Items of Interest to Feminine Farmington

Fifty years ago tuberculosis almost certainly meant death. Fifty years ago the National Tuberculosis Association was founded to fight this killer. Today TB can be cured, but the disease strikes 110,000 people every year.

Mrs. John Varhol of Shady Side Avenue is convalescing from a severe attack of flu.

Mrs. Hattie Howard, who is sick and confined to her bed, is feeling a little better.

In the six years preceding the Allies' invasion of Europe, America's luminous coal needs rose by 75%.

Ladywood Mothers' Club Elects New Officers

At the June meeting of the Ladywood Mothers' Club, the following officers were elected for one year: president, Mrs. Kelly; first vice-president, Mrs. Kenny; second vice-president, Mrs. Walsh; recording secretary, Mrs. Oakes; financial secretary, Mrs. Staffin; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Buckland; and treasurer, Mrs. Bondie.

The Pectican Sisters served a delicious lunch and planned an evening of entertainment for the mothers, dads and the graduating class.

BOLYARD-McNELLY MARRIED SATURDAY IN EVENING RITES

At 7:00 p.m. Saturday, June 19, Marie Bolyard, youngest daughter of the Leslie Bolyards of Hubbard Avenue, Livonia, became the bride of Seaman Third Class Harry McNelly, whose home is in Garden City. The ceremony was a candlelight service, performed in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Outer Drive and Lanier Roads, with Rev. Charles May, pastor of the church, officiating.

The bride was lovely in light blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink and white roses. Her one attendant, Mrs. Carolyn Turner Berry, was similarly attired.

Mr. William Bailey was the groom's best man.

Only members of the two families and a few close friends were present.

Almost immediately following the ceremony, the happy couple left by auto for a trip into northern Michigan. Upon their return they will go on to California, where they intend to reside.

Mrs. McNelly is a member of this year's Bentley High graduating class. Her husband recently returned from Korea and is now stationed in California.

To Wed Saturday

LYNETTE DORRIS

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dorris announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Lynette, to Donald W. Holloway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holloway.

The couple will be united in marriage on Saturday, June 26, in a twilight ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Farmington. Following their honeymoon, the Holloways will make their home in Cleveland, Ohio.

The regular June business meeting of the Blue Star Mothers was held at the Town Hall Thursday, June 17, at 1:00 p.m.

A complete report of the highlights of and election of the department of Michigan meeting held in Detroit recently was made by attending delegate Mary Fox. Mrs. Bessie Davis of Lansing was elected president for the coming year.

Reports by Mary Morris and Irene Krueger were read by the club secretary because neither of them was present at the meeting.

The cook book material has now been completed and will go to press shortly. Thanks are extended to the Farmington business people who made the project possible.

A July luncheon and card party will be held at the home of Mrs. Grace Auten of 33435 Shawwassee on Wednesday, July 14, at 1:00 p.m. All luncheons are open to the public, with everyone invited who wishes to attend.

The next regular business meeting will be held in the Town Hall Thursday, July 15, at 1:00 p.m., the day following the luncheon.

Daughters Of Isabella Plan June 29 Picnic

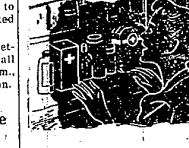

Our Lady of Sorrows Circle 617, Daughters of Isabella, will hold its second annual picnic at Kensington Park on Tuesday, June 29. Several cars will meet at the Farmington Town Hall at 10:30 a.m. and travel together to the picnic grounds where the post-lunch luncheon will be served. There will be swimming, and games for the children.

Members are requested to bring articles for a white elephant auction. Visitors and friends of the group are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tanner of Detroit were Sunday afternoon callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Graham on Mayfield Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Carter and their two children, of Detroit, were visiting the Leslie Bolyards on Hubbard Avenue last Sunday afternoon.

West Farmington MRS. SARAH KNAPP MA. 6-3833

Little Lindsay Holker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Starr Holker, will spend four days with her aunt, Lillian Holker, and her grandmother, Mrs. Charles Holker, while her mother is undergoing surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Starr Holker entertained the telephone girls at a potluck picnic Saturday night. About 200 people attended the wedding of Lethone Augustus and Harold Render on Saturday.

Mrs. Starr Graham opened her house for a sales demonstration Wednesday.

The West Farmington Cemetery Association met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Howard. Miss Dorothy Katz was appointed to fill a trustee vacancy with other trustees being re-elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowers spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. William Tammy. Pearl Curb of Detroit, is now spending the week at the Tammy home.

Miss Helen Tammy spent the week end in Lansing.

Graham Giegler called on Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Knapp Friday.

Mrs. Frank Jones of Florida is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Jack Hetrick, this week.

Mrs. H. N. McCracken is showing some improvement.

Girl Scout News

A group of 134 Brownies and their leaders from the Farmington-Novice area took part in the Brownie Pow, Pow day activities Saturday, June 19, at the Proud Lake Recreation area.

Lunch was cooked over open fires with hikes, song singing and games also included in the program. Mr. Thornton, naturalist from Boys Republic conducted the afternoon hike. Organization and a Mariner from Troop 527, led the group in song and games.

Mrs. Bader, coordinator for this first combined District Brownie activity, presented streamers to the following participating troops: Middlebelt Troops 218 and 203; Bond Troop 197; Farmington Troops 195, 188 and 183; and Our Lady of Sorrows Troops 228, 170 and 463. The streamers were made and donated by Mrs. Leo Hunert, to be attached to Troop Flags.

Mrs. Wade Dickerson called a campfire for the girls who had participated in the Camp-O-See for last Wednesday night with girls and parents alike gathered to see skits and hear the many Scout songs.

Concluding the program, the girls of each troop wrote a note on paper and rolled them in a campfire. Before throwing the faggot in the fire, each Troop read a verse as the group made a circle around the campfire and thus ended the first Camp-O-See for area Girl Scouts.

Mr. and Mrs. Adain Bern and their twin daughters, Evelyn and Elaine, of Detroit, were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Atman of Shady Side Avenue. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ohtonen from Hancock, Michigan.
