Senior Highlight

In a little white house in Waukegan, Wisconsin, on the day of October 15, 1936, with the winds howling outside the doors, a baby girl was born. She was christened Florine Janelle Hanke, but for some reason through the years, her first name was dropped and she was known as Janelle. Today her name has been shortened and she is known to all her friends as Jay.

FLORINE JANELLE HANKE

She has been taking a general course through her high school years. Her favorite subject this year is personal and family living. It is taught by her favorite teacher, Mrs. Mummary.

If you went into Don's Drive In on Grand River, any night through the week, you most likely would find her there with the rest of the gang consisting of Mary Ann and Ange, Marge and George and Joe. Incidentally, this is her favorite pastime.

The record on the juke box will most likely be "Don't Tell Him" by J. P. Morgan, or some other selection by Billy May.

"Another place that Jay can be found is roller skating with her best friends, Mary Ann Stemp and Marge Jenkins. Her favorite car is a blue Pontiac convertible driven by her favorite guy, Joe Gismond.

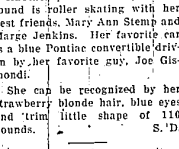

She can be recognized by her strawberry blonde hair, blue eyes and trim little shape of 110 pounds.

It seems that there are quite a few boys that are going into the field of engineering after graduation. On this list is our senior highlight for this week, who is Dennis Clyde Trader.

Dennis was born in Highland Park December 21, 1935.

A few of Dennis's hobbies are collecting records, stamps and coins. He came to Clarenceville in the spring of his junior year from Ridgewood Military Academy in California. Among his record collection is his favorite record "That's Amore" and his favorite vocalists Jo Stafford and Bing Crosby. Dennis's favorite pastime is loafing and while not loafing, the sport he likes best is swimming. A few more favorites are: actor, Stewart Granger; actress, Ava Gardner; orchestra, Sauter-Finnigan; and dish, crepe suzette.

Dennis is six feet tall, weighs 165 pounds and has blue and brown hair. As far as pet peeves go, Dennis doesn't like to stay at school 11th and sixth hours as he has study hall for both.

SENIOR CLASS PLANS VISIT TO NEW YORK CITY

All aboard! This call rings out to the seniors at Clarenceville High School. It is a gay group that joyfully prepares for the dinner in the diner. The scene changes with each passing mile as they travel through Toledo, Akron, Youngstown and Pittsburgh. Near Pittsburgh they will be thrilled by the fireworks display of the steel mills. Through the night, they'll ride through the Allegheny, Blue Ridge and Cumberland Mountains.

The second day, at dawn, their train is speeding alongside the Potomac River. They will arrive at Washington early that morning. Sightseeing buses with the seniors driver taking the seniors on a sightseeing tour, will allow the group to view the public buildings of Washington. After the tour they will return to the train for lunch, and then leave Washington.

On arrival at Jersey City, the seniors will stay in one of the hotels and eat in a near-by restaurant.

An optional program for the evening will be provided for the class of 1954. Some of the entertainment available will be visiting at radio or television show, visiting a leading night club, or others may prefer to see a Broadway show.

The third day the seniors will go for a cruise on a yacht.

Afterward, a guide will escort them through a radio and television studio. Later they will see the observation roof on the Rockefeller Center. After the tour there will be time for the class to go shopping.

"That evening after dinner the seniors will have another enjoyable evening at the Radio Music Hall.

On the Seniors' last day in New York, a sightseeing tour in a glass boat bus is planned. The tour will include Fifth Avenue, Central Park, Riverside Drive, Grant's Tomb, Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Greenwich Village, Chinatown, the Bowery, Wall Street, Battery Park, Fulton Fish Market, the Ghetto, Lower East Side, and finally they arrive at Grand Central Station to return home.

This will become a reality for the Class of 1954 late in May.

CITIZENS TURN TO CENSUS BUREAU FOR TRANSCRIPTS

More than 2,400 residents of Michigan turned to the U. S. Bureau of the Census for assistance in establishing proof of age or citizenship during 1953, according to Supervisor Ed T. St. Arnold of the Bureau's district office at 1008 Federal Building, Detroit.

Transcripts of personal census records are acceptable, in most instances, as substituting for birth certificates or other legal evidence in establishing proof of age or citizenship. Such proof is of vital importance in qualifying for Social Security benefits, in settling estates and insurance cases, in determining eligibility for employment in defense industries, and for other purposes where it is necessary to furnish evidence of identity, age or citizenship.

Transcripts of personal census records can be obtained from the Census Bureau upon payment of the cost of searching the records. Federal funds are not appropriated for this service and the fees charged are used to pay the salaries of the searchers and to cover the cost of the necessary office supplies.

A fee of $5.00 is charged for a transcript of two censuses for one individual, given routine handling. Expedited handling can be obtained for a $4.00 fee. Routine handling generally requires from four to six weeks to complete while expedited handling is usually completed in one or two weeks. Supervisor St. Arnold pointed out that personal information recorded by the Census Bureau is entirely confidential and may be furnished only upon written request of the individual to whom it relates or his legal representative.

Persons desiring transcripts of their personal census records may obtain application blanks and information from the Census Bureau's district office in Detroit or by writing to the Bureau of the Census, Washington 25, D. C.

Researchers Discover Cure For Pinkeye

Two Michigan State College veterinary researchers have found a cure for pinkeye in sheep, it's chloromycetin, report Drs. W. R. Rily and R. D. Barber. Pinkeye in sheep causes ulcers and blindness if left untreated. The chloromycetin ointment, bought on prescription from a veterinarian, costs about $1 for enough to treat 20 sheep. The researchers, who found the cure, still are looking for the cause of sheep pinkeye.

RESIDENT LEADS PANEL AT MENTAL HEALTH INSTITUTE.

Miss Dorothy Schroeder, 23700 Warner, assistant professor at the University of Michigan School of Social Work, was panel discussion leader of a workshop at the 17th annual conference of the Michigan Society for Mental Health on March 18th in Detroit. The workshop title was, "Selling Social Work," and guest speakers on the panel were: Jack Pickering, Detroit Times feature writer, Douglas Campbell of Livonia, special representative of WXYZ radio and TV station, and Abraham Brickner, psychiatric social work supervisor at Northville State Hospital.

The discussion emphasized ways of implementing a public relations program which would help to correct many popular misconceptions about what social workers do and their professional goals.

A second session, also planned by the Detroit Chapter of the American Association of Psychiatric Social Workers, was devoted to problems of licensing and registration of social workers in Michigan. The discussion leader was Miss Christie Platt of the Kalamazoo Child Guidance Clinic.
