Local Servicewoman Returns From Overseas

VAC Sergeant Barbara A. Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harrison of 33741 Eight Mile Road, recently returned to the United States after serving with the 5232 Army Unit in Tokyo. Sgt. Harrison, who arrived in the Far East in November of 1941, served as a clerk with the 5232 Army Unit in Tokyo. She was awarded the UN, Korean and National Defense Service Ribbons. Before entering service in April of 1943, she attended Mercy College and was a switchboard operator for the Bell Telephone Company in Farmington.

Ten Mile P. T. A. To Meet March 15

The next meeting of the Farmington Ten Mile Elementary P. T. A. will be held on March 15. The program will consist of a panel discussion on the school situation and the building issue that is coming up. The meeting has been postponed from March 8 so that two of the board members can sit in on the panel. The school board meets March 8.

FIFTY COUPLES ATTEND KIWANIS LADIES NIGHT

More than fifty Kiwanians and their wives met at the Salem Evangelical Church recently to hear Mr. J. Lynn Fewless give an inspiring lecture on George Washington's Heritage. Perfect attendance tabs were given to Mrs. Wayne Lloyd Smith, Mrs. Dan McGroot, George Noholst and Jack Whenton. Harry Farmer and James Warner appeared at the meeting in the interest of the Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce Mingle Show, which will be presented on March 20. Among other events of the evening, the Kiwanians pledged $25 to send a worthy boy from Farmington High School to Boys State at East Lansing next spring. The name of the recipient will be announced later.

Slesinski Plans Told This Week

The engagement of Miss Joanna Cecilia Slesinski was made known this week by her mother, Mrs. Bruno Slesinski, of 26766 Inkster Road in Southfield Township. Miss Slesinski plans to marry Mr. Frank McCarter of 20713 Seneca, Southfield Township. Plans for the wedding have not been completed. The bride-elect is a 1951 graduate of Clarendonville High School. Mr. McCarter is originally from Scrabble, Tennessee.

Nancy Mayhew, James Stanford Wed At St. Raphael's Church February 20

St. Raphael's Catholic Church in Garden City was the scene of the wedding Saturday, February 20, of Nancy Mayhew and James Alfred Stanford. The 10:00 a.m. ceremony was conducted by Father Sampson, pastor of the church. Nancy is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Mayhew of Meridian Road and was a member of the 1953 graduating class of Bentley High. Mr. Stanford's parents are residents of Garden City, and he is a member of the church. The couple has many friends in this area. The church altar was made lovely with baskets of white gladioli. Mr. Mayhew gave his daughter a gown of white satin with a long, flowing train, a V-neckline, Queen Anne collar and trimmed with chantilly lace and beads. The veil was fingertip in length of nylon net trimmed with double scalloped lace and held in place by a head-trimmed satin clip. Her bouquet was of white carnations combined with lily. Miss Geraldine Stanford, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore rose net over satin and carried pink carnations. Bridesmaids, friends of the bride, were Alice Hergert, Helen Bradburn, and Sharon Byrnes. Their bouquets were made up of yellow carnations. Junior bridesmaid was Nancy's younger sister, Janice. Tiny Barbara Varhol was flower girl and Master Rickey Nilford was ring bearer. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mayhew chose a gown of green lace over pink satin with a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Stanford wore blue lace over satin and flowers were pink carnations. During the service, Mrs. Charles W. Hall of West Seven Mile Road sang two solos. Gene Simajak was the groom's best man. Ushers were Richard Varhol, Charles Mayhew and Roger Stanford. Immediately following the rites wedding breakfast was served at the Snow White Dining Room on Grand River. Members of the bridal party, numbering 23 persons, were present. At the same time, open house was in order at both the Mayhew and Stanford residences for other friends and relatives. At the former there were forty callers. The wedding reception was held at 8:00 p.m. in the Ford Road Hall in Garden City. About 250 guests attended. Out-of-town guests for the festivities included relatives and friends from Flint and from Chatham, Ontario. William Varhol of the U. S. Navy, arrived from Norfolk, Virginia, in time to participate. The new Mr. and Mrs. Stanford indulged in no wedding trip, but went directly to their new home on Joy Road, near Middlebelt, in Livonia. Coal was referred to by Greek historians some 2,000 years ago.

"FIGURE CONTROL" TO BE DISCUSSED AT TOWN CLUB

The next Town Club meeting will be March 4 at 8:00 p.m. in the Farmington Universalist Church. The program will be "Figure Control" by Mrs. William H. Adler of the Fordist Company. Mrs. Adler will discuss basic figure types, modern design, and achievement in this present day figure control. Open discussion will follow.

AMVET AUXILIARY PLANS SUPPER FOR MARCH 19

The Auxiliary to Perry Kenner Amvet Post 76 of Novi held its regular meeting at the Post Home on Wednesday, February 17. Due to bad weather, it was impossible to have the Lapeer Children's Home films as scheduled. That program was postponed until March 16. Child Welfare Chairman, Orma Gregory reported collecting six boxes of articles for the home at Lapeer and reported attending Cub Scout anniversary banquet on Friday, February 12, to present an American flag to the troop, donated by the Auxiliary. The hospital report indicated a need for more white material and that the shoeboxes for hospitalized veterans had been turned in to the Grasse House hospital. Doris Callan, liaison officer, reported that the Amvets are planning a Pineapple Supper March 19. The group agreed on cancer pads during the meeting. Arline Kippay, Audrey Orsine and Pat Kosak served refreshments.

Shaneours Experience Texas Dust Storm

Mrs. Elaine Shaffer and Mr. and Mrs. Clint Shaneour were recent visitors at the Hoyt Shupour residence in Farmington. During their visit Mr. and Mrs. Clint Shaneour, enroute home after a three week vacation trip, reported that they had visited Copport and Mrs. Bradley Dilling at Mineral Wells, Texas. They had been with the Dillings just two hours when a terrific dust storm hit in full force. The Shaneours said that the day became as black as night and that they had difficulty breathing because of the dust. To have what we want is riches, but to be able to do without is power. He has riches sufficient, who hath enough to be charitable.

Mardi Gras King Issues Order

Mardi Gras King Gary Walters issues a royal order for Miss Mary Macdonell to start the music for the dance. Walters was crowned King at the dance last Saturday night by Carole James, president of the high school Language Club, which sponsored the affair. Some 40 couples attended the event, which was held in the cafeteria of the new high school.
