DECORATIVE TREND
LEANS TO CASUAL,
TEMPORARY

Keynote of the current decorative trend lies in the words "casual contemporary." Easy to look at, easy to live with, easy to care for — these are the big things in today's new furniture, fabrics and floor coverings. All reflect the American trend toward relaxed living in the home and away from stuffy, traditional.

Today's casual modern furniture fits the basic requirements of living, it's refreshingly original. The new pieces can go in many places in the home and perform many functions. Dual purpose pieces move from bedroom to living room; dinette to living room; living room to parlor. All are typical of furniture that plays a decorative role as well as a utilitarian purpose.

Furniture today can mix or match. Sometimes it is a blend of traditional and modern. It can be one wood or several.

Movie Stars' Make-Up Aids Can Be Yours

—BY EDNA MILES

WHENEVER you envy the porcelain prettiness of your favorite movie star, just remember that the make-up tools available to her can be yours, too.

Stars are made-up especially for the screen by experts. But off-screen, they must look just as they do in the movies. They achieve the loveliness that the public expects by learning how to use make-up tools most effectively.

Such tools are not expensive and they are highly effective in helping you to obtain a natural look when using make-up. You might begin by buying a sable lip brush, one that has like a dry paint brush. With a little practice, you can learn to apply lipstick deftly, for a subtle effect. Follow up with a lip liner, which looks something like a red lead pencil but is actually a cosmetic crayon designed to give your lips a long-lasting outline.

For the eyes, there's another especially-designed paint brush with which to apply and smooth eye shadow on the lids. Use a delicate, outward stroke, working toward the temples. Then apply mascara with a moist mascara brush and follow with use of a dry brush. Use a larger-sized brush to smooth the eyebrows, after you've feathered them with light strokes of your eyebrow pencil. A miniature comb for the eyelashes is a handy aid and an eyelash curler will make even short lashes look longer.

The powder brush, which originated in Paris, will take off loose particles of clinging powder, leaving your skin with a soft, velvety look.

Last of the make-up tools you should own is a magnifying mirror, which will show up any small defects so that you can correct them. In a way, the magnifying mirror is your best friend, and is certainly a fine make-up guide.

Actress Sally Forrest takes make-up experts' advice, uses a lip brush when applying lipstick, to gain that natural look.

Elect New Officers At Conventions

Delegates at the 36th annual American Legion state convention last week in Grand Rapids elected new officers. National executive committee member, Arthur Clark, South Haven; alternate executive committee member, Robert G. Mathieson, Detroit.

Auxiliary officers elected at the convention include: first zone vice president, Mrs. Viola Robertson, River Rouge; second zone vice president, Mrs. Effie Campbell, Grand Rapids; third zone vice president, Mrs. Florence Hinespeter, Owasco; fourth zone vice president, Mrs. Martha Meyers, St. Helen; fifth zone vice president, Mrs. Lillian Gries, Escanaba; secretary-treasurer, Miss Bertha Proestel, Detroit; and chaplain, Mrs. Kathleen Dawley, Hillsdale.

The first commander elected from the Upper Peninsula in 12 years, Lundgren was opposed by WWI and 33-year Legionnaire Clarke Wilbur of Grand Rapids who, many legends estimate, are dictating, probably will be the last member from WWI to compete for the Legion's top state office.

Resolutions adopted by the 2,016 delegates included: planning Legion support to congressional committees investigating subversive activities, and a recommendation that persons convicted of felonies or treason be denied government pensions.

Another resolution asked the U. S. State Department to oppose "unilaterally" the admission of Red China to the United Nations and a fourth that, conscientious objectors to military service be denied employment in state institutions.

In his acceptance address to the assembly, Lundgren outlined his campaign for Michigan's 75,000 Legionnaires in the coming year. Other state officers elected with Lundgren are: first zone commander, Charles W. Snyder of Detroit; second zone commander, Leon R. Fenske, Petoskey; third zone commander, Jack Francis, St. Clair Shores; fourth zone commander, Robert McIntosh, Battle Creek; fifth zone commander, Laurel Heinke, Ironwood; adjutant, Lida H. Alexander, Plymouth; finance officer, Paul M. Mone, Chelsea; historian, Mrs. Lucille Mader, Wyandotte; chaplain, Rabbi Richard Hertz, Tem-

Large Number At
Farm Bureau Meet

Sixty-six persons gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lapham of Haggerty Road for the July meeting of the West Farmington Farm Bureau on Tuesday evening, July 27. A picnic pot luck supper was served on the lawn at 6:30 p.m. with some of the group arriving earlier to go for a swim in the Lapham pool.

A short business meeting followed the supper. A discussion was led by Paul Button on the topic of "Emphasis on Marketing, Research and Salesmanship." The group decided that, on Question One, the research and education program can help to increase the sale of Michigan farm products by the education of the farmers to put more value on Michigan products and by-products.

Question Two: stress quality more than quantity.

Question Three: organize and advertise products individually and through group organized Farm Bureaus.

Following adjournment, the balance of the evening was spent visiting.

The August meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Williams, 20355 Halsted Road.
