EGNER - O'CAMB MARRIED LAST THURSDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin C. Vollbrecht have announced the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Horger Egner, to Mr. Leo G. O'Camb of Birmingham on July 2.

Reverend Luce officiated at the candlelight ceremony which took place Thursday evening at the Southfield United Presbyterian Church.

The bride was gowned in a rose colored street length dress and wore a small white lace hat. She was given in marriage by Mr. Vollbrecht.

Joan Egner, the bride's daughter, was the only attendant for Mrs. Egner and she wore a blue dress and a small white lace hat similar to that of the bride. The bride and Miss Egner both carried colonial bouquets.

Mr. O'Camb chose his son, Douglas, as his best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 200 guests was held in the parlors of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Camb will be at home in Birmingham on July 20, following a trip to northern Canada.

Lillian Blair Wed By Candlelight

MRS. DAVID JAMES ROBERTSON

Lillian Annabelle Blair became the bride of David James Robertson at the Farmington Methodist Church Saturday, June 27, at 7:00 p.m., with the Reverend Suraw officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Blair of Detroit, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson of Farmington.

The bride wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over white tulle. Her orange blossom tiara held a short veil. The bridal bouquet consisted of a white orchid and stephanotis on a white ribbon.

Barbara Carpenter, who served as maid of honor, wore a yellow gown and carried blue carnations. The bridesmaids, Catherine Robertson, Gloria Gordon, and Marilyn Albus, wore similar gowns of blue and carried yellow carnations.

Graham - Morgan Rites Solemnized

Dr. Gordon Northrop of the Farmington First Baptist Church held the wedding ceremony on June 13 when Miss Wanda Lavonne Graham repeated her vows with Stanley J. Morgan. Miss Graham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Graham of Mayfield Avenue in Livonia and Mr. Morgan's parents live in Standish, Michigan.

White carnations and radish decorated the altar for the 7:00 p.m. service during which the bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's gown was of nylon net with satin bodice and nylon lace trim with a 12-foot train. Her headpiece consisted of a pearl and rhinestone-trimmed tiara which held her fingertip veil. The bridal bouquet was made up of white roses.

Mrs. Don Masters served as matron of honor and was gowned in aqua nylon net. She carried pink carnations.

Mr. Nick Nichols, Jr., was chosen as best man by the groom, and Joe Kerry, Richard Saylor, Jerry Wilkes and Virgil Kimmmer ushered guests into the church.

MR. and MRS. S. J. MORGAN

The bridesmaids wore nylon dresses in blue, pink, shrimp and orchid colors in attending to their duties. Serving in this capacity were Mrs. Carol Ott, Carol Mary Cunningham, who journeyed from Glasgow, Scotland, for her niece's wedding.

An honored guest at the double-ring ceremony was Mrs. Mary Cunningham, who journeyed from Glasgow, Scotland, for her niece's wedding.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in Farmington for about 250 guests.

The couple, both graduates of Farmington High School, are now in Canada for their honeymoon.

Farmington Church Plans Continuation of School

Mr. Leonard Stidwell, Church School Superintendent of the First Methodist Church of Farmington, announced this week that the Church School would remain in session during July and August on a limited schedule.

The adult classes will meet at 9:15 each Sunday. The remainder of the Church School (Deacons, Primary and Juniors) will meet during the morning worship hour at 10:15.

Any persons interested in the Church School are welcome to attend these sessions.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vorbeck of 19015 Merriman Road celebrated their silver wedding anniversary with relatives and close friends on Saturday, July 4.

Margaret Louise Guy Becomes Bride

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM GEORGE ARMSTRONG

Margaret Louise Guy became the bride of William George Armstrong on Friday, June 26, during an 8:00 p.m. candlelight ceremony in the First Methodist Church of Farmington. The Reverend Russell W. Suraw officiated. Margaret is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Morris Guy of Farmington and Mr. Armstrong is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anger Armstrong of Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Max Miller sang "Because" after the bride's mother was seated by her son, Lieutenant Dan M. Guy, Jr., and she sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the wedding ceremony. Mrs. M. G. Burdick was organist.

Miss Guy walked down an aisle strewn with yellow rose petals at the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. The groom, attendants and groomsmen waited before an altar banked with large-leaved monstera philodendron and fronds filled with white dolphins, calla lilies and majestic dahlias. Many lighted white candles had been placed in candelabra at the altar and around the communion-railing.

The bride's dress was white, length, the bodice and pointed peplum was fashioned of French imported cutwork and embroidered organza over a bouffant sheer organza skirt. Her illusion veil was shoulder length and attached to a small cap which matched her dress. Miss Guy's only jewelry was a strand of pearls, which were a gift of the groom. Her corsage consisted of daisies, centered with yellow roses.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Talbot Bernard of Fort Campbell, Kentucky, Jane Dalton and Susie Armstrong, sister of the groom. They were gowned alike in waist-length pale gaudy dresses which were embroidered in white with small shoulder stoles attached to the front neckline. Their corsages were daisies with tropical foliage.

Mr. Armstrong chose Michael Galvin for his best man at the

Mrs. H. J. Taubert of Benton Harbor and Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacNeill and children of Lansing were house guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Barnum, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Shancous, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ely of Ohio Street and Mr. and Mrs. Clint Shancous of Fielding Street.
