Career Opportunities
For Several Residents of This Area
One of Michigan's oldest and largest Stock Casualty Insurance Companies is embarking on a distinctly new and different Automobile Insurance Program. We expect to aggressively develop this program and in the next few days we will be selecting a number of qualified full time and part time men to get in at the start and represent us in this area.
To give our policyholders and the public the benefit of expert and friendly service, we select local residents of unusual calibre and give them training of professional status.
If you are interested in this exceptional opportunity for an excellent income, secure future and further opportunities for management positions in our expansion program, write or call for a personal interview.
