CUB CAPERS

Pack 109's plans are complete for an outing and picnic to be held at Cass Benton Park on June 13. The occasion is a five hour affair, beginning at 1:00 p.m. and lasting until 6:00 p.m. Den Mothers, Den Dads and Cubs are urged to assemble at 12:00 p.m. at the Middlebelt School. The picnic will be a Pack family affair.

Ron Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, in charge of site and transportation, respectively, have distributed mimeographed outlines to Den Mothers and Cubs giving full particulars about assembling, route and location.

Committeemen Tikkanen and Robinson, refreshment co-chairmen, report that ice cream, pop, milk and coffee comprise part of the menu. Den Mothers are busy planning and preparing food to feed their hungry Den Dads and Cubs.

Social games, sack races, relays, songfests, etc., are being scheduled to insure plenty of activity for young and old.

Final award presentations will be made at this occasion since Pack 109 becomes inactive during the summer months.

Exchange Marriage Vows May 23

A lovely evening ceremony in the Farmington First Methodist Church on May 23 saw Miss Evelyn Lenore Nichols become the bride of Mr. Walter H. Tuck. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Russell Surave. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Nichols of 31601 Trestle in Farmington, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tuck of 43111 Grand River in Novi.

For her wedding Miss Nichols chose a white strapless sheath underdress, which was accented by an overdress of imported French lace fashioned in a skirt opening down the front and a jacket utilizing small pearl buttons. A dainty pill box, decorated with seed pearls, topped her three-quarter length veil. The bride's bouquet was composed of white lilies and red roses.

Elsie Hall of Farmington served as matron of honor and Esther Hupert of Canton, Ohio, was the bridesmaid. The two-piece suit of the matron of honor was light green nylon and that of the bridesmaid was of lavender colored nylon. The former carried a bouquet of white lilies and pink roses while the latter's flowers were white lilies and yellow roses.

William Klassermer served as best man for the groom and Donald Tuck served as groomsman.

Ray Nichols and Bernie Hall of Farmington and Bill Barber of Northville ushered guests into the church.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece suit of pink nylon and carried white accessories with her bouquet of white carnations and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Tuck chose light blue marquisette with white accessories and her flowers were pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Novi Community Building, at which time serving duties were handled by Mrs. Verda Dunlop, Miss Marion Dunlop, Mrs. Jean Hoskins and Miss Jane Tatro.

The bride is a 1949 graduate of Farmington High School and Mr. Tuck was graduated from Northville High School in 1947.
