Turf Tips, Quips

By Doc Minard

Harness racing fans thought they had reached the peak a week ago when Woverine Raceway's Racing Secretary Bill Connors arranged the most attractive card of the year. It was so attractive that it resulted in the first million dollar handled of 1973 for a harness racing operation.

Bentley Jumps On Rock Errors

In what is fast becoming more of a habit then a casual occurrence, Plymouth High booted away another ball booted away another ball game.

Plymouth came up with five errors and Bentley High wound up with an 8-7 Suburban Eight victory.
The setback dropped Wayne Sparkman's Rocks below the .500 mark in the Eight with a 3-4 league record and to 4-11 overall. Bentley jumped to the same slot with Plymouth with a 3-4 mark.
The lead changed hands five times with Bentley scoring the tie-breaker in the top of the eight.
