Q. . . . Please tell me what street I have lived here for 22 years and still don't know whether it is Power or Powers Road? Some places the signs read Power while on the other end of the street they read Powers. Why isn't it the same?

Mollie Maynard

A. . . . The road is named after the Power family, original settlers in Farmington. However, both the official city and township maps give it as Powers Road. Powers is also the most frequently used address and in conversation. As the old street signs are replaced they should be made to conform to the official name.

Q. . . . I have a very untimely question, but one which interests me greatly. I have heard about some sort of program for children during the summer in which they are taken to places of interest. Perhaps other newcomers would be interested, too, so they can plan ahead. What is the age group? How often are the trips taken? How much does it cost? Who sponsors it? Who is eligible?

B. J.

A. . . . Summer programs are conducted by both the Farmington and Clareville Recreation Commissions. The programs in-

Townline News

Mrs. Frazer Huits

Boys and girls from the eighth grade class at Farmington Junior High School enjoyed a hay ride and barn dance at the home of Mary Huits Saturday evening. Sixteen boys and girls were present.

The Women's Committee of the Oakland County Farm Bureau will meet October 5 at the West Bloomfield Town Hall. Mrs. Otto Reitz and Mrs. Alfred Randall of Maple Road will serve as hostesses.

A going-away party was given Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gerds for Betty Gerds, who will be leaving soon for Galveston, Texas, to take a job in a hospital there. Thirty-three persons gathered to bid Miss Gerds goodbye.

She will be accompanied by Gladys Frohn, also of Farmington. Both are graduate nurses.

Guest at the home of the Frazer Huits from Friday until Tuesday of last week was Freeman Butler of Roscommon.

Pvt. Albert Hanson of Fort Bragg, North Carolina, spent the week end at his home here.

Mrs. Frances Hanson and Mrs. Arthur Sheffler entertained guests at the Hanson home on Greening last Thursday. The guests were Mrs. Clara Stover and Massillon, Ohio, and Mrs. Albert Jungles of Livonia.

Local Man Attends Hardware Meeting

Pat Buttermore of Hutton's Hardware Store in Farmington was among 110 hardware personnel in attendance last week at the third annual Michigan Hardware Store Management Conference at Michigan State College. The conference, held September 22 and 23, was sponsored by the Michigan Retail Hardware Association.

New ideas in merchandising were exchanged by those in attendance. Advertising was one of the big topics discussed. Hardware firms were urged to spend three per cent of their gross dollar for advertising. "The great advertising should go into newspaper advertising, a medium which will never be replaced," declared William G. Minnes, advertisers exchange.

Among other speakers addressing the group were W. F. Boyle, manager of the Michigan Chain Stores Bureau, Lansing, and Thomas A. Hunter, George S. May Company, Chicago.

Wayne County Health Guide To Meet October 7

The Wayne County Health Guide will hold its first meeting of the season a week from this Thursday, October 7. The meeting and luncheon will be held at the Evangelist Lutheran Home at 6700 Outer Drive starting at 12:30 p.m.

Reverend Kuhlman will speak to the group on the topic of "Care of the Aged." All members of the guild and other interested parties are urged to attend. For reservations call Plymouth 579.

The devotion of thought to an honest achievement makes the achievement possible.

Earl Linemeyer Enroute To States For Discharge

Earl Linemeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Linemeyer of 21644 Haprock, left England, Tuesday of this week and is now enroute to the States for discharge from the Air Force.

Linemeyer has been stationed in England for the past two years and was married while stationed there. His wife, Doreen, and their five-month-old daughter will come to the States sometime in November.

Earl attended Farmington High School before entering the Air Force.

This age is reaching out to wards the perfect principle of things; is pushing towards perfection in art, invention and manufacture.

Kiwians To Pay Tribute To Local Newspapers

Kiwians of Farmington will help in celebrating National Newspaper Week at their regular meeting Tuesday, October 5. It was announced this week by local Kiwanis Club Vice-President George Weyhing.

Representatives of The Farmington Enterprise will be guests of the club at the meeting. A special program dedicated to newspapers is planned.

In announcing the celebration, Weyhing pointed out that over 3,800 Kiwanis Clubs on the North American continent as well as Hawaii will pay tribute to the press in a similar manner during the week of October 3 through 9.
