Singers Are Going To England

YPSILANTI Two Observant students are among the 20 members of an Eastern Michigan University singing group which will fly to England May 29 for a month's tour. They are Judy Closser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Closser of Barton Street Garden City; and Roger Bice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Bice of W. Chicago, Redford Township.

The group is the Eastern Michigan University Madrigal Singers. The singers first performed in England in 1970 and they have been invited back.

The ensemble was organized and is directed by Emily Love, assistant professor of music. The 10 men and 10 women members are chosen by audition and each singer is capable of performing as a soloist.

The English tour will include some 15 formal concerts, plus additional appearances in parish churches and schools. Five English universities will entertain the group.

SARAH ROTH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Roth of Ingram, will perform Schumann's Concerto for cello (opus 129), with the Michigan Youth Symphony at 8 p.m. Saturday, May 26, in Warner Auditorium, Central Michigan University. The concert is one of three being held during Michigan Week in Mt. Pleasant. Miss Roth was one of 11 winners in state-wide competition by the State Youth Arts Festival.

Farmington Ballerina Is Winner

A member of Farmington's Suburban Concert Ballet, Melissa Mitchell, has been awarded two ballet scholarships after auditioning in New York City. The 16-year-old Seabolt High School sophomore was accepted in the scholarship program at the American Ballet Theater and Harkness House of Ballet. She will spend this summer in New York studying. Miss Mitchell has danced leading roles in the Suburban Ballet Company's productions of "The Nutcracker," "Circus," "Les Petits Reins" and "L'American."

She has studied ballet for eight years and is a student of the Evelyn Kresson Dance Studio in Farmington. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Mitchell of Birmingham.
