Voc Center Has Openings For Summer

WALLED LAKE

There are some openings remaining in courses for summer students at the Southwest Oakland Vocational Education Center, Wall Lake, according to Irvin Boynton, coordinator of special needs at the school.

There is space for additional students in food service, electronics, welding, greenhouse and landscaping, data processing, retail plant sales, total office procedures, dental assistance, machine shop and diesel shop.

Students who are interested in summer courses should contact either their high school (counselor) or Boynton at the Vocational Center. All courses are for high school credit.

Summer school is from June 25 to Aug. 3 and will be held from 8:11 a.m. Monday through Friday at the Vocational Center, 3000 Beck Road, Commerce Township.

Boynton said that students who are presently sophomores and juniors will be accepted as long as there is room in class. Pupils from Clarencville, West Bloomfield, Milford, Novi and South Lyons high schools, Farmington, Harrison North Farmington, and Our Lady of Mercy high schools in Farmington; and Wall Lake Central and Western high schools are eligible to attend the Southwest Education Vocational Education Center.

WILLIAM LANPHAR, 26477 Old Homestead, Farmington has been elected board of trustees chairman for the Starr Commonwealth for Boys, Albion. He is also a board member of Northwood Institute.

GLENN A. CHAFFEE, director of the Metropolitan Guidance Center, Farmington, has been elected a member of the charter board for the International Association of Counseling Services. He has served as director of the center since its inception in 1967. A Michigan certified consulting psychologist and marriage counselor, he has a BS degree from the California Institute of Technology, an MA from Pasadena College, an MS from San Francisco State College, and a PhD from Michigan State University.

OCC No. 2 Source For UM-Dearborn

Oakland Community College is currently the second-largest source of transfer students for the University of Michigan - Dearborn.

UM-D admission figures for the fall 1971 and fall 1972 periods show UM-D's neighbor college, Henry Ford, the leading source with 396 students transferring to UM-D. Oakland had 108.

Schoolcraft Community College was third with 98, followed by Macomb County Community with 62, Wayne County Community with 45 and Highland Park Community with 31.

Little Red Schoolhouse Nursery

A PRIVATE SCHOOL WITH AN EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN THREE THROUGH FIVE YEARS OF AGE

Open House - May 23

12:30 to 2:30 and 6:30 to 8:30

We would like to invite you to bring your child to visit our school on Wednesday, May 23rd. Stop in to meet our staff and see our facilities any time during the above hours. We are located at 49875 West Eight Mile Road in an old red school. We are just 12 minutes from Livonia, Farmington and Plymouth.

Our curriculum is based on the Threshold Early Learning Program which consists of Perceptual and Organizing Skills, Mathematical Skills, and Scientific Inquiry, Language Skills and Social Concepts, Music and Movement, Dramatics and Art. Each child proceeds at his own rate of development.

Our school is very well equipped both indoors and in our large enclosed play area. We have five colorfully decorated rooms for art and cooking, large muscle-active, small muscle-quiet, playhouse and a library with 300 of the best children's books. We have a one way mirror through which you may observe your child without him knowing you are there.

We are now enrolling children ages 3 through 5 years for the 1973-74 school year.

SUMMER PROGRAM

We will have a nature, arts and crafts program during the month of July. The children will come from 9:00 until 12:30 either 2 or 3 days a week depending on their age. For information phone 349-5020 or 455-5554
