Albert Colo's philosophy is attuned to true ilberalism. He believes protoundly in the principle of private property, it private enterprise, it individual responsibility. Yet he believes government has a great responsibility to help citzens obtain for themselves the majorial besings of life, including good housing. In the interview he would not reduce to predict the mature of the new feer in housing concept and plan now in process of development; but on goal as understand rown.
