FUNERAL HOME

Dear Friends,
A lady told us recently that she had never fully realized the meaning of flowers at a funeral until she had experienced the loss of a loved one. The floral cards, she said, are still her treasured possession - a remembrance of those who expressed sympathy in this beautiful way. Floral expressions add beauty and comfort that cannot be measured.

Respectfully,
E. Hatter Sundquist

FARMINGTON
Capt. Margaret E. Schreiber, USAF, is expected to visit her father, Paul R. Schreiber of Oakland Avenue, this week. The captain was recently awarded an Air Force citation and the medal for military merit for service in Southeast Asia.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Schreiber and daughters Jana, Erica, Sandra, and Dawna of Monroeville, Penn., were weekend guests of Richard's father, Paul R. Schreiber of Oakland Avenue.

Robert Cook of Wesley Avenue, a lifelong resident of Farmington and treasurer of the Farmington Historical Society, spoke at the society's regular meeting at the Community Center last Wednesday.

He gave an illuminating presentation of the origins of some of the first families of Farmington.

He mentioned many families but concentrated on the ancestors of the Warrick and Wixom families and their connections, some of whom emigrated to America as early as the 17th century.

During his discussion, he pinpointed the first land acquisition in this area of members of these families who came here in the earlier middle years of the 18th century.

What was unusual was his discussion of how given names came about as a result of intermarriage with families of different national origins.

Cook is an authority on the genealogy of persons who were early settlers and developers of Farmington. He helps us all to understand Farmington better.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Hanlan of Huntington, N.Y., are currently visiting Mrs. O'Hanlan's mother, Mrs. Alice Zakian, and her uncle, Sarkis Mekjian of Wilmarth Street. They flew in on Thursday afternoon from Kennedy Airport to Metropolitan to spend a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heien of Wilmarth Street are happy to announce the birth of a son, Jason Christopher, April 18, at St. John Hospital, Detroit. Weight was eight lbs. 11 ounces.

To welcome baby brother Andrew, maternal grand-mother is Mrs. Helen Ferrill of Redford. Baby Jason was born the day before his brother's fifth birthday.

The baby came home as an Easter gift on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George McComb of Albion celebrated 11 of their children and families on Easter Sunday with a lovely dinner of turkey and all the trimmings. Mrs. Gila McDonald gave the Easter prayer.

Guests were from Port Huron, Pontiac, Redford, Detroit and the Farmington area. A sister of Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Marion Stumbaugh, and yours truly were also guests.

The music was beautifully played by Mrs. McDonald and two friends. Mrs. McDonald and her sister also sang some lovely old numbers as well as some modern ones with guitar accompaniment. It was a very happy gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Duell of Orchard Lake Road entertained their son, Donald, and his wife, Marion, of Detroit, on Easter Sunday. Another guest was their grandson, Donald Jr., from Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pagel of Grand River Avenue had a full house this past week end. The first of the week, Mrs. Pagel's sister and her husband, the Fred Bilets, arrived from Hamilton, Mich. to spend a week.

Then their daughter, Mrs. William (Joan) Long of Mio arrived for a long week end followed by their youngest daughter, Mrs. Linda Pagel DeGroot of Fenton. It was a birthday celebration for Linda on Saturday with her Terrance R. Bacon, 22918 Maple, Farmington, was recently awarded the Maurice Weigle scholarship award for 1972, for his outstanding achievement as a first year law student. He also won two other awards, the American law book award and one of the West Publishing Co. awards. Bacon is a law student at the University of Michigan.

Dragon's Tale Is Child's Play
The Farmington Players will stage two performances of "The Polka-Dotted Dragon's Tale," a fantasy for young people, Saturday, May 12, at Harrison High School to benefit the Farmington Community Center.

The performances, lasting about an hour each, will be at 1 and 3 p.m. Tickets are $1 and may be purchased by calling the community center.

The play is directed by Hope Nahstoll, veteran of 35 years of acting and directing in various community theaters.

The role of Drizelda Dragon will be taken by Susan Frontczak, who has appeared in two Player productions as well as several Harrison High plays. She is a recent first prize winner in the regional forensics contest.

The bumbling, stuttering, forgetful King is played by Stuart Orman, veteran of many leading roles for the Players.

The Royal Chamberlain, who has to keep reminding the king of his duties, is played by Ceci Orman also well known for Players roles and who teaches children's theater classes and conducts Story Time for Tots at the Community Center.

Princess Penny is played by Jani Brunner who has been in two Player productions and several at Groves High in Birmingham. Wizard William is John Power, a veteran of Wilco-Way theater who played Peter Latham in the Players' production of "Forty Carats" last fall.

Henry Hedgecove is Ron Merkin, also a Wilco-Way veteran who is currently making his way in professional theater in Detroit.

family and children, Kimmie and Rick, enjoying the festivities. Joan left for Mio early Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trombley of Shawasssee returned home recently from a wonderful vacation in Bay St. Louis, Miss., where they spent five days with a cousin. They visited the New Orleans' French Quarter and the French Market.

Then they drove to Florida where they spent some time with Henry's brother, Clyde, in Sarasota. Then on up the state to Kissimmee, Fla., to visit a brother of Beulah's, William Fisher, and his family. Beulah's sister and family, the Blakewells, came from San Diego so the brother and sisters had a wonderful reunion. They enjoyed Disney World and did a lot of sightseeing.

Going on up through the states, the Trombleys visited former Farmingtonite Inez Buck and her family in Smyrna, Ga., near Atlanta. Mrs. Buck was a former secretary to the Farmington city manager.

Beulah's happy birthday wishes go to a very lovely lady, Mrs. (Louise) Guy of Shawasssee. The Guys really are a lot of traveling and giving every bit of it.

A DEALERSHIP OPPORTUNITY BIG AS ALL OUTDOORS

America is discovering that yard care can be fun again... a well-earned relief from today's pressures to live. And Case outdoor power equipment is the key to this new world of outdoor fun. As a Case outdoor power equipment dealer, you sell and service proved products, with the same kind of precision engineering, performance, durability and service that mark the big Case farm construction machines. You sell with confidence, backed by the $400,000,000-plus Case Company, a division of Tenneco. Power ranges from 8 to 16 hp to appeal to a wide range of prospects, both home owners and commercial users. A full line of compact tractors with attachments, riding lawnmowers and walk-behind mowers, tillers and snowblowers.

What does it take to be a Case outdoor power equipment dealer?

Interested? Now is the ideal season to investigate the Case franchise. Call or write Jack Zeigler, J.I. Case Company, Wilmot, Wisconsin 54986. My toll-free phone number is 800-553-0270.
