

Stella Zarzycki
Weds T. Reynolds

Miss Stella Zarzycki repeated her marriage vows with Mr. T. Calvert Reynolds before the Rev. E. E. Rosow at the St. Paul Lutheran Church of Northville on Saturday, October 31.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zarzycki of 27684 Hatched Road in Farmington and Mr. Reynolds is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Reynolds of Caro, Michigan.

For her wedding Miss Zarzycki chose a waist-length gown of lace over layers of net and tulle. Her strapless costume was worn with a fitted bolero jacket of matching lace and she wore gloves of white lace. The bridal veil was of fingertip-length and a satin crown etched with seed pearls held it in place. The bride's bouquet was composed of white roses bordered with white mums.

Mrs. Howard Miller, Jr., a sister of the bride, wore a waist-length strapless salmon colored gown with a satin jacket and carried yellow mums as she performed the duties of matron of honor. Mr. Daniel Reynolds served as best man for his brother.

Mrs. Zarzycki wore a black and white print dress with pink accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Reynolds chose a dress of brown and pink with pink accessories. Both ladies wore corsages of pink mums.

Traditional music, including "Because," "At Dawning," and "Oh Promise Me" were played at the 7:00 p.m. ceremony by Mr. L. Meisner.

Guests were ushered into the church by Mr. Ross Reynolds and Mr. Vlado Regentik.

A wedding supper was held at the Veterans' Memorial Hall in Northville following the church service.

Following a wedding trip in the South, the couple will reside at 28620 AlyceKay in Farmington. The bride is a 1950 graduate of Farmington High School and Mr.

Waack - Maykovich Repeat Vows
In Candlelight Service October 24

MR. and MRS. FRANK JOSEPH MAYKOVICH

A picturesque candlelight double-ring ceremony at the Grace Lutheran Church was the setting on October 24 when Miss Maureen Ellen Waack repeated her marriage vows with Frank Joseph Maykovich, Jr. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Waack of 29213 Scotten Avenue in Farmington and Mr. Maykovich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maykovich of 19320 Lathara.

The Rev. Victor Halboeth read the 7:30 p.m. service and traditional music was provided by Miss Lorene Scherbarth at the organ.

Dr. Samuel J. Fries, an uncle of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer," "I Love Thee," and "Dearest."

The bride's gown was fashioned of chantilly lace over a white satin underskirt of floor length. Featuring a Queen Ann style collar, Miss Waack's costume had been designed with a fitted bodice. A corset of tulle tightly held down her illusion veil and the bride carried a cascade bouquet of white daisy mums, which surrounded a white orchid.

Miss Marilyn Winters, a friend of the bride, wore gold nylon tulle over taffeta as she preceded the bride up the aisle in her service as maid of honor. Miss Winters carried yellow Fuji mums.

Barbara Whyntch and Barbara Maykovich also wore gold nylon and blue over taffeta as they performed the duties of bridesmaids. Both young ladies carried bronze Fuji mums and wore headpieces and shawls in the same color as their gowns.

Thomas Maykovich served as best man for his brother and Gordon Mills and Roy Ross acted as groomsmen.

Bill and Russell Waack, brother and cousin respectively of the bride, performed the duties of junior ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Waack chose a dress of powder blue lace over satin with matching headpiece and white accessories. Mrs. Maykovich wore a dusty blue dress with navy blue accessories. Both ladies wore orchids.
