

PRIZES OFFERED FOR BEST BOOK OF SCHOOL DAZE

Last September, Mr. Harry S. Wolfe distributed School Daze Record books to the Clarencville High School students.

Throughout the school year many students have been clipping out write-ups on school events such as sports, plays and proms, and pasting them in their School Daze books. Others have been collecting snapshots of events, friends and teachers to add to their School Daze Hall of Fame.

The time has come when they will be rewarded for their efforts. Mr. Wolfe has requested that all books be turned in to Mr. Louis Schmidt's office not later than June 1. There will be three prizes given for the most complete and neatest books. First prize will be a $50 U. S. Defense Bond; second and third prizes will be $25 bonds. The judges will be people living outside of the area. After the book has been judged, it will be returned to the student. All students who have kept their books up to date are urged to enter this contest.

Annual Banquet Honors Seniors

The Junior class presented the seniors with a combined junior-senior banquet which was held Thursday evening, May 7, in the gymnasium at 6:30 p.m.

Thomas Ruttle, junior class president, opened the program by introducing Robert Stangle, vice president, who welcomed the seniors. Ralph Gault, senior class president, accepted the welcome on behalf of the class. John Ferrie gave the invocation and the banquet began.

The menu consisted of fried chicken, baked ham, potatoes, peas and carrots, pickled beets, milled salad, hot rolls, assorted relishes, apple pie and ice cream, coffee and milk. It was furnished by Black's Catering Service of Northville. The sophomore girls donated their services as waitresses. They were: Roberta Barnes, Patricia Byrnes, Janet Gibbons, Marian LaMontagne, Marlene Robitaille, Karen Russell and Nancy Williamson.

After dessert, Joan Doyle, Betty Gourlay and Patricia Storti sang "Hello Young Lovers" and "Side by Side". Then Ellis Grace gave a humorous speech on "Best Wishes".

The decorations were of silver and lilac in accordance with the senior class colors. Each member of the class was presented with a corsage of sweet peas, the class flower. On the wall were two mottoes: "Not Finished, Just Begun", the senior motto, and "Many Hands Make Light Work", the Junior motto. The meal was served family style and there were 178 attending the banquet. The junior class would like to thank Norma Cooke, Mary Lavers, Robert Setke, Winifred Mummery and Mary Ann Richardson, who also helped make the banquet a success.

Biology Class Visits Dairy On May 6

Miss Ellenbeth Monahan's three biology classes were taken on a field trip to the Eloise Dairy Wednesday, May 6, at 1:00 p.m. Transportation was furnished for the trip by two school buses.

Seventy-five students attended the trip and five mothers went along as chaperones. They were Mrs. Swarthout, Mrs. Crode, Mrs. Robitaille, Mrs. Colvin and Mrs. Jaynes.

Mr. Edelson, sanitary engineer, conducted the group through the dairy and explained the different procedures and machinery.

Clarencville Girls Attend Playday At Northville

Last Friday, May 8, a G.A.A. playday was held at Northville in Cass Benton Park.

Six schools attended the playday, they were Clarkston, Northville, Holly, Milford, Keego Harbor and Clarencville.

There were two girls from each school on each team and 14 teams were formed. At the playday there were a number of games in which girls could participate. Some of them were croquet, cageball, badminton, track, tennis, horseshoe and shuffleboard.

The girls changed games every ten minutes.

After the games were over ice cream and pop were served.

Frosh Favorite

"If you knew Susie like I know Susie, Oh, Oh, Oh, what a gal!"

Yep, this week's freshman favorite is a Susie, Susan Whitfield, to be proper.

Susie is a new girl here, but she certainly is a favorite with her brown hair and brown eyes. She is 5' 2" tall and weighs 120 pounds. Susan is only fourteen, but "Oh, oh, oh what a gal!"

Her favorite class is gym with Miss Myers, her favorite teacher, in charge. When she and her pals, Margie Ferris, Jean Moody and Judy and Jo Ann Tucker have any spare time they watch "I Love Lucy" or listen to Julius Larkan croon a dreamy tune.

Susie has a pleasant disposition, but like all humans, has one pet peeve which happens to be doing dishes.

Yes, "If you knew Susie like I know Susie" — on second thought you'd better not get to know her too well, 'cuz Chuck Meyer, her month-old steady, might get mad.

Girl Learns Lesson; Others May Take Heed

A 13-year-old girl from Jackson has learned the hard way that a fishing boat should be equipped with more than one means of propulsion.

Recently, she was riding in her father's motorboat off East Tav-as state park in Lake Huron. When finished, she piloted to the dock, stopped the motor and threw a line to her father, standing on the dock. He missed and the boat began to drift out into the lake.

The girl could not start the motor and the cars had been left on shore. She continued to drift out into the lake until finally the Coast Guard was called and brought the youngster to shore, frightened but wiser for her experience.

The President's Materials Policy Commission estimates America will use 70%, more coal in 1975 than it did in 1952.
