

3500 Original Oil Paintings

NOW! VISIT OUR NEW BIRMINGHAM GALLERY

Austin Galleries proudly announces the opening of our two new galleries at Birmingham and Eastland Shopping Center, together with our great Northland Center Gallery we feel we are now within a short drive of most of the Metropolitan area.

To celebrate this happy occasion we have acquired from America's East coast and West coast, from France, Germany, Italy, Holland, Spain, Belgium and every sector of the world's greatest sources of fine art, exciting, beautiful new paintings from the world's finest professional artists, each specially selected.

Lush, elegant landscapes -- alive, bustling street scenes -- graceful, delicate florals and still life -- penetrating figure and portrait studies -- the pounding surf and salt air of the rugged northern coasts -- the quiet tranquil Mediterranean. All that is beautifully captured forever in rich, glowing oils.

Come into Austin Galleries soon, we are a friendly, unpretentious gallery specializing exclusively in fine quality original oil paintings in the price range of from $19-$1295 with 80% of our paintings being priced under $250. Our selection is probably the broadest, most varied in the United States, with over 3500 different works by 450 artists in inventory.

Our goal at Austin Galleries is to bring into your home or office fine quality art at a price only our size and buying power can accomplish. If you desire we have a lay-away and 3 month pay plan. No interest or carrying charges. Your in-home satisfaction guaranteed by our 90 day full exchange.

A Blend of Talent

ST. BEDE PLAYERS, devoted to the operas of Gilbert and Sullivan, will present selections from their latest, "Yeoman of the Guard," on Sunday, May 20, 1 p.m. at Southfield's Festival '73. Here, the love interest, Jacqueline Turri and Don Scanlon, reach a tender moment in their turbulent romance.
