

Greeney-Sundquist FUNERAL HOME

Dear friends,

We often hear this question: "Doesn't a funeral director come across to grief?" The answer to that question is, no one cannot enter a grief-stricken home without a real sense of sympathy, no matter what the circumstances may be. We believe, though, that the funeral director can best express his sympathy by going about his work quietly and calmly. Confusion only adds to the strain.

Respectfully,

Shatter Sundquist

Each principal and interest will be payable to each bank or trust company, designated to receive an account under the laws of the State of Michigan or the United States of America, as shall be designated by the municipal purchasing agent. A likewise qualified receiving agent may also be designated, which may be located outside of Michigan.

The bonds are to be issued under Act No. 175, Michigan Public Acts of 1922, as amended, for the purpose of financing part of the cost of improving streets in the Village. The principal and interest on the bonds shall be paid from the proceeds of revenues derived from state-aided projects to be returned to the Village for highway purposes pursuant to Act No. 34, Michigan Public Acts of 1923, as amended. The full faith and credit of the Village will also be pledged for the prompt payment of each principal and interest. The Village's taxing power shall be without limitation as to rate and amount.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds, the interest rate of each bid will be compared to determine, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from June 1, 1973 to their respective maturity and delivering thereon any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid is the above computation produces the lowest interest rate on the bonds. No proposal for the purchase of the bonds shall be accepted if a price less than their par value will be paid by the Village.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $10,000.00, drawn upon a bank or trust company or trust company, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the Village, must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder. To be forfeited in liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith check and such bid will be returned to the bidder. Both shall be endorsed upon the qualified opinion of Dickinson Wright, McLean & Culligan, attorneys at law, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds. The cost of said legal opinion and of the printing of the bonds of the Village, to be included in the bid. The full faith and credit of the Village will also be furnished by the usual documents, including a non-competition certificate, dated as of the date of sale and in the name of the Village, as directed at Detroit, Michigan, or at such other place as may be agreed upon between the Village and the purchaser. Said bonds will be delivered within forty-five days from the date of sale and said bonds are not to be delivered by twelve o'clock noon, Eastern Daylight Time, on the forty-fifth day from the date of sale. The successful bidder may withdraw his proposal by writing on the back of the bid a statement that he is withdrawing his bid and the bid shall be returned to him. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Motor Vehicle Highway Fund Bonds".

local news

By MARIE LONG GR 4-3114

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Allen, of Wilmarth, returned home recently from Easter in the Adirondacks. They spent five days in a cabin with friends. They drove to Mrs. Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Soper, of Geneva, N.Y., for the remainder of their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baessler and sons, Dan and Tim, enjoyed a week and a half vacation trip to Texas. They visited friends Mrs. Mary Brown and family in Dallas for a few days. They also visited "Six Flags Over Texas" amusement park.

They drove to Louisiana where they saw first hand how the Mississippi floods have damaged the crops and so much property. They also visited Natchez, Miss. and saw many of the wonderful southern plantations, and their historical mansions.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Scoll, of Drakeshire, are home after a couple of months vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thompson, of Novi, have returned from their honeymoon trip. They went on a cruise. The Thomsons met at the Farmington Community Center.

Frank Ohst, of Kendallwood, returned recently from St. Petersburg and Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. where he visited his brother for two months.

Area Student Will Perform

Michelle Robinson, of Farmington High School, has been named to the All-Michigan Honors Orchestra which will perform as part of this year's Michigan Week festivities.

Sponsored by the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Assn., the honors group will be conducted by the teachers of the year of that organization: Seymour Okun of Fraser High School and Charles Graham of Ann Arbor Pioneer High School.

Michigan Week begins with a youth arts festival featuring three concerts at the Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant.

The honors groups will perform at 3 p.m. Saturday, May 19. All events at the youth arts festival are open to the public free of charge and all will be held in Warren Auditorium on the CMU campus.

Clinton Beattie, of Delaware, N.Y. has returned to Farmington. He will be living with his daughter until the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gelonck, of Kendallwood, have returned from a delightful three weeks vacation in Acapulco. They stayed in the El Mirador Hotel. Mrs. Gelonck's brother, Eugene, spent three months in Acapulco with several of his friends. They are all now at home recovering from an active vacation.

Get well wishes to my dear friend, Mrs. Dorothy Phillips, of Bernstein, who was an emergency patient in Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.
