

CLARENCEVILLE PTA
YULE PROGRAM
HELD DECEMBER 15

The cold weather and ice were no obstacles to the members of the Parent-Teacher Association on December 15 when they met at Clarenceville High School for their annual Christmas program.

Each person brought a can or jar of food to be added to the collection being made for the "less fortunate people in the district."

Children as well as adults enjoyed the choral singing of the Clarenceville Methodist All Girl Choir under the direction of William Areson. One of the choir members then led the audience in the singing of Christmas carols.

Next followed a film entitled "O Holy Night," which told the story of the birth of Jesus in such a way as to be interesting to children and adults alike.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria including Christmas cookies and ice cream for the children. The business meeting was postponed until January so that the meeting could adjourn early for the sake of the children.

Methodist Church Plans
Christmas Eve Service

The First Methodist Church of Farmington will feature a Christmas Eve Worship Service from 8:00 to 9:00 this year. The early hour has been selected so that the entire family may come and worship Christ after all of the shopping, decorating and other last minute preparations have been made.

The service will feature the Chancel Choir, Christmas carols and a brief message by the Minister.

The entire community is cordially invited to share in this service as Christ is put foremost in our thoughts at this Christmas time.

Mrs. E. W. Stange of Mayfield Avenue was confined to her home with a serious attack of illness the middle of last week.

Barbara Westcott - Charles Ghesquiere
Wed In Candlelight Service Dec. 18

MRS. CHARLES JAMES GHESEQUIERE, JR.

A beautiful candlelight service at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church on Friday, December 18, created the setting of the wedding ceremony in which Miss Barbara Marie Westcott became the bride of Mr. Charles James Ghesquiere, Jr. Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. William Westcott of 3733 Lincoln Drive in Birmingham and Mr. Ghesquiere is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles James Ghesquiere of 33481 Leisner Lane in Farmington. The 7:30 p.m. service was read by Rev. Paul Ketchum.

Miss Westcott's gown was of pale ivory satin with panels of chestnut lace in front and back, with the back panel of lace extending to the bottom of her chapel length train. The neckline of her gown was low cut and scalloped with a seed pearl outline.

The bride wore a Juliet cap of matching lace and folds of satin handed in seed pearls. Her cap held a fingertip illusion veil.

The bridal bouquet was composed of white gladiolus centered with a removable white orchid corsage.

Majors of honor Mrs. Bruce K. Bockstanz, a sister of the bride, wore a waist length gown of mauve silk shantung with tucked bodice and one contour shoulder strap. A reversible shrug jacket of deep wine velvet and mauve shantung and a velvet Juliet cap with mauve ostrich tips completed her costume.

Bridesmaids Alice Ann Reitz, Joy Chamberlain, Sara Jean Horvath and Mrs. Robert VanHalteren, a sister of the groom, wore costumes similar to that of the matron of honor.

Both the matron of honor and the bridesmaids carried bouquets of pale yellow carnations and variegated ivy in a cascade arrangement.

Mr. Theodore O. Nielson served as best man for the occasion and ushering duties were carried out by Robert W. Westcott, a brother of the bride, Gerald Strek, Robert VanHalteren and Gordon Anderson.

Miss Dianne Bockstanz wore a floor length gown of wine velvet with matching bonnet and mauve ostrich tips as she performed the duties of flower girl. She carried a miniature bouquet similar to those of the bridesmaids.

Mrs. Westcott chose a costume of turquoise lace and wore pink roses while Mrs. Ghesquiere selected dusty rose lace and wore yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Detroit Yacht Club.

For their honeymoon trip to "The Greenbrier" at White Sulphur Springs, the bride wore a dior blue wool costume suit with blue accessories and her white orchid corsage.

The couple will reside in East Lansing.

OPTIMISTS FETE
WIVES AT PARTY
ON DECEMBER 16

Wives of Clarenceville Optimist Club members were guests of honor at a Christmas dinner party at Huck's Redford Inn on Wednesday, December 16.

Edgar Guest, the well-known poet, was principal speaker and he amused members of the party with stories and poems. Other entertainment during the evening was furnished by George Rose and Wayne Herdell of the WWJ-TV "Time for Music" program.

One of the highlights of the evening was the distribution of gifts to the ladies by Santa Claus, played by Jack Tucker.

Farmington - Novi

Girl Scout News

Several weeks ago we asked through this column for supplies or Children's Hospital and Christmas. - along came Troop 159 under Mrs. Wikom. The girls made small vases, collected small pots, ribbons, and even dipped paint, so the children could make their own arrangements. Many thanks to Troop 159.

More Christmas news from the tween-hi girls of Troop 177. A party with the committee mothers in charge and gifts for all. The Scouts are filling a basket for a needy family this year. Incidentally, the girls have finished their swimming classes for this year.

Troop 177 Mariner group were the guests of Novi Senior Troop 1 for basketball with refreshments and singing afterwards. It was fun and the troops hope to get together again soon.

This year the girls in Troop 171 asked the committee mothers for a chop suey dinner at the Christmas party. So Mary Smith, Mary Layton, Mariel Cole, Lee Warner and Janet Mihay will be busy cooking for the twenty-five girls and we know it will be a noisy, successful evening.

African Violet Club
Holds Christmas Dinner

The Oaklandite African Violet Club No. One held its annual Christmas dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Amstutz on McNichols Road December 14. The evening was spent with the playing of games and exchange of gifts. Mr. Amstutz entertained the guests with Christmas music on the Hammond organ.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Gellies, Mr. and Mrs. George Huger, Mr. Homer Hane, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ormsby, Mrs. H. B. Hill, Mrs. Raymond Heister, Mr. and Mrs. Pinall, Mrs. R. J. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Frazer Wadenstam, and Mr. and Mrs. Lefty Behnke.

A very enjoyable time was had by all.

Baking Contest
Set For Jan. 23

Cherry pie is one of America's favorite desserts and girls in Oakland County will have a chance to demonstrate their baking skill at the annual Cherry Pie Contest. Girls 14 years of age and older, and unmarried, are invited to participate. Canned cherries for the contest will be furnished by the Michigan Producers and processors of red cherries. Other ingredients and all necessary utensils must be supplied by contestants.

The first place winner in the county will receive an all-expense trip to Grand Rapids to participate in the state contest February 11 and 12.

Second and third place winners will receive small electrical gifts.

The contest will be held at the Consumers Power Company auditorium at 28 W. Lawrence Street in Pontiac starting at 9:00 a.m. on January 23. For further information contact your 4-H Club Leader, homemaking teacher, or the county home demonstration leader at 1260 West Boulevard, Pontiac.

Mrs. Clinton Ault of Mayfield Avenue and Mrs. Ernest Tallman, also of Mayfield, were in attendance at a very gay Christmas party held at the Malcolm - Palmer Convalescent Home on Thirteen Mile Road Friday evening. Mrs. Ault and Mrs. Tallman are employees at the institution.

Construct Doll Clothing
For Easier Removal

When you're making doll clothes, it is a good idea to make them with raglan sleeves so that children can more easily dress and undress their dolls without your help.

Little fingers will have more success with big hooks and eyes and big buttons than with the dainty sizes you'll be tempted to use.
