MRS. FRANK WEBB
TO SPEAK BEFORE
GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Frank Webb, president of the Birmingham branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, will speak on "There Will Always be a Spring" at the meeting of the Farmington Garden Club on Monday, March 1, at 1:00 p.m. in the Farmington Baptist Church Hall.

Mrs. Henry Otis is chairman of the hostess committee, which will serve coffee.

Mrs. Otis will be assisted by Mrs. Donald Burfee, Mrs. Austin Grant, Mrs. Richard Hugg, Mrs. Walter Humphries and Mrs. Harley Walters.

IT'S A GIRL!

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neff of Hillsdale announce the arrival of a baby girl, Leslie Kay, at Health Center Hospital in Hillsdale on February 17. She weighed five pounds nine ounces at birth.

The grandparents are Mrs. Mary Neff of Nine Mile Road and Mr. and Mrs. John Cox of Springbrook.

Otterbein College Glee Club To Sing At Hope Chapel In Livonia Mar. 1

A repertoire of sacred, classical, and popular songs will be rendered by the Otterbein College Men's Glee Club at 8:15 p.m. March 1 in Hope Chapel, Six Mile and Middlebelt roads.

The Livonia appearance of the Otterbein College, sponsored by the Detroit Alumni Association of Otterbein College, is one of a series of performances included in a tour according to Professor Lee Shackerson, director of the group. Home town of Otterbein is Westerville, Ohio.

Admission to the presentation is free to the public, although volunteer contributions will be accepted to defray tour expenses.

Entertainment will be provided by Hope Chapel members, Mrs. William Horie, Jr., and Mrs. William Horie, Sr., are directing preparations for a dinner in honor of the students.

The glee club is known for the excellence of its musical renditions. From the technical side, listeners can find enjoyment in the sparkling cascade of sounds, the variety of vocal quality, the delivery of phrase.

From the imaginative side, in mental visions produced — trees, mountains, rivers, struggling heroes and maidens — a voyage into the light, joyous, and fanciful, far from anything in everyday life that may be sordid.

From the spiritual side, in religious overtones suggesting the speech of angels, and the glad tidings of salvation. The wide variety of songs should please all music lovers.

Norfolk, Va., is the world's leading coal harbor.

Joan Sundra
Wed In South

Miss Joan Sundra became the bride of Mr. Sidney MacMurtrie at the home chapel at Petersburg, Virginia, on Monday, February 15.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sundra of Woodward Avenue in Farmington and Mr. MacMurtrie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert MacMurtrie of Merriman Court in Livonia.

The bride wore street clothes for the wedding, which was an informal affair.

A telephone operator in Farmington, Miss Sundra is a 1951 graduate of Farmington High School.

Mr. MacMurtrie attended Bentley High School before entering the service. A reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents in the spring, when Mr. MacMurtrie will be home on furlough.

A benefit card party and fashion show will be presented at the High School gymnasium Wednesday evening, March 21, by the Town Club. The latest in fashion will be shown by Mr. Barnette of the Bloomfield Fashion Shop.

Proceeds will be used to aid the F.A.R.C. and other service projects, according to Mrs. Charles Kirchele, president of the Town Club.

Mrs. George Sherlock is general chairman of the benefit, assisted by the following: Mrs. James Warner, (sewing); Mrs. Horace Stevens, publicity; Mrs. Edward Smith, paper goods; Mrs. Robert Smith, raffle; Miss Marjorie Morris and Mrs. J. David Dewar, prizes; Mrs. James Tark, tickets; Mrs. Carl Smith, kitchen; Mrs. Myron Doon, card tables; and Mrs. John Clappison, cards.

Farmington Debaters Active At MSC

These hints have paid off in the past, as they have won two awards. In 1952 they captured the "Bull-Throwing" trophy, given as Western Tournament, held at Northwestern University. They have also won the Wachtel Award, presented to the winner of four divisions by Purdue University.

In addition to these out-of-state trips, the various forensics groups travel to other Michigan schools for debate exchanges. A single year's debate bookings may include over 100 debates, both exchange and tournament.

Besides debating, interested students participate in extemporaneous speaking, oratory, oral reading and discussion groups.

FOUNDERS' DAY
P.T.A. MEETING
PERMED SUCCESS

Despite inclement weather a line crowd turned out to enjoy a good pot luck dinner at the High-Junior High P. T. A. Founders' day celebration held February 16 in the new high school cafeteria.

The program got under way with the Star Spangled Banner and the invocation by Rev. Carl Schultz.

Mr. Rau introduced Dale Willoughby, Jack Phelps, Dennis Canaan, Fred Hendrix, Wanda Mense and John Clark, who participated in the recent Regional Music Festival at Ypsilanti. They played numbers from the festival.

The group then had the opportunity to view the almost completed historical mural being done by Mr. Glenn's advanced art students.

Mrs. Leo Gildemeister read the creed of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers encompassing "the home, the school, the church combined; mother, father, teacher mine." She then explained the symbolic meaning of the P. T. A. emblem, the oak tree.

Community singing led by Mrs. Gildemeister brought a close to a very pleasant evening.
