they currently are working as secretaries through the cooperative education program at Clarenceville.

Mrs. Carolyn L. Collins is class teacher and sponsor of the project.
