Private Ronald R. Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Imus of 34705 Grand River, is now taking training at the anti-aircraft and guided missiles school at Fort Bliss, Texas, the Army disclosed

Bliss, Texis, the Army disclosed this will spend eight weeks of concentrated study on radio controlled airplane turget, airframe and engine maintenance at the Fort Bliss Artillery School. The school not only trains Army personnel but students from the three other branches of service as well as some troops from altied countries.

Watson is a graduate of Farmington High School. He entered the Army in May of this year.

On the average, you can figure on getting from 18 to 24 quarts of canned peaches from one bush-el (48 pounds) of the fresh fruit.
