

Expect Arrival of New Equipment for Clarenceville Library Today

Miss Mary Anne Richardson stated that equipment for Clarenceville's new library should arrive by Thursday, October 15.

The library serves twenty-four students at the present time. In the future it will accommodate 15 students. They will be able to seat almost four times as many students this year as they could take care of in last year's library.

This year something new will be added to our library. Book companies will bring in books to sell to our students. The donated books will be used by new books for the library.

Librarians were busy during the first week binding old magazines together for future references. There are sixteen student assistants and one student reserve to help Miss Richardson.

There will be a student book contest this year. A record will be kept of how many books each student reads. When the contest is over, the student that wins will receive a prize.

Again this year students are reminded to return their books on the due date. If they do not return them when they are due, they will be issued an overdue notice. If a second one has to be issued, the privilege of obtaining books will be revoked for a period of six weeks.

Debaters Begin Practice For December 9 Meet

Tuesday, October 6, Clarenceville will have the second debate meeting of the year. Those attending were split into two teams, the affirmative and the negative. The affirmative team consists of Ellen Greve, Lynn Seaton and Roger Rapelle. The negative team consists of Sharon Moreland, Joyce Timberlake, Barbara Schmidt and George Zedon.

The first league debate will be held December 9, according to Miss Mary Anne Richardson, debate coach.

Editorial

Joe is a champion! He never won a medal or a gold cup, but he's a champ. He's beaten 85% of the rats in the town and has a record of 13 speeding tickets, three excessive noise tickets and four other moving violations. And still he hasn't had his license revoked. Oh, he's on probation for two years, but what does that mean? It just chalks up another accomplishment to his about.

Of course, the fellows look up to him. They have to for fear of being run off the road if they don't. They try to compete with his rat, they put on Hollywood dual cars and all the required regalia to impress him, but no one beats him. Not Joe, he's the champ!

His parents? They live in a lovely ranch type on Main Street. They gave Joe his car and the money to fix it up the way he wanted. They said they wanted their boy to have what it takes to be popular and get along in the world these days. They let him go out and come in as he pleases. They evidently don't realize how dangerous it is for him to spend around corners where small children are playing, ignoring stop signs and other caution signs. They can't imagine how many lives he endangers each time he runs a red light or steps the speed up to 95 or 100 miles per hour.

Maybe someday his parents will realize, though, what a menace he is to the community; some day when someone is killed by his main car --- some day when it's too late.

Senior Hi-Lite

PAT KILLEN

The crowd is cheering and it's another touchdown, but I wonder who made it this time. Oh, I see him now, it's No. 60, who plays end on our team. He is about 5'11" from the ground and really knows them hard when he tackles. The game is over now and it's a win for Clarenceville. I think I will wait around to find out more about this senior boy.

There he comes out of the shower room.

"Hey, could I see you for a few minutes? It was a swell game you played tonight."

"Thanks, I think we have a lot of possibilities for a good place in the league we are in."

I asked him for his name and he told me he liked all of them. Basketball, baseball and track. Outside of school he enjoys howling and golfing.

When we were sitting there talking, I noticed he had blond wavy hair and blue eyes. He had on a blue sweater, and he told me later that blue was his favorite color. His favorite type of clothes are casual ones. I think he wears about size 11 shoe, by the looks of his feet.

Ge, this fellow isn't at all hard to get along with. The girls don't see very much of him during football season, though, as he thinks they don't fit in much around that time. Besides, he has two permanent appointments each week, going to night school to get those credits he missed in English. So, there is no need asking him what his worst subject is.

By the way, I have been talking to you for some time and I don't even know your name."

"Oh, my name is Patrick William Killen. 'Pat' for short. I don't have a nick name, but I don't think I should say what it is, so I won't."

"What is your favorite subject in school?"

"I like Personal and Family Living, myself. It is the most interesting class I have."

I found out that Mr. Janni is tops when it comes to favorite teachers, although Pat doesn't have him for a class. His most "enjoyable" class is study hall, and lunch hour. I can see his point!

I know a good question to ask him. Let's see how he reacts to this one:

"What is your opinion of girls in general?"

"I like 'em!"

"Where do you go on a date, Pat?"

"Oh, no place in particular."

"What do you plan to do when you graduate?"

"Get rich quick!"

"But how can you do that?"

"Gee, I never thought of that, but I could open a goodies ring."

"Well, I better let you be on your way, you are probably hungry from that game. What if you usually go after the games to eat?"

"Up to Ton-Pa's quite a lot. I like to order those pizza pies they have there. I like spaghetti, too."

After talking to him, he said that he uses most of his nickels playing records recorded by the Hill Toppers. He doesn't have any particular record he likes, but they will all do if they are popular.

He had a birthday last week, October 4, and he is all of 19 years old. His future ambition as of now is to get that diploma.

Dorothy Riddell Named Cheerleading Captain

A new cheerleading captain was elected last Monday, October 5, who is Dorothy Riddell. Dorothy is a senior this year and has been attending the Clarenceville Schools since the first grade. She also has been an active G. A. member for three years. Dorothy was taken into the cheerleading squad in her sophomore year.

She took charge of last Thursday's pep rally for the first time and called the cheers for Friday's game.

SENIOR CLASS 'WATCHES BIRDIE' FOR YEARBOOK

Last Thursday and Friday, October 8 and 9, pictures were taken for the yearbook of the senior class by Powell Studios of Detroit. Because of a large volume of sittings, students were given a lower price than the regular student rates. The prices were effective only during the school year.

Portraits are in many sizes, finishes and prices. Oil paintings are offered also. Sitting charge for all portraits to appear in the yearbook was $2.00, payable at time of sitting. The payment was allowed as a credit on the purchase of one dozen or more individual portraits.

The balance will be paid when the proofs are returned. Half of the class had pictures taken on Thursday, and the remaining half had them taken Friday.

Mr. Janni was born on January 12, 1925; he acquired his preliminary schooling at New Kensington High School in New Kensington, Pennsylvania, and completed his education at the University of Pittsburgh in 1949.

During his high school career, Mr. Janni earned four letters in football, one in basketball and two in baseball. This evidence of skill in all sports led to his selection to become a coach. However, immediately after the completion of his college career, he worked for the United States government for two years. Therefore, for Clarenceville is Mr. Janni's first school, as a teacher-coach.

He says he likes it very much here. (Flattery will get him everywhere). He also likes the color blue and red, which is his favorite color. He also has two other favorites, which are his wife, Geraldine, and a six months old son, Gregory.

Feature Teacher

If a task is once begun Never leave it 'til it's done' He the labor great or small, Do it well or not at all.

This seems to fit the personality of our feature teacher this week. Standing 5'11", he has brown eyes and black, wavy hair. He is 27 years old. Mr. Nick Janni is sure you've seen him awaiting it out on the football field or teaching one of his classes, such as American history or senior economics.

JUNIOR CLASS CONTACTS BANDS FOR '53 J-HOP

Tuesday, October 6, a junior home-room meeting was held in the Clarenceville High School cafeteria.

Richard Godette, president, opened the meeting. The problem of class dues was the first business discussed. It was decided by the class that for the first semester, the dues would be five dollars.

A report was then given by Nancy Moore, chairman of the committee to secure a band for the J-Hop. Two hands have been contacted and one will be selected this week. A theme for the dance was also discussed, but not decided upon. Next a series of committees were appointed to work on the J-Hop. Chairmen for the various committees are: Judy Wing, decorations; Evelyn Averbach, advertising; Judy Gardner, food; and Donna Norman, invitations.

He says he likes it very much here. (Flattery will get him everywhere). He also likes the color blue and red, which is his favorite color. He also has two other favorites, which are his wife, Geraldine, and a six months old son, Gregory.

Glen Kelly Elected Soph Council Delegate

The second sophomore class meeting of the year was held Tuesday, October 6, at 8:30 a.m. in the gym bleachers. Ralph Lohm presided over the meeting.

The first business discussed was the class motto. They have not yet decided on it, but a committee was appointed to find some suggestions.

The second business was the election of Student Council representatives. Glen Kelly was elected as a regular member and Donna Delfavero and John Lewis were elected alternates.

The sophomore sponsors are: Miss Norma Cooke, Miss Mary Ann Richardson and Arthur Mann.
