It's Our Opinion

A New Approach . . .

is now being made to the city's off-street parking problems as a result of the public hearing held last Tuesday afternoon.

The new approach concerns the acquiring of several lots north of Thomas Street for the possible establishment of a centralized parking area. It is our opinion that this plan has considerable merit, not only for the present but for the future as well. Such a lay-out would provide ample parking space and at the same time allow for further expansion of buildings along the north side of Grand River.

We agree also that at least a sizable portion of the parking area should be free and unmettered. This means that some type of assessment must be levied against the business property in order to finance the project. It also means that a different method of control will have to be set up to avoid abuse of the facilities. However, these problems can be ironed out through cooperative effort to the benefit of the entire community.

It is unfortunate that this plan was not introduced several months ago. The current parking problem has been with us for several years. A lot of time and effort went into the planning, surveying and drafting of the latest proposal, which was up for consideration at the public hearing. Now a new plan has been suggested. This is now, will require considerable time and effort if it is to become a reality.

Greater cooperation among all of the elements of the community as well as improved liaison between the government and the people is apparently needed.
This cooperation and liaison can best be established through organization, increased public interest, active participation and full utilization of the groups and agencies available.

Time is becoming an ever more important factor in the future of Farmington. If we are to keep up with the pendulum, if we are to meet the challenges of the hour . . . we must get all the gears in mesh. Upon today's plan . . . rests tomorrow's success!

The Long Hikes . . .

and short tempers are again a thing of the past in Farmington Township as far as the driver's license situation is concerned.

On Tuesday a new bureau was opened in the Clarenceville Fire Hall on Wheeler Street for the convenience of residents living in the unincorporated areas of southwestern Oakland County. Thus the long hikes to Pontiac and the deluge of angry protests seem to be over. The bureau is to be open each Tuesday afternoon and evening for the issuing of licenses and the providing of road tests.

Although the service is not as complete as it was under the city license bureau, it is a vast improvement over that of the past few months. As this area grows, additional days and hours may have to be added to the schedule. But for the present, the new bureau will provide services which are both badly needed and greatly appreciated by the residents of this area.

Improved license procedure on a state-wide basis is an important part of the over-all traffic safety campaign. We are confident that the recent changes in the licensing law will facilitate this program. At the same time we feel that the establishment of local driver's license bureaus, which are convenient to the public and which are carefully supervised, are essential to the promotion of traffic safety.

Senator McCarthy . . .

is more than a Republican problem . . . he's a national controversy, to say the least. His actions and activities are causing eruptions from coast to coast and beyond.

We are sympathetic with the basic job he is trying to do, namely dig out Communists. This can not be done by soft words and hesitating steps. But it appears that Senator McCarthy has forgotten the basic job, and has turned to the disgusting task of insulting and degrading his fellow Americans.

We respect any man's right to say what he thinks, provided it is constructive . . . and we admire any man who fights for what he thinks is right, provided he recognizes and honors the rights of others.

In the spring of 1940 a young church worker in suburban Cambridge, just outside Boston, was attracted to a new youth organization called "The Cambridge Youth Council." He carefully noticed the Council's list of members of prominent citizens, including nationally known educators at Harvard and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He also noted that the objectives outlined were in harmony with the youth work he had been doing in his church. So he joined the Council and became active.

The young church worker's name was Herbert Philbrick. Nine years later he was to be revealed as the most famous FBI contraspy in the history of our struggle for acquittal of the American people. Herbert Philbrick was an overnight guest in my home recently, on the occasion of his appearance at our Freedom Forum. It was an enjoyable and extremely informative experience for my family.
He is a humble, genuine American, a devoted husband and father, and an unquestioned authority on the terrible nature of international Communism.

In his forum address he showed himself to be one of the most effective voices in America today for acquittal of the American people with the true facts about the dangerous Communist penetration of our way of life and the Communist "canons of strategy" for influencing public opinion in the direction they want it to go.

When he joined the Cambridge Youth Council, Herbert Philbrick was a sincere but uninformed documenter, a member of the Government Council of his local church, and editor of the church newspaper. He worked as an adverising man in Boston. At first he accepted the Council at face value.
Within a few months, however, "I woke up," he said, "to discover much to my shock that the Cambridge Youth Council was not a legitimate youth organization. It was a complete phony, an absolute fraud, and furthermore, it was dominated and controlled by persons I suspected of being members of the Communist Party."

He went to the FBI and it confirmed his suspicions. The Cambridge Youth Council, said the FBI, was a "Communist Front," and it added that Philbrick had been a typical Red front dude. But in coming to the FBI he was breaking out of the "dupe" service.
The G-men suggested he might become an FBI contraspy and devote a big part of his life to a dangerous mission for his country. That's how Philbrick began to live three lives — (1) a respectable Boston advertising man, (2) a secret fellow-traveler and later a high-ranking Communist, and (3) a secret contraspy reporting every move of the Red underground to our government.

Herbert Philbrick is a modest self-effacing man. He told me that he had known what he was getting into in his three sided life, he would have "thought a long time before agreeing to undertake the mission. He had no idea at the time of the cunning, the brutality, the great hidden power of the Communist conspiracy. One factor in his becoming a Communist and a contraspy was his curiosity."

"I wanted to find out," he said, "how these Communist characters were able to manipulate things in such a fashion as to victimize not only myself, but the 300 to 400 young Cambridge people we had as members of the Cambridge Youth Council. All the church organizations were represented in this organization; we held our meetings at the Y. M. C.

Looking Back Through The Enterprise Files

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO (May 16, 1929)
Cut-Off Survey
A staff of state engineers is now at work surveying a possible new route for part of the Grand River Cut-Off. The survey is being made from Farmington Road west to Grand River considerably further east than was originally planned. The survey came as the result of a recent offer by John Lathrup to dedicate a 204-foot right-of-way through for the highway.

Pick Airport Site
A site viewed favorably by the City Commission for a city airport is a farm of 100 acres located on Twelve Mile Road west of Farmington Road. The airport committee is now awaiting word from the Aircraft Corporation of America which is interested in locating a factory near Farmington at the site selected for the airport.

Sanitary Code
The City of Farmington's sanitary ordinance, which goes into effect on June 1, will be uniformly enforced in order to protect the health of all citizens, it was declared in a statement made Thursday morning by Dr. James Miller, City Health Officer.

TEN YEARS AGO (May 28, 1944)
Tenth Anniversary
Ten years ago, on May 18, 1934, the Farmington State Bank opened its doors for business, and tomorrow, Friday, will mark ten years of successful operation. Organized with $62,500, the bank has grown and prospered until today its resources total almost four million dollars. Over 600 accounts are now being handled by the bank.

Recreation Program
The Farmington High School will be operating a trial recreation program this summer, beginning June 12 and extending for a seven week period. At present, it is planned to have one man and one woman in charge of the program with three divisions to be set up.
Morning, afternoon and evening play projects will be undertaken.

FIVE YEARS AGO (May 10, 1949)
Transfer Fund
By an overwhelming majority the voters of the Clarenceville School District approved the transfer of surplus monies from the Debt Fund to the Building and Site Fund at a special election held Monday. Of the 205 votes cast, 157 were in favor of the transfer while 48 were against and one vote was spoiled. In a special meeting of the School Board the following night, Tuesday, contracts were let for both the sewage and drainage projects.
