

Parents Honor Son Home From Navy

The W. R. Lindalls of Orchard Lake Road entertained friends and relatives on Sunday in honor of their son Bill, who is home on 15-day furlough from the Navy. Guests at the affair included Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hill of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McGuire of Huntington Woods, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sage and family of Detroit and Miss Janet Kadeau of Farmington.

Bill has just completed a six-months cruise of the Mediterranean on the U. S. S. Bennington. His enlistment in the Navy will be completed in August.

U-M Conference Plans Farm Accident Topic

Ways to prevent farm and home accidents and sanitation problems in "boom" towns will be among subjects discussed at the Third Health Conference of the University of Michigan's School of Public Health, scheduled for March 23 to 25.

Over 60 public health officials and specialists also will consider fluoridation of drinking water, tuberculosis and chronic disease, all problems common to the public health field.

By MISS L. A. AULT
TELEPHONE FARMINGTON 1461-M

The Robert Kelloggs of Farmington Avenue spent last week with relatives in Middle Creek and attended a birthday celebration honoring Mrs. Kellogg's grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ault and their daughter, Shirley, of Shady-side Avenue, 3815 East Main and relative near Port Wayne, Indiana, and were present at wedding festivities honoring a niece of Mrs. Ault's.

Mrs. Louis Jennings and her daughters, Marie Mae and Cindy of Norfolk Avenue, were visiting with Mrs. Jennings's mother, Mrs. Laurence Smith, in Lambertville, Michigan, last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Muir and their three children of Shady-side Avenue visited with friends in Adrian last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Judd and five of their children, from near Groesbeck, were visiting with Mrs. Judd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange, on Mayfield Avenue last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kirkwood of West Eight Mile Road announced a new granddaughter, on February 14, in Oakwood Hospital, Dearborn, an eight pound daughter, Debra Susan, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kirkwood, Jr. The young couple have lately been living in Detroit, but expect shortly to move to their new residence in Melody Manor, Livonia.

A three and one-half pound daughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. William Willsie of Mayfield Avenue February 26, died the following day. Mrs. Willsie came home from the hospital Monday evening and is now doing nicely.

It was bad weather and the roads were not too good, but at 9:00 a.m. last Monday trucks from the Goodwill Industries arrived to spend the day collecting much-needed household discards from Farmington and West Point Park area friends. The next pick-up is due Monday, April 5, and a sunshiny day is hoped for.

Mrs. Margaret Buckingham of 3014 E. Ave. young couple have lately been living in Detroit, but expect shortly to move to their new residence in Melody Manor, Livonia.

Hannah Elizabeth, five year old daughter of the Edwin Johnsons on Clairton, has been suffering with measles.

Freda Ault of Norfolk Avenue was visiting in downtown Detroit Thursday.

Clinton Ault and his nephew, Roger Graham, of Mayfield Avenue, were calling in Northville Tuesday evening.

Shirley Grundy, of Hubbard Avenue, spent Friday in Ann Arbor.

The next meeting of the Sunshine Sisters will be held on Wednesday, March 17, at 2:00 p.m. at the Neighborhood Church. As might be expected, this get-together will take the form of a St. Patrick's Day Party.

Because of the blizzard, our schools were dismissed at 11:30 a.m. last Wednesday. A large number of boys and girls decided for themselves that school attendance on Thursday as well would not be safe.

Mrs. V. C. Reddy of Farmington Road and Mrs. John Stoughton on Wooding Avenue attended a luncheon at the International Institute in Detroit last Thursday. On the way in they were joined by Mrs. Louviera Magner of Mark Twain Avenue. On this occasion the luncheon menu was Spanish in character.

Monday, March 1, a 9 1/2 pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs.

mit the government to reduce its own reactor research and development after private industrial activity is well established."

After all, it was America's industrial know-how which permitted us to lead the world to the development of atomic energy. In Port. Westinghouse, General Electric and other great industries have built and operated the government's atom installations. Sparked by the competitive spirit, and the promise of revolutionary new developments in manufacturing, private enterprise can now take the uranium atom and begin to give mankind the fullness of its constructive benefits.
