WHERE RESPONSIBILITY ENDS

By PAT BLANCH

During the course of the school year many complaints have been called into the high school office regarding the actions of students at parties and after school dances. The specific complaint of certain parents is that their son or daughter had been involved in drinking. Understandably, these parents have something to complain about, but they are complaining to the wrong people. The school has absolutely no control over the students when they are off school grounds after school hours.

To those parents who complain to the principal about these dances and parties and the drinking that takes place may we suggest that they either keep their child or children at home or exercise the proper control over them. In our opinion school officials try very hard and do an overwhelming good job of controlling the students when it is their duty. It is our suggestion that the parents who complain do as well as the officials.

JUNIOR CLASS DISCUSSES FUTURE CLASS PROBLEMS

Announcement of the editors of next year's yearbook was the main topic of business at the Junior Class meeting Thursday, May 21. Marilyn Goers was named editor-in-chief.

The class voted on and passed that one Junior will be on each date to acquaint them with the style. This will help them when they have their yearbook. The dates for the prom and senior play were announced. The prom has been set for May 14 and the play November 21. The rehearsals for the play will begin on October 12.

Next year's play reading committee will be chosen this spring in order that they may work over the summer. Only students who were on this year's play reading committee, or who took part in the Junior play, or who intend to try out for the senior play can be on the committee.

The class had $269.36 in the treasury previous to the play. The returns from the play were $26.16, bringing the present sum to $295.52.

The subject of drinking was brought up by President Dick Goulet. He said that Mr. Harrison had had complaints about the drinking at parties after the formal dances. Goulet stressed that as seniors next year the class should be responsible for stopping this. If it continues the formal dances may be eliminated, Goulet warned. M. E. V.

TRIP CLUB'S RETURN SATURDAY FROM NEW YORK

A most enjoyable senior trip was taken by 33 seniors from the Farmington High School.

The students and two advisors, Miss Margaret Lingo and Mr. Lee Peal, left the school at 3:00 p.m. Wednesday, May 27, on a school bus and were taken to Michigan Central Station to board the Youth Travel Train.

The train arrived at Grand Central Station in New York around 8:00 a.m. Thursday, May 28, where students boarded a bus which took them to the Henry Hudson Hotel. After rooms were assigned and breakfast was served students were free to shop or sightsee until 2:00 p.m. At two o'clock the students embarked on a high-speed cruise around Manhattan Island where such sights as the Washington Bridge, Brooklyn Navy Yard, U. N. Buildings and the Palisades were seen. Also of this cruise the boat passed Bedloe Island where the Statue of Liberty stands.

After returning to the hotel, dinner was served, following which the students prepared immediately to go to Radio City Music Hall where they saw the "Hockettes" and other acts. After the show the students were again free to do whatever they wished. Many visited Central Park, the Empire State Building, or Times Square.

The following morning some students visited the U. N. with the advisors while others shopped. At 2:00 p.m. the students left the hotel to go on a bus tour of Manhattan. During the tour many sights such as the Bowery, Chinatown, Wall Street, Church of St. John Divine, Greenwich Village, and Columbia University were seen.

The Trip Club members wish to thank Miss Lingo and Mr. Peal for making the trip possible and so successful. P. B.
