Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Taylor, with their daughter and grandson, from Dearborn, were visiting Mrs. Christena Reihahn on Mayfield Avenue last Saturday afternoon. Dale Graham of the U. S. Air Force spent last week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Graham, on Mayfield Avenue. The young man stopped on his way from Great Lakes Aviation in Dearborn, where he is to be located for the next six months.

Mrs. Richard DeSteger from Detroit was a guest all this week of her grandmother, Mrs. E. W. Stange, on Mayfield.

Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol of Shadydale Avenue spent last Sunday with relatives in Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grant and several members of their family visited the Grand's older son, Ted, in Battle Creek last Saturday. Tom Smith of Hubbard Avenue accompanied them.

At their home on Brentwood Avenue, a family dinner marked the 31st wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault last Sunday. Mrs. Oman, Mrs. Thorne and Mrs. Read, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ault, arranged the pleasant little celebration.

Miss Eileen under the leadership of Mrs. Harold McVey enjoyed a roller skating party last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault and their three children, of Hubbard Avenue, and Mrs. M. E. Ault of Mayfield Avenue, visited Flint last Sunday. Accompanying them was Mrs. Forrest Ault's mother, Mrs. Updike, who had a visit with relatives in this locality, returned to her home in Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boyce and their baby are house guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boyce on Robinson. The young man has just been discharged from the U. S. Army, having been stationed in California this past year. He has now found employment and is also finding suitable residence in this locality.

Robbie, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Imonen of Hubbard Avenue, suffered a badly broken right arm last Monday evening when a stepladder standing in the yard of his home and on which he was perched slipped because of the mud, causing him to fall. The boy spent a few days in New Grace Hospital, but is now home again, doing as well as can be expected.

Mrs. Louis Graham of Mayfield Avenue left Friday to spend the week end with relatives and friends at West Branch. This Saturday she is attending her class reunion.

Mrs. William Griffith and her baby daughter Cathie are spending the week end with her mother, Mrs. E. W. Stange on Mayfield.

Mrs. Louverne Marguer has sold her home on Shadydale Avenue. The new owners are Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, from Detroit, and with their four month old son will shortly be occupying the property. Mr. Palmer is interested in landscape gardening. Mrs. Palmer plans to leave soon for a vacation trip into the mid-West, where she will spend several weeks visiting friends and relatives. On her return she will take up residence with her daughter, Mrs. Henry McMillin and her family on Mark Tratula Avenue in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shielman of Colgate Avenue visited the former's father in Ann Arbor Thursday evening.

Mrs. Johnson Ault, Mayfield Avenue, left this Saturday morning to spend the week end with her daughter, Mrs. Johnson Porter and her family, near New London, Ohio. At Monroe she will be joined by her daughter, Mrs. Tom Roberts and her family, who are also to be guests of the Porters.

The Edward Brumman from Noviyeux were calling on Mrs. Neumann's mother, Mrs. Grace Simpson on Mayfield Avenue last Tuesday. Larry Brumman remained to be an overnight guest of his grandmother.

Mrs. Robert Judd, from near Gross Pointe, was calling on her mother, Mrs. E. W. Stange on Mayfield Avenue, this last Saturday.

Anglers Not Permitted To Leave Boats 'At Site'

Anglers are not permitted to leave their boats unattended at public fishing sites, the conservation department warns.

"It is unlawful to anchor or leave boats unattended overnight at fishing sites unless the owner's name and address, in legible letters, is affixed to the boat," states the law.

Conservation officers have the authority to move such boats "to any part of the fishing site not usually used by the public."

Camping is permitted on all fishing sites north of state highway, M-46, and often in the past anglers have come afoul of this
