New Church Holds

In this community. That earlier church was active and fostered the Presbyterian Church at Northville. For some years a minister of these churches together, now the Northville Church is helping directly in establishing the new Presbyterian Church in Farmington. The teachers in the Church School for these first two Sundays are laymen from Northville. The Redford Avenue Presbyterian Church is also one of the direct sponsoring churches. The music for the first service of worship was provided by the Redford church.

Services of worship and Church School classes will continue each Sunday at 10:30 a.m. in the new high school building. Entrance is made through the door at the eastern end of the building.

Mrs. George Waite entertained Mrs. Grace Guhan, Miss Eva Farland and Mrs. Frank Tamm on luncheon on Wednesday.

NOVI NEWS

By MISS GEORGE WAITE
Phone Northville 950-39

The W. S. C. S. will hold its bazaar and luncheon on Wednesday, November 4, at the Community Building. Articles for the bazaar will be called for on Tuesday morning and the baked goods will be picked up on Wednesday morning. The bazaar is to begin at 11:00 a.m.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Waite were guests of Mrs. Harriett Kline of Ypsilanti, on Sunday for dinner at the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Tamm entertained his brother and wife from Sandusky over the week end, and other guests from Royal Oak and Detroit for dinner on Sunday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Carl Evans are staying at Royal Oak for an indefinite time at the home of her mother, helping to care for her sister, Mrs. Evans, who is seriously ill.

Mrs. Dayne Ward held a boy demonstration at her home last week.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Atkinson and the Glen Salows, Jr., spent the week end at their cabin at Levison. On the way home they stopped at Culman to visit the Oscar R. family.

Don't forget the bazaar to be held on by the Rehoboth at the I. O. O. F. Hall Saturday, October 21, at 10:00 a.m. Mrs. Mae Atkinson and Mrs. Rose Salows are in charge. If there is anything in particular persons would like to order, they may call Mrs. Irene Kahrl at Northville 1201-J2.

There will be a special meeting of the Rehoboth at the I. O. O. F. Hall for initiation on Saturday evening, October 29, at 8:00 p.m. by order of the Degree Captain, Mrs. Doris Darling.

City Takes Steps

and Fred Mass, John Clappison and Ralph Banfield.

Clappison stated to the Council that Schulte has been cooperative in completing the arrangements. Under the agreement, which was outlined at the meeting, Mass is to purchase the lot which joins his property and Clappison and Banfield are to take care of moving the house outside of the city and put it in condition for sale. Schulte voiced his approval of the plan at the meeting.

The Council agreed to cooperate by refunding the moving permit fee paid by Schulte and waiving the fee which would normally be required by Clappison and Banfield.

Obituaries

Mrs. Ellen S. Coddington
Mrs. Ellen S. Coddington, formerly of Crosswell, Michigan, died Monday afternoon, October 26, at the Great Lakes Hotel Home following a short illness.

Mrs. Coddington was born September 22, 1863, in Huron County, Michigan, the daughter of Elias and Elizabeth Thomas Spencer. She attended school in Huron County and on September 4, 1883, was united in marriage to William G. Coddington. She had lived in Farmington Township for the past seven years, coming here from Crosswell.

Mrs. Coddington will rest at the Thayer Funeral Home until Thursday, when funeral services will take place at 2:00 p.m. from the Latter Day Saints Church in Crosswell. Burial will take place in the Crosswell Cemetery.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Ethel Campbell of Farmington, Mrs. Sada Gratch of Flint, and Mrs. Myrtle Morris of Crosswell. She also leaves eight grandchildren, twenty-three great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Annie Laurie Michaloff
Mrs. Annie Laurie Michaloff of 34529 Arundel died October 20, 1953, in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, following an illness of several months.

She was born August 20, 1906, on Prince Edward Island, Canada, the daughter of Thomas and Annie Laurie (McDonald) Clarkin. She was united in marriage to Alexander Michaloff on June 11, 1927, and had resided in Farmington for the past four years.

Besides her husband, Alexander, she leaves two sons, Alexander, Jr., and Paul Thomas; one sister, Mrs. Isabella Monnette of Alpena, Michigan; and two brothers, Leo Patrick Clarkin of Ottawa, Canada, and John Edward Clarkin of Warren, Ohio.

Funeral services were held from the Spencer J. Heene, Funeral Home at 2:00 p.m. Friday with Rev. Carl Schultz of the Evangelical and Reformed Church officiating.

Interment was in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens, Walled Lake, Michigan.

The residents asked, in view of the benefits to be derived by the city, if the Council would assist in deferring the costs of moving the house. Pare stated that the city could not legally take such action. However, individual members of the Council, as well as Rev. Carl Schultz of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, offered financial assistance.

According to city officials, the moving of the house was legal under the present zoning ordinance.

Noted Pianist Moves To Area

One of the most recent celebrities to move to the Farmington area is Mark Wessel, American pianist and composer.

Mr. Wessel is well known in music circles, having at one time been the recipient of both the Guggenheim and Pulitzer awards for composition.

He has appeared as soloist in his own works with the Vienna and Budapest Philharmonic orchestras and with the Chicago, Rochester and N.B.C. Symphonies.

Mr. Wessel formerly served as professor of piano and theory at Northwestern University and has been guest teacher of composition at Eastman. He is widely known as a successful concert and teacher of young artists.

Mr. Wessel is well known in the West as part of the team of Wessel and Starr, which has appeared in concert to coast concerts.

ROLLING DOWN THE RIVER

By Bob Kettler

One of our favorite ladies, the actress, Studebaker, dropped in the garage the other day for a bit of lubrication and check-up on that fine old hunk of hers. Her color was much like the autumn leaves and we were about to compliment her on her appearance when she said, "Am I blushing. We're having a new walk poured today and the crew with all their fancy machines and two little boys had to be up and about much earlier."

"That's just it lady," the man answered, "if we wait until those little boys are up and about in a school room, this cement we're going to pour for you has a fifty-fifty chance of getting hard without a lot of immortality verse being engraved on its otherwise smooth surface."

Well it just goes to show you can't jump to conclusions and so when we tell you the finest car in America is the new Studebaker, we hope you won't jump to a conclusion we just say it because we happen to sell the car, but course it helps to be proud of the product you sell and who wouldn't be proud of this compact bundle of power, beauty, dependability and economy that makes up the Studebaker. Prove it to yourself to day with a demonstration. You will be over so glad you did.
