It has been proved in the past, and locally, the value of tape recordings. An example is the case of Mrs. Middlewood. If any members know anyone who could make use of them, quite a number are available.

With Thanksgiving and Christmas coming up, the boys would be cheered with a personal message from home as much as any gift they could receive. Persons wishing to take advantage of this project are invited to call Mary McNeil, president, and an appointment will be made.

The Auxiliary voted last week to purchase two flags. One will be presented to Girl Scout Troop 173 and the other is to be placed in the Judge's Chambers of the Municipal Court.

Congratulations to Jean Dodge on the birth of a baby boy.

Glad to hear Trena Quinn is up and around again. The Auxiliary hopes Mrs. Banfield and Maggie Catherman have a speedy recovery.

There will be an Armistice Day dinner on Saturday, November 14. The dinner will be followed by refreshments, entertainment and dancing.

A. R. Oldham of Farmington Road is holding his own at St. Carmel Hospital, where he underwent surgery two weeks ago.

Silver Tea At Brookwood Farms To Benefit Church Convent Fund

Mrs. Karl L. Swift is shown greeting Mrs. Jennie Smith Hart and Mrs. Vern Willard as the three met to go over final plans for the Silver Tea. The ladies of the Altar Society silver tea at Brookwood Farms on Sunday, October 25.

Dr. and Mrs. Karl L. Swift will open their home, Brookwood Farms, on Sunday, October 25, from two until six o'clock, for a Silver Tea to benefit the Convent Fund of Our Lady of Sorrows Altar Society. The ladies of the Altar Society have established the Convent Fund for the purpose of furnishing the Chapel in the beautiful new convent which has just been finished in Farmington. The tea was planned to take advantage of this particular time of the year, Indian Summer, and guests will be given the pleasure of a colorful drive in the country, some light refreshments in the hospitable setting of Mrs. Swift's gracious home, and the satisfaction of contributing to a worthy cause.

Porting that day will be Mrs. Vern Willard, president of the so-
