COMPETITION KEEN IN RECENT LAND SALES IN STATE

Strong competitive bidding parked recent public auctions of state-owned lands in six lower centinsula counties, lands work-ers say, with more than $128,000

ers say, with more than $128,000 belong returned to county treasuries through the sales. The auctions were conducted by conservation department lands workers in Ann Arbor, Pontiac, Port Huron and Detroit last week. All lands offered in the Pontiac and Detroit sales were purchased All lands offered in the Pontlac and Detroit sales were purchased and only a few scattered parcels remained in state ownership when the Ann Arbor and Port Huron sales ended.
