

Plan Journalism Day At Wayne U.

A Pulitzer prize winner and a panel of newspaper editors will be featured speakers at Wayne University's fifth annual Journalism Day, Monday, November 23. The event is sponsored by the University's journalism department.

At an afternoon convention for journalism students, Carl M. Saunders, editor of the Jackson Citizen Patriot, will speak on careers in journalism. Saunders is one of Michigan's foremost editors. In 1950 he was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for Editorial Writing. He has been editor of The Patriot since 1934. He began his newspaper career as a reporter on the Grand Rapids News and was with the Grand Rapids Herald for 17 years, serving as editor from 1932-33.

At 10:00 a.m., a panel discussion on "The People's Right to Know" will be moderated by Brewster P. Campbell, executive editor of the Detroit Free Press. He will be joined by editors from the Detroit News and the Detroit Times. Campbell is chairman of the Committee on Freedom of Information of the Michigan Press Association and is a member of a similar national committee for Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity. He is president of the Detroit Professional Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi.

Both the convention and panel discussion will be held in the new

State Increases Sale Of Duck Stamps In '52

Michigan moved up from fifth to fourth place in national sale of duck stamps last year, the conservation department notes.

The Secretary of the Interior announced recently that 136,395 of the stamps were sold in Michigan last year, an increase of more than 18 per cent over the state sale of 1951.

California, Minnesota and Texas all sold more than Michigan, but Illinois has year dropped below Michigan after placing fourth in 1951.

The total national sale was close to 2.3 million stamps, an all-time record since the first stamp was sold in 1934.

The money is used to finance the federal waterfowl refuge and law enforcement programs.

Detroit's final home appearance of the season last Saturday night was the occasion of a reunion of the 1928 undefeated Titan team. Old timers came from all over the country for the festivities.

At noon, a luncheon will be held in the University Room of the Student Center with the day's speakers as honored guests. Other guests will be the University's Journalism Advisory Committee, other Detroit area newsmen, and representatives of the faculty and student body.

WOOD SCULPTURE TO BE SHOWN BY LOCAL ARTIST

The work of a Farmington artist will be included in the 44th annual Michigan Artists Exhibition, which will open with a public reception at the Detroit Institute of Arts Tuesday, November 17, at 3:00 p.m., and continuing through December 29.

Mr. Sam Cushman of 21325 Reseller in Farmington will have a wood sculpture, "Dancers", on display.

The exhibition includes a total of 237 works by 240 artists selected from approximately 2,000 entries. Of the artists whose works are included, 180 are from Detroit and suburbs and 60 from outlying points.

Photographs, included for the first time this year, number 25, making the graphic arts section, which also includes 29 lithographs, other prints and drawings, larger than ever before.

There are 147 oil paintings in the show; 45 water colors and 41 pieces of sculpture. Last year's exhibition contained 563 works, of which 60 were sculptures, chosen from about 1,600 entries.

The jury which selected the '54 exhibition was composed of Edgar C. Schenck, director of the Albright Art Gallery in Buffalo and Isabel Bishop, well-known artist and former Detroit resident.

Twenty-five prizes, totaling approximately $3,000, will be given works in the show. Most coveted of these is the Founders Society Purchase Prize of $500, won last year by Walter Miderer for his wood sculpture, "Sisters".

A "Popular Prize" of $100, given by the Lewis Artist Society Company, will be awarded at the conclusion of the exhibition for the work receiving the largest number of votes from visitors.

State Police Officers Promoted, Transferred

Promotions and transfers affecting four State Police officers have been announced by Commissioner Joseph A. Childs as follows:

Lieutenant Leo E. Van Conant, commanding officer of the communications and operations bureau, East Lansing headquarters, advanced to the rank of captain, and assigned to command of the communications and operations bureau, succeeding Van Conant. Sergeant Carlos B. Hurley of the operations office promoted to lieutenant and named commanding officer of operations.

Detective Sergeant Joseph G. Pearce, of the first district, East Lansing, promoted to lieutenant and named assistant district commander, succeeding Lieutenant Bradman Stahl, retired.

All changes were effective November 1.

Dear Editor:

I am writing a letter to the Farmington Township property owners in regards to the old houses being moved in the township. I wish you could get a picture of the house moved on Orchard Lake road south of the Grand River cut-off and put it in your paper - it is a duplicate of the one moved on Pickett Avenue. I think the time is ripe now for the township people to hand together and stop this by having an ordinance drafted prohibiting the moving of old buildings into the township. We have nice homes - who wants one of these old homes next to him?

As I looked at the front page of The Enterprise of November 5, I couldn't help wondering who in the township was going to have this house, that the City of Farmington did not want, moved on a lot next to their home.

I think it is time we get in touch with our township officials and ask for an ordinance to prohibit the moving of old homes or buildings into our township.

Let's all call or write Thomas Tardy and the Supervisor and say we want this action to protect our property.

Signed:
A Property Owner for 33 Years.

World Fellowship Program At YWCA

Coffees with a "world flavor" are scheduled for Central Branch YWCA, 2230 Withersell Street, next week on the evenings of November 16 through 19. Taking an international theme as part of the YWCA's annual World Fellowship observance, the coffees will feature nationally decorated, treasures and foods.

Each evening's program, from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m., is open to the public as well as to YWCA members and persons enrolled in YWCA classes.

Greece will be the country featured Monday evening, November 16, with Greek music, movies and dances as part of the program and Greek pastry as the food with coffee.

Tuesday will see an "International night" when movies will be shown of the Great Northwest by Dr. Paul Halmhuber and colored slides of Korea by Mrs. Harry Whang. They will be followed by a fencing demonstration and an exhibition of Swedish folk dancing.

Wednesday will be Pan-American night, with movies of Mexico and Spain. Teachers and students of the YWCA's Art Murray classes will give exhibitions of the tango and the rumba. Highlighting that evening's coffee will be an exhibit of handcrafted and foreign dolls presented by the Detroit Doll Collectors Club.

The Orient will be featured at the Thursday evening coffee, with Mrs. Dertha Chun and Dr. Young Oak Kim showing pictures of treasures in Korea. A square dance exhibition, a dance by the International Institute Dancers, and English country dances performed by girls from the Windsor, Canada, YWCA, are also included in the program.

A Folk Ball, from 8:30 to 11:00 p.m., will climax the Thursday coffee. Miss Gussie Harris of Michigan State Normal College will direct the grand march and mixers. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kluge will give instructions in German folk dances, and Mel Davey will be the caller for square dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunsmuir of Farmington Road were visiting in Northville and Plymouth Friday.

LOOMIS PROCLAIMS NOVEMBER 11 - 26 'LEGION WEEKS'

Members of the Farmington Groves - Walker American Legion Post 346 and the Auxiliary will take part in a nationwide observance of "American Legion Weeks" from November 11 to November 26.

The observance was officially approved on October 13 of this year by President Eisenhower, who said that the unselfish work of the Legion has repeatedly proven itself an important asset to our Nation.

In keeping with his official duties as head of the City of Farmington, Mayor Kenneth R. Loomis has proclaimed:

PROCLAMATION
"The American Legion is known throughout the nation for its service to God and Country, since this great organization was conceived in Paris, France, March 15, 1919. While the American Legion can well claim the title of champion of veterans, it is also well established as a leader in service to the community, state and nation.

The American Legion nationally has assumed great responsibility in the fields of national defense, Americanism, rehabilitation and child welfare. We take pride in its local accomplishments as evidenced by the programs of the Groves - Walker Post No. 346 in our own City of Farmington.

Believing that the best interests of our beloved country will be served if all eligible veterans of World War I, World War II and the Korean War affiliate with The American Legion, in order to promote a more positive Americanism and to help fight Communism, we hereby declare November 11 to November 26 "American Legion Weeks".

We ask all individual citizens, local civic and service groups to help observe these days in honor and appreciation of these veterans of three wars who are our fellow citizens.

Kenneth R. Loomis, Mayor City of Farmington.
