Karen Larson, Robert Massell Wed At Novi Methodist Church Saturday

Karen Larson of 44231 Grand River and Robert W. Massell of Detroit were joined in marriage in a colorful double-ring ceremony at the Novi Methodist Church Saturday morning, August 14.

The bride was lovely in a ballerina length gown of embroidered net over tulle and a close fitting jacket with long sleeves, buttoned at the waist. She wore a satin cap trimmed with seed pearls and a short veil. Her flowers were stephanotis and lilies. Lillian Hanson, dressed in a pale blue embroidered gown, served as maid of honor. Allen Beck acted as best man.

For the wedding the bride's mother, Mrs. Louis Larson, chose a gray suit with navy blue accessories and wore a pink rose corsage. The groom's mother wore a beige suit with brown accessories and a yellow corsage.

A reception was held in the church basement. Ice cream, cake, tea and coffee were served to the guests from a table decorated in pink and blue and adorned with candelabras.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. J. V. Voorhees of Duluth, Minnesota, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Fred Deseleni, Mr. and Mrs. J. Burton Haer and son Ricker of Springfield, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Isbell of Howell.

The newlyweds are now honeymooning in northern Michigan. Upon returning they will make their home in Highland Park. Mr. Massell will resume his studies at Wayne University this fall.

W.C.T.U. Plans Meeting, Pot Luck Dinner Tuesday

The Farmington Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet Tuesday, August 24, at the home of Mrs. B. T. Hawley of 15001 Angling Road.

A pot luck dinner will be served. All members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

JOANN McROBERTS
Joann McRoberts, a former Farmington resident now living in Clawson, was united in marriage with Thomas Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter of Clawson, on Saturday, August 14. The former Miss McRoberts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bruce McRoberts who now reside at 42 Charlevoix in Clawson.

Before moving from Farmington to his family, Joann attended the St. Paul's Lutheran School.

The Hunters will make their home in Gainesville, Florida, while Mr. Hunter completes his studies at the University of Florida.

Floyd Bonds Return To California Following Visit
Dr. and Mrs. Floyd A. Bond and sons, Richard and Robert, of Claremont, California, are returning to their home after a 12-day visit with Mr. Bond's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bond, 30005 Orchard Lake Road, and other relatives and friends.

Bond is chairman of the Department of Zoology at Claremont, beginning his sabbatical year of instructing this fall. He was recently awarded a faculty fellowship by the fund for the advancement of education by the Ford Foundation.

Tweeds A 'Must' In Girl's College Wear This Fall

The tweed suit or coordinated separates promise to be the outfit that every college girl will buy this fall. Tweeds offer these new features: soft styling that goes with their newly softened texture, and wonderful colors. Whether young in silhouette, with short fitted jacket and the flared, petticoated skirt, or with the slouchy new elegance of slim lines and loose jacket, the tweed suit suits the pocketbooks of the young college girls.

Townline News Mrs. Frazer Huits
