Office Hours Changed For County Offices

Effective Monday, May 3, Oakland County offices in Pontiac will be closed on Saturday but will remain open on Friday nights until 8:00 o'clock.

Daily hours Monday through Thursday will remain the same with doors to be open from 8:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Formerly open from 8:30 a.m. until 12:00 noon Saturday, offices will not be open at all on this day.

The new schedule of hours will not apply to personnel in offices not rendering a direct service to the public. Personnel working Friday nights will be given time off during the week to compensate for the extra hours of work over regular hours in other departments.

A decision to change office hours was made by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors following a resolution offered by the Ways and Means Committee.

Carl Markham, Jr., Completes Sub Tour

Carl R. Markham, Jr., torpedoman's mate first class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Markham of Farmington, returned to the states aboard the submarine USS Catfish on Sunday, April 25. The Catfish just completed a six-month tour of duty with Far Eastern Naval Forces.

After a period of leave and keep she will resume training in the San Diego area.
