

Farmington Market Announces Operation Change

The newest change to the Farmington business section is that of the "Wally Zehnder Meat Market," which will be known in the future as "Farmington Meats".

The reason for the change, according to Zehnder, is to enable the Farmington market to operate at a lower margin and to offer lower prices.

The grand opening has been planned for August 20 - 22. The Zehnder boys point out that the same quality meats and groceries as offered before will be sold at the market.

LIVONIA CITY HALL TO BE DEDICATED SEPTEMBER 13

Final plans are being set for the dedication of the new Livonia City Hall on Sunday, September 13, at 2:00 p.m.

W. W. Edgar, vice-president of the City Council of Livonia and chairman of the dedication committee, has announced that the Honorable Homer Ferguson will be principal dedication speaker.

Other state, county and national dignitaries will be present for the occasion.

Edgar is being assisted on the committee by fellow-council members Nettie Carey and John Whitehead.

All citizens of Livonia have been invited to attend the ceremony, which will be held in front of the City Hall.
